Legal basis for processing your personal data

The legal basis for the collection and processing of your personal data is:

- for administration and programme delivery and, where applicable, obtaining parental consent: that it is necessary to fulfil the contract that you are going to enter into or have entered into with us
- for dealing with medical needs: that you have given your explicit consent or it is in your vital interests.
- in all other cases: that it is necessary for our legitimate interests or those of the ECB which are to build a programme to encourage participation in cricket and this does not prejudice or harm your rights and freedoms, or those of parents/guardians of those under [18] that join that programme.

Your right to withdraw consent

Where you have given your consent to any processing of personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. If you do, it will not affect the lawfulness of any processing for which we had consent prior to your withdrawing it.

Location of your personal data

ECAD will keep your personal data within the UK. [Need to check with Louis Wright]

Retention - how long we will keep your personal data for

We will not retain your personal data for longer than is reasonable and necessary for the purposes for which it was collected. We shall retain your personal data for such time as you are registered with ECAD as a member.

2 years after you cease to be a member of ECAD or play an active part in ECAD, we shall delete your data excepting that needed to keep historical scorecard and statistical records

Your rights in respect of your personal data

You have the right of access to your personal data and, in some cases, to require us to restrict, erase or rectify it or to object to our processing it, and the right of data portability.
