John 9:1

The long narration of Jesus' encounter with the blind man from birth coincides with the second scrutiny laid out for those chosen for RCIA, in which the entire assembly should participate. In the Gospel, Jesus heals this blind man with a light that shines beyond the poor man, curing him despite the many difficulties it would later bring. The Christian community prays deeply today for those who will be initiated in a few weeks, and must remember how important it is to live as children of the light. Embraced by Christ's light that is experienced by each of us from the time of our baptism, we know and trust that we can overcome all of life's obstacles. The light of our risen Lord guides us always as a shepherd guides the sheep, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death" (Psalm 23:4). This is the second symbol that the year A readings provide us. The water that gives life (Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan Woman), and the light that guides the way (encounter with the blind man from birth) become for all of us two of the main liturgical elements of the Easter Vigil, during which we will celebrate the Lord's passing from death to life.

Readings ~ 03/15/2025
IV Sunday of Lent

First Reading 1 Samuel 16 The LORD sent Samuel to Bethlehem to the house of Jesse, where Samuel was to anoint the new king of Israel. After Jesse presented each of his sons, the LORD instructed Samuel to anoint the youngest, David.
Responsorial Psalm 23:1-3a
Second Reading Ephesians 5:8 Live as children of light in goodness, justice, and truth. "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."
Gospel John 9:1
Jesus cured a man born blind. The Pharisees became upset because he did this on the Sabbath. After the Pharisees rejected the man's story, he met Jesus again. Jesus, "Son of Man," explained how the blind will see, but those who hold on to sin will remain in darkness.

Readings ~ 03/22/2025
V Sunday of Lent

First Reading Ezekiel 37:12-14
The Lord God told the people that soon the graves of the dead would open and they would rise. "I will put my spirit in you that you may live...says the LORD."
Responsorial Psalm 130:1-2
Second Reading Romans 8:8-11
"Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him." God, who raised Jesus from the dead, will raise also those in whom the Spirit dwells."
Gospel John 11:1-45
Lazarus died, and Jesus raised him from death. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die"
