Luke 24:13-35

Many agree that fear is the opposite of freedom and, therefore, love. In today's Gospel we hear the story of the two disciples who left Jerusalem in fear and sadness after the crucifixion, embarking on a journey toward the village of Emmaus. The Gospel writer places the risen Christ in their midst to remind us that Christ is always in the midst of our lives, we simply need to discover his healing and transformative touch. The story of Emmaus describes that the two disciples did not recognize the stranger at first, they only recognized him in the breaking of bread. The story of Emmaus places Christ in the midst of the Church that hears the word, embraces it deeply, and, at the breaking of the Bread at the paschal meal, Christ becomes present to sanctify all members of the Church, sending them forth on his mission throughout the world. Our testimony of faith arises out of our faith in his risen life, as does the testimony of the apostles in the first reading and the letter of Saint Peter. For Peter, life has changed radically from the sterile reality of the past, into the newness of life in Christ, the Lamb without blemish or defect. These weeks of Easter provide us all with the time of "mystagogy," a time of reflection and depth into the mystery of the Christ and the Church. This is a good time to participate in talks, conferences, and reflections, especially for the youth preparing to receive the sacraments.
