Sail from New York through the Maritimes and Atlantic Canada, to Greenland and finally, to Iceland. You'll cross the Atlantic with never more than 2 days at sea + this Summer Solstice cruise offers 22 hours of daylight! If you've ever thought of visiting Iceland, this is your chance. Cascading waterfalls. Pristine Fjords. Hot springs and geysers. Vibrant culture and Viking history. Many compare Iceland to the surface of the moon. It's spectacular, unusual, beautiful and so easy on this cruise. See Greenland, and enjoy a spectacular cruise through Prince Christian Sound. Greenland abounds in natural beauty. Qaqortoq is the main town with its compact heart centered around the harbour and main square - a great place to stroll on your own. Rounding out this itinerary are 3 stops in the Maritimes and Atlantic Canada - Nova Scotia & Newfoundland! In NFL, we love the Signal Hill National Historic Site and strolling the colourful Jellybean Row houses. In Halifax, the Hopper Tour is inexpensive, highly rated and you see so much. This Summer Solstice itinerary will be beautiful. You must book this early - it's selling out! Call us today!
