Introductions to Sunday Readings: by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven & Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Revelation 7:2-24, 9-14

The Book of Revelation is not intended to predict actual people and events in future times. The author was concerned only about people and events in that time and was given no privileged information about the future. In today's passage, the author encourages people of that time by presenting a vision of God's people enjoying heavenly life.

Second Reading - 1 John 3:1-3

In our first reading, we heard symbolic images of what heaven will be like. The author of our second reading also talks about what heaven will be like, but without attempting to give us any specific details.

Help Upgrade Our Classrooms: Annual Fund Campaign

As our St. John XXIII family grows, we are launching this year's Annual Fund Campaign with a goal of $400,000 to upgrade our school's cooling system.

We are incredibly blessed to have received a generous donation of the outside AC units valued at $150,000. Now, we need your help to fund the purchase and installation of the interior system for the entire second and third floors. Replacing our aging window units with a modern, reliable system will directly improve classroom comfort, boost energy efficiency, and create a better learning environment for our students and staff.

Every gift makes a difference. Donations of $200 or more include an invitation to our annual Wine and Cheese Event!

To discuss larger sponsorship opportunities, please contact the school office. Thank you for investing in our students' ability to thrive!

Calvary Cemetery Collection

By Dr. Steph Burk - parishioner & Calvary Cemetery Assoc. Member

Several years ago I found, among the possessions of a deceased aunt, a few words jotted on an old dry cleaning receipt, of all things: "section" and "lot" numbers that suggested the location of a burial. On a hunch I called Woodside, and sure enough - it was the location of "infant boy" Burk, a child who would have been my father's older brother. I spent a lot of time digesting the fact that there had been another Burk boy (there were several and they varied in looks but were alike in their ability to make mischief). In Calvary cemetery I once came across a row of infant burials all belonging to the same family. A little while later I was contacted by a parishioner who said "I was the one that lived!" and we surmised that her mother may have been affected by the Rh factor blood group, that in past times was a relatively common and tragic cause of newborn deaths.

All cemeteries have stories to tell, but they can only be told when the grounds are cared for and the stones kept in good condition from year to year to remind us of what lies beneath. Cemeteries such as our Calvary Cemetery on Clark Street, which have no more gravesites to sell, need your help to survive. At this time of year, when we traditionally remember and venerate our deceased family members and friends, we ask your support in keeping our Catholic Cemetery in good order. Donation envelopes can be found in the November collection envelope packets. Thank you for your caring and generous support!
