Attendance Policy

Regular attendance is necessary so that your child will receive the best Catholic formation that we can provide. Parents are asked to call the school office (546 -2159) if their child will be absent. An absence will be considered "excused" if advance notice is given along with a valid reason (for example, illness, family emergency, or parental visitation arrangements.) It will be necessary to make up the lessons missed. Chronic absences will result in the student needing to repeat the current grade level before receiving future sacraments. Any student who is to receive a sacrament must have been enrolled in PSR the previous year. Parental support, involvement, example, and teaching is essential in helping your child have a fruitful reception of the sacraments and to have a faithful, long-term Christian commitment. Dates are indicated on the calendar.

Homework

Homework may be assigned in any PSR class.
Parents are asked to help and support their children by reviewing lessons, checking information brought home, and reminding them to take materials back to class each week. Again, parental involvement helps to reinforce the importance of learning about our faith and good Christian values.

Discipline Policy

Our PSR teachers teach the basics of our Catholic faith.
As our time with your children is limited, it is important that the time be solely devoted to teaching. The behavior of students attending PSR is expected to reflect Christian values. Each teacher will make classroom expectations and rules clear to the children, as well as the consequences for not following them. Any student who consistently chooses to disregard rules will be referred to the office and a meeting with parents and the student will be arranged.

Student Safety

The students will receive personal safety training appropriate to their grade level. Parents must sign a consent form available online at www.ctkparish.com and return the signed form to the school office.

Registration

The completed registration form, available online at www.ctkparish.com must be completed and returned to the school office by September 8th.
