Matthew 21:33-43

The vineyard appears as a symbol of the house of Israel in both the first reading and the Gospel today.

The symbol represents the disobedience of a people that was called to live a covenant relationship with God and that, despite the warnings of its prophets, abandoned it. Jesus shares a parable with his audience about messengers sent as prophets to warn the people of their wrongdoing, who were tortured and killed throughout their history. Saint Matthew emphasizes that the last messenger, the heir to the vineyard, suffers the same death and compares the subject of the parable to Jesus, who suffered and died for all.

At times, we fail to appreciate the great treasure of Christ's grace and the experience of his encounter with us in the sacramental life of the Church. How can we maintain the joy of our faith and the spirit of loving in our daily

Pope's intentions for October

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

The Catholic Diocese of Salt Lake City is committed to protecting children and young people. If you are aware of abuse or have been abused by clerics, Church volunteers or Church workers, contact the Division of Child and Family Services, 1-800-678.9399.

Readings ~ 10/04/2026 XXVII Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Isaiah 5:1-7 Isaiah sang of his friend, "My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside." The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are God's cherished plant.

Responsorial Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

Second Reading Philippians 4:6-9 Paul wrote, "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition,...the God of peace will be with you." With thanksgiving, make your request known to God.

Gospel Matthew 21:33-43 Jesus told the parable of the vineyard owner who sent out slaves and finally his son to the rebellious tenants who killed them. "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes."

Readings ~ 10/11/2026 XXVIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Isaiah 25:6-10a Isaiah prophesied, "On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide...a feast of rich food and choice wines....The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every face....The hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain."

Responsorial Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Second Reading Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 Paul wrote, "I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry." When people share each other's hardships, God supplies their needs fully in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Matthew 22:1-10 Jesus likened God's reign to a great wedding banquet that a king gave for his son. Many were invited; some ignored the invitation.

Interfaith Suicide Prevention Summit will provide resources for faith leaders

Local Catholic lay leaders and clergy are encouraged to attend the Interfaith Suicide Prevention Summit for Faith Leaders on Oct. 29 at the Gail Miller SLCC Conference Center in Sandy.

"This event will offer clergy and lay leaders practical tools to better support parishioners struggling with addiction; and their families, who are often affected just as deeply," said Crystal Painter, director of the diocesan Office of Marriage & Family. "We will leave better equipped to help those who feel alone in their struggle."

Having leaders of many faiths participate helps address the suicide epidemic in the United States, said Benée Larsen, director of the National Alliance on Mental Illness- Utah Suicide Prevention.

THE ACT OF GIVING

How much should I give to the Church?

Almsgiving is a responsibility for all Christians and should be taken seriously. While families living in poverty or struggling to meet basic needs may be exceptions, those who are able should make a sincere effort to give.

If a family says its budget does not allow for giving while still spending on unnecessary items, it should consider reducing wasteful or discretionary expenses and place God first.

Whatever the circumstances, every family should strive to give sacrificially, even if the gift is small, and then build on that commitment over time.

Scripture reminds us to give freely and from the heart: "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7).

Jesus also praises the poor widow who gave two small coins, teaching that her humble offering was greater than the gifts of those who gave from their abundance (Luke 21:1-4).

Common Spirit Holy Cross Hospital -Jordan Valley invites you to join us for mass in our dedicated, Catholic chapel every Wednesday at 12:00pm.

All are welcome to participate in the mass, regardless of whether you are receiving services at the hospital.
