Women at the Well:

- Are you desiring a connection with other women?
- Do you find yourself going to Mass on Sundays and then leaving realizing you don't really know anyone in the pews?
- Do you often wonder, how do I meet people and grow in our Catholic Faith together?

Women at the Well is an apostolate of Catholic women coming together to grow in Faith + Community. Women at the Well will use Catholic Faith based resources that will create a space for women to join together in faith to encourage and support one another through prayer and small group discussion. This shouldn't be something that feels like "one more thing to do" but rather a way God is calling you to BE MORE. Our hope is that Women at the Well will be restful and rejuvenating and bring light and order into the rest of your life. More information will be made available in the next few weeks regarding our informational meeting. Contact Kate Siegfried (620) 272-7641 or Amanda Peterson (308) 340-1451 with any questions. Please watch the bulletin for updates!

Holy Spirit Catholic Radio Care-a-thon: The Care-a-thon runs from Sep 22 thru Sep 26. Our Pastor will be on the radio on Thursday at noon and Friday at 7:00 am. The funds raised from this care-a-thon go to support our Christian Radio Program. Please consider tuning in and supporting our radio.

Grief Support: Community Hospital Grief Support Group is available to any adult who has recently lost a loved one. Grief shared is grief diminished. Group meeting starts on September 23 and will be held each Tuesday from 4:30-6:00pm. There is no charge. Please contact Becky Mai or Daphne Tidyman at 308-344-8221 to register or to ask questions.

Knights of Columbus Benefit Supper: The Knights will be hosting a benefit supper in support of the Amador Family on Sept. 13th from 5:30-7:00 at the Knights Hall. Please come and join us.

Funeral Questions:

Cremation is not forbidden by the Church, but the scattering of ashes is. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "The Church permits cremation, provided that it does not demonstrate a denial of faith in the resurrection of the body" (CCC 2301). The scattering of ashes represents a denial of our Christian belief in the resurrection of the body in both its communal and individual elements.

The cremated remains represent the human person and are a sign of how God blessed us through this person. Dispersing these ashes over a lake or field is inappropriate because final closure to our earthly life should include remaining with the community of faith, even in death, as we await the resurrection of the body. The remains also symbolize the individuality of that person, and burying them in consecrated ground or putting them in a columbarium honors the unique sacredness of the person's life. That's why Catholic cemeteries provide space for the remains of those who are cremated. It also provides a place where loved one can show respect for the remains—a place and space that doesn't exist when remains are scattered.

50 Days for 50 States: The LDCCW would like to invite everyone to a special time of prayer for our country. Beginning on Sept 13th and concluding on Nov. 1. Each week we will post the list of states to be prayed for during that week. Prayers can be done privately, with groups, families or even in Church. Prayers can be formal like a Rosary or Chaplet or simply an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be.

Week One: Sep 13 to Sep 20 - Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware. Let us storm the heavens on behalf of our Nation.

Prayer Requests: a few things to keep in your prayers this week....

-For Pope Leo XIV

-For needed Rain and protection from dangerous storms

-For a safe and bountiful harvest

-For all of our Students to have a productive school year.
