INVOCATION: George Grzeszkowiak

HYMN OF PRAISE: O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing UMH #57
vs. 1,2,3,7

CALL TO WORSHIP:

Leader: As Methodists, we have been called "A Singing People."

People: We love singing praises to God – it warms our hearts.

Leader: In his Directions for Singing, found in the United Methodist hymnal, John Wesley encourages us to learn the hymns in the hymnal before all other songs.

People: He says that we should all sing together as frequently as we can! That even for those who find it a cross to bear, singing will be a blessing.

Leader: He says we should sing lustily and with good courage and to beware of singing as if we were half dead or half asleep.

People: We lift up our voices in strength! We strive to unite our voices together to make one clear melodious sound to God.

Leader: We sing together: hymns that we love, clearly and melodiously, with strength and modesty, in time and in tune – an act of fellowship and worship.

People: But above all we sing spiritually, with an eye to God for every word we sing.

Leader: Today as we sing, may we worshipfully and continually offer our hearts to God.

People: We sing today and every day until that time when we sing before the throne of God.

All: Let us worship God in song! Amen!
