Matthew 5:17

Jesus taught reverence and respect for God's law - reverence for God himself, reverence for the Lord's Day, reverence or respect for parents, respect for life, for property, for another person's good name, respect for oneself and for one's neighbor lest wrong or hurtful desires master and enslave us. Reverence and respect for God's commandments teach us the way of love - love of God and love of neighbor. What is impossible to humans is possible to God who gives generously of his gifts and the power of the Holy Spirit to those who put their faith and trust in him. God gives us the grace, help, and strength to love as he loves, to forgive as he forgives, to think and judge as he judges, and to act as he acts with mercy, loving-kindness, and goodness. The Lord loves righteousness and hates wickedness. As his followers we must love his commandments and hate every form of sin and wrong-doing. If we want to live righteously as God desires for us, then we must know and understand the intention of God's commands for us, and decide in our heart to obey the Lord. Do you seek to understand the intention of his law and to grow in wisdom of his ways?

From the Pastors Desk

Dear brothers and sisters, this coming Wednesday 18th, Lent begins, sacramental sign of our conversion. Time of recollection and prayer. Time of reflection, of penance, of spiritual conversion. Fasting time and self-giving. Time to repent of our sins and to change something of us to be better and to live closer to Christ. Time for reconciliation with God and our brethren. Time to retire to our spiritual wilderness with Jesus.

Therefore, I exhort you to keep 40 days defined by fasting, abstinence, prayer and alms. Keep very zealously the days when we prepare to celebrate the Feast of the Resurrection of the Lord. Do not be captivated by the worldly distractions that separate you from the spiritual growth which all baptized are called.

As I said before, Lent is a time of conversion and spiritual growth. May the light of Christ rising in glory dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds and enable all of us to relive the experience of the disciples on the way to Emmaus. By listening to God's word and drawing nourishment from the table of the Eucharist, may our hearts be ever more ardent in faith, hope and love."

Readings ~ 02/15/2025
VI Sunday Ordinary Time

First Reading Sirach 15:15

"If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand."

Responsorial Psalm 119:1-2

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 2:6

"Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

Gospel Matthew 5:17

"Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place."

Readings ~ 02/22/2025
I Sunday of Lent

First Reading Genesis 2:7 "Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil."

Responsorial Psalm 51:3-4

Second Reading Romans 5:12

"For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous."

Gospel Matthew 4:1 "Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, ""All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him."
