Once all the bills are in we will post the total amount of funds raised in support of our school and parish. This is a big fundraiser for our parish and without all of your support in whatever form, it would not be nearly as successful from year to year. We truly appreciate all of your support.

Instruction for Receiving Holy Communion:

As Catholics we believe the Eucharist to be the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. Therefore those Catholics who are in full communion with the Church, in a state of grace, and are spiritually prepared may come forward to receive Holy Communion.

As the Eucharist is the greatest sign of unity in the Church, those who join us from other faith traditions, while unable to receive the Eucharist, may come forward to receive a blessing. Those who desire a blessing may come forward in line and request a blessing by placing a finger over their lips.

May we all continue our Lord's Prayer and pray for full unity of the Church.
