Sacred Heart of Jesus Traveling Icon

This past June 11, the bishops of the United States consecrated the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus leading up to the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. In solidarity with the U.S. bishops, the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a traveling icon of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Patrick's Parish is blessed to have this traveling icon in our parish this week. The reason for the icon is to spread devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to pray for our Lord to make his heart our own, so that we may see and love in others what he sees and loves in us. The particular image chosen for the traveling icon is the Sacred Heart of Jesus painted in 1767 by Pompeo Batoni and now venerated in the Church of the Gesù in Rome. In Batoni's beautiful painting, Jesus holds out to us his heart, enflamed with love and wrapped in thorns, so we can meditate on the sacrifice of his passion and be engulfed in his love. Our weekly Eucharistic Holy Hour this Monday at 7:00 p.m. will be devoted to prayers to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
