The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

John 6:51-58

In the flight from Egypt, the people of Israel experienced not only their freedom from slavery, but also the freedom to establish their own identity as a people. Each year, they celebrated with a family banquet in thanksgiving for the saving action of God in their history. Despite the many obstacles that the people faced on their journey through the desert, God sustained his people with nourishment and hope. At the Last Supper, Jesus offered for us holy and living food, the sacrifice of his body and blood in the appearance of bread and wine, to sustain us on the journey to eternal life. Jesus is the "living bread that came down from heaven," (John 6:51) recalling the manna that their ancestors ate as they journeyed to the Promised Land. The Scriptures today were specifically chosen to enrich the spiritual life of the faithful, and do so most effectively when they are presented in a catechetical style that is accessible to all. Today, choir directors may find inspiration in the Scripture texts to sing a number of songs in their repertoire, but a special effort should be given this week to the singing of the Sequence, which may require a number of weeks of rehearsal beforehand. The text and music of the Sequence exults and proclaims the joy of the Church for the gift of the eucharistic mystery that all celebrate and adore.

Pope's Intention for June:

For the values of sports

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.
