II Ordinary Time

John 1:29

When John says he did not know Jesus (John 1:31,33) he was referring to the hidden reality of Jesus' divinity. But the Holy Spirit in that hour revealed to John Jesus' true nature, such that John bore witness that this is the Son of God. How can we be certain that Jesus is truly the Christ, the Son of the living God? The Holy Spirit makes the Lord Jesus Christ known to us through the gift of faith. God gives us his Spirit as our helper and guide who opens our hearts and minds to receive and comprehend the great mystery and plan of God - to unite all things in his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 1:10).

The Parish Office will be closed for Martin Luther King Day! Please look on our website for any questions! Thank You!

Pope's Intention for January:
For prayer with the word of God
Let us pray that praying with the word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

POPE LEO XIV

One in nine people in Utah experience hunger. That's why CCS operates Joyce Hansen Hall Food Bank, the largest pantry in Northern Utah. We can't do it alone. Will you join us in ensuring that our neighbors are well fed? Learn more about how you can help at <https://bit.ly/3pfVRJm>.

WORLD WIDE NEWS

Angelus: "God does not look at the world from afar"
"God does not look at the world from afar, without touching our lives, our wounds and our hopes," the Bishop of Rome continued. "He comes among us with the wisdom of his Word made flesh, drawing us into a surprising plan of love for all humanity." To the great astonishment of John the Baptist, the Lord himself chooses to be baptized "like all sinners, in order to reveal the infinite mercy of God." The sacrament of baptism, Pope Leo said, introduces each of us into the life of the Church, "the People of God, made up of men and women of every nation and culture, reborn by his Spirit."
The Pope encouraged the faithful to remember "this great gift we have received," committing themselves "to bear witness to it with joy and authenticity." He also recalled the service earlier that morning in the Sistine Chapel, during which he baptized twenty newborns, now "our new brothers and sisters in the faith."

At annual meeting, Catholic historians assess impact of first American pope

Flanagan said he sees Leo exercising the papacy as not so much "at the top of the pyramid but as at the center of conversation."

He said this is likely influenced by Leo's past as leader of a religious order — the Order of St. Augustine — rather than a diocese because the orders are "global, diverse, and somewhat fractious." "You can't govern a global religious community without getting people on board," he said.

Readings ~ 1/18/2025

II Ordinary Time

First Reading Isaiah 49:3 "It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm 40:2, 4,

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

Gospel John 1:29 "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel."

New Year, New Me

With the New Year there are changes that are happening around our parish! Please pay attention to any announcements posted in the Lobby, Bulletin, Website and our Facebook! Here are a couple of new things to be mindful about:

1. The Pre-Baptismal Classes are now at 6p.m. every first Wednesday of the month.
2. We have remodeled our website! Check it out for any information you are looking for!
3. We need Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Mass coordinators for the English Masses, Please contact the Parish Office if you are available to help our Parish!

Readings ~ 01/25/2025

III Ordinary Time

First Reading Isaiah 8:23

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone."

Responsorial Psalm 27:1, 4

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1

"I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose."

Gospel Matthew 4:12-23

"From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him.
