Day Camp Counsellor (6 Full-Time Positions Available)

Day Camp Counsellors are responsible for the day-to-day supervision of campers who attend the MCA Summer Camp. Each Day Camp Counsellor reports to the Day Camp Leader and the Program Coordinator or Principal. As a Day Camp Counsellor you will be guiding campers through MCA-related activities centered around the curriculum designed by the Day Camp Leader. A strong academic foundation in these areas is a huge asset. A Day Camp Counsellor must be fun and energetic but have good group management skills as well. Day Camp Counsellors are responsible for implementing activities, respecting safety and health protocols, assisting with cleanup and exhibiting strong leadership skills. Specific responsibilities include:

- Supervise and support a group of campers.
- Adhere to the MCA Summer Camp Policy.
- Implement the MCA Summer Camp curriculum by leading inquiry, discussion and activities with campers.
- Assist campers in learning more about MCA.
- Adhere to the Activity Schedule and the Training Manual.
- Mentor Leaders-in-Training (LITs).
- Provide appropriate and professional feedback to parents.
- Model appropriate behaviour and positive interactions with campers and your peers in all daily routines and the program delivery.
- Ensure all emergency procedures are taught and practiced by all campers at MCA Summer Camp.
- Attend training sessions and prepare camp items before camp begins.
- Complete all child safety and employment training requirements as per MCA school policy.
- Carry out any other duties assigned by the Day Camp Counsellor and/or the Program Coordinator or Principal.

Details:

- Available for 8 weeks, June 15, 2026 to August 7, 2026.
- 35 hours per week
