

Constance L. Carter

Mrs. Constance Carter serves alongside her husband, Pastor Joe C. Carter, Jr., as First Lady of Peoples Missionary Baptist Church-Lafayette. In this role, she encourages others and supports the church's mission through service, outreach, and faithful leadership.

Constance is passionate about women's ministry and community engagement. She actively supports church initiatives and seeks to strengthen others through encouragement, service, and a heart for ministry.

Grounded in servant leadership, Constance inspires others to live with faith and purpose. Her ability to connect with people from all walks of life has made her a trusted source of support and encouragement.

She also values time with her family and serving in ministry alongside her husband. Together, they are committed to building a Christ-centered church that impacts lives in their community and beyond
