Champagne Assailly "Mongamin", Blanc de Blancs, Grand Cru

Avize, Champagne, France

The "Mongamin" cuvée is a special one—originally created in 1938 by Maurice Assailly for his son, Christian. It's made from 100% Chardonnay grapes sourced exclusively from a single Grand Cru parcel in Avize. Fermented in stainless steel and aged on the lees for an extended period, it offers a refined and complex profile. Expect aromas of mature yeast and toasted notes, leading to a full, complex, and persistent palate with a hint of sweetness.

Fresnet-Juillet, Cuvée Vincent, Blanc de Noirs, Grand Cru

Verzy, Montagne de Reims, Champagne, France

A 100% Pinot Noir Blanc de Noirs exclusively from the Grand Cru village of Verzy, this bottle leans into power and structure while still keeping things silky and elegant. Coming from a top small Grower-Producer champagne house, this champagne is extremely unique based on its terroir. Only a few hundred years ago, the Village of Verzy was a Flint quarry which has greatly affected the unique characteristics of the Pinot Noir. You'll get a deep core of red fruit and a bit of spicy smokey notes with a textured, full-bodied feel—perfect with richer dishes like grilled red meats or savory salmon.

Why we LOVE this

It's 100% Grand Cru from One Specific Village Terroir!
