Matthew 18:15-20

We hear in Saint Matthew's Gospel today a clear-cut process of reconciliation. Jesus, who showers his mercy upon us unceasingly, invites us to make peace with those who have offended us. In his letter to the Romans, Saint Paul emphasizes that only in love can the law be fulfilled. Every gesture toward reconciliation inherently implies recognition of past errors, and strengthens us so that we do not commit them again. When we meet Christ in the sacrament of penance, he forgives us and feeds us with his resurrected life, giving us the opportunity to recognize our faults and to carry out the mission he has entrusted to each of us. Today, the word of God affirms that we cannot be reconciled with God without seeking reconciliation with our brothers and sisters. This theme provides an opportunity for ongoing reflection of our community groups. In the Sunday liturgy this week, emphasize the theme of reconciliation in the song selection and universal prayer to engage the assembly in the deeper meaning of reconciliation before they share in the reconciling love of Christ in the Eucharist.

Readings ~ 09/06/2026 XXIII Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Ezekiel 33:7-9 God called the prophet as a watchman for the house of Israel. Unless those called by God try to turn the wicked away from evil, they will not be saved. When holy people speak up on God's behalf, they are saved.

Responsorial Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9

Second Reading Romans 13:8-10 All commandments are summed up in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law."

Gospel Matthew 18:15-20 Jesus said, "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Readings ~ 09/13/2026 XXIV Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Sirach 27:30 - 28:9 Forgive the injustice of your neighbor, for then your own sins will be pardoned. Remember death, stop sinning, recall the commandments, love your neighbor, think of God's covenant, and overlook the faults of others.

Responsorial Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

Second Reading Romans 14:7-9 We are not our own masters, but we are responsible to the Lord as servants. In life and in death we belong to the Lord. Christ died and rose to life in order to become "Lord of both the dead and the living."

Gospel Matthew 18:21-35 In a parable on forgiveness, Jesus compared the reign of God to a king settling accounts with his officials: Moved by compassion, the king forgave some or all of each debt. An official then extorted the full amount he was owed, and the king punished him.

THE ACT OF GIVING

How much should I give to the Church?

Almsgiving is a responsibility for all Christians and should be taken seriously. While families living in poverty or struggling to meet basic needs may be exceptions, those who are able should make a sincere effort to give.

If a family says its budget does not allow for giving while still spending on unnecessary items, it should consider reducing wasteful or discretionary expenses and place God first.

Whatever the circumstances, every family should strive to give sacrificially, even if the gift is small, and then build on that commitment over time.

Scripture reminds us to give freely and from the heart: "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7).

Jesus also praises the poor widow who gave two small coins, teaching that her humble offering was greater than the gifts of those who gave from their abundance (Luke 21:1-4).

Common Spirit Holy Cross Hospital -Jordan Valley invites you to join us for mass in our dedicated, Catholic chapel every Wednesday at 12:00pm.

All are welcome to participate in the mass, regardless of whether you are receiving services at the hospital.
