Dear parishioners,

You may have heard news these past few weeks regarding the excommunications involving the schismatic Society of St. Pius X (SSPX). I have decided to go ahead and address a few of the facts in case people are confused or have questions.

The SSPX was a society founded in the 1970s by Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre for those attached to the celebration of the mass as it was before the Second Vatican Council. In 1988, Lefebvre consecrated four new bishops against the will of Pope John Paul II; according to canon law, this was an automatically excommunicable offense for him and the four bishops he ordained. In 2009, as a showing of mercy, Pope Benedict XVI lifted the excommunication of the SSPX bishops. The SSPX has had an irregular status over the years as Rome has tried to bring them back into the fold. Their rejection of key points of the Second Vatican Council, however, have not made reconciliation possible. On July 1st in Switzerland, the SSPX again consecrated four new bishops against the express prohibition of Pope Leo XIV. The next day, Rome certified that the ordaining bishops and four new bishops had automatically excommunicated themselves, and it also took the additional step of establishing that all SSPX clergy and any lay faithful who "formally adhere" to the SSPX have automatically excommunicated themselves. A more detailed history of Rome's dealings with the SSPX can be found at the following link: <https://tinyurl.com/4fmr2fm3>

These schismatic actions are incredibly sad and tear at the Body of Christ. I would like to ask that we pray fervently that the SSPX clergy and those who attend their sacraments may repent and be reconciled to the Catholic Church.

I would like to add that the SSPX is not the same as the Fraternal Society of St. Peter (FSSP), a clerical society founded in 1988 to counter the SSPX and provide the pre-Vatican II mass to the faithful. The FSSP are faithful to the Holy Father and the Second Vatican Council, and here in our diocese, they operate in two parishes under the authority of Bishop Taylor: St. John the Baptist in Cabot and Our Lady of Sorrows in Springdale. The good pastoral work of the FSSP shows that the problem is not the traditional Latin mass; the problem is one of rejection of the Second Vatican Council's teaching and the authority of the Holy Father to govern the Church.

In Christ,
Father Stephen

As Jesus sought the quiet of the desert, teach us to pray.
As Jesus washed the feet of his disciples,
teach us to love.
As Jesus promised paradise to the thief on the cross,
teach us to hope.
As Jesus called Peter to walk to him across the water,
teach us to believe.
As the child Jesus sat among the elders in the temple,
teach us to seek answers.
As Jesus in the garden opened his mind and heart to God's will,
teach us to listen.
As Jesus reflected on the Law and the prophets,
teach us to learn.
As Jesus used parables to reveal the mysteries of the Kingdom,
teach us to teach.
