Saturday: Phil 1:18b-26/Lk 14:1, 7-11
Next Sunday: Rv 7:2-4, 9-14/1 Jn 3:1-3/Mt 5:1-12a

Introductions to Sunday Readings: by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven & Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Exodus 22:20-26

The book of Exodus recounts how the Jews escaped from slavery in Egypt and made a covenant with God at Mount Sinai. While we're familiar with the 10 Commandments as part of this covenant, God also included other laws. Note that many of them deal with how we treat other people.

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

Some geography will help us appreciate this reading. Macedonia was a Roman province in nothern Greece in which the city of Thessalonica was located. Achaia was the province in the southern Greece to which Paul journeyed after preaching to the Thesssalonians. In this, his first letter to the Thessalonians, Paul reports that, on his journey, he learned that their exemplary faith was already known and talked about throughout Greece.

This Is Your Chance to give your views on parish life & diocesan policies to the archbishop.

Synod 2027

SYNOD 2027 for the archdiocese will be held from September 15-18, 2027 to determine the priorities and goals for the local church on how to live out its apostolic mission. A General Assembly, not yet chosen from a wide cross-section of the archdiocese, will meet and recommend action based on information contained in the Conversations in the Spirit.

INPUT FROM YOU FOR SYNOD 2027 There are many Conversations in the Spirit being held in the archdiocese which will provide the material for Synod 2027.

The closest Conversation will be held at

Our Lady of Sorrows in Monroe on Wednesday, October 28th from 7- 9 pm.
If that day doesn't work, please see all the options by visiting the link below to register.

Here is the format. A group of people seated around a table are given three rounds to answer the question, "As you reflect on your experience of faith and the church, what stands out for your experience of joy or hope, difficulty and disappointment, belonging or exclusion, encounter or longing?"

First round: your views with no questions asked, reflection time.

Second round: your views but you can comment on what others say.

Third round: reflect together on what moves you most deeply.

Register today at https://catholicaoc.org/conversations

Checklist for Time Change Sunday

The first Sunday in November is Daylight Savings Time. Here are a few tips to help you get ready.

Change your Batteries in the Smoke Detectors and Carbon Monoxide Detectors
Safety experts recommend replacing smoke and carbon monoxide detector batteries twice a year.

Lighting and Outdoor Timers
Adjust automated porch lights, indoor smart plugs, and security camera schedules to match the new sunset time.

Adjust your bedtime routine a week before
Start going to bed 10 to 15 minutes each night leading up to the time change which will help your body adjust more smoothly.

Prioritize Daylight Exposure
Finding time for daylight exposure on the days following the changes in and out of daylight savings time can help your body's internal clock get used to the new timing of daylight and darkness.

A Joyful Celebration of Sacraments at School Mass

At this past Tuesday's school Mass, our community shared in a wonderful celebration of faith as three students were welcomed into the Church through the sacrament of Baptism. We offer our warmest congratulations and blessings to Kai Francis, Ari Liggett, and Brogan Waters!

The joy continued as four students received the Eucharist for the very first time. Congratulations to Kai Francis, Emily Lacefield, Ari Liggett, and Brogan Waters on celebrating their First Holy Communion. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers as they continue their journey of faith.
