HALLOWEEN: A BABYLONIAN HOLIDAY

The Editors

The most evil of all holidays—Halloween—will soon be upon us!—A celebration of Satan's prison house of death—ghosts, goblins, skeletons, witches, wizards, demons, It is based on the pagan holiday—Samhain, which marked the end of summer and the harvest and was believed to be a time when the boundary between the living and the dead blurred, allowing spirits to walk the earth. The Catholic church adopted the holiday and made it All Hallows' Even, the evening of All Saints' Day (Nov. 1). This gradually became the modern Halloween.

[The Bible teaches that the dead are now unconscious, "asleep" in the grave, awaiting the first resurrection of the righteous at Christ's 2nd Coming, or the second resurrection of the wicked at the end of the Millennium. Ecc.9:5; John 5:28,29; 11:11-14; 1 Thess.4:16; Rev.20. Thus, the Catholic saints, including Mary and Charlie Kirk, are in the grave, not in heaven. The living cannot communicate with them. Praying to the saints is a modern form of spiritualism—communication with demons.

Halloween is a Babylonian holiday. Spiritual Babylon today is a woman, "Mother B," the Roman Catholic Church system. "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Rev. 17:5. God commands us to "Come out of Babylon, My people." Rev. 18:4. To come out of Babylon means that we should not participate in any wicked thing, including Halloween or the occult.

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? 16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? ...17 Therefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Cor. 6:14-18.

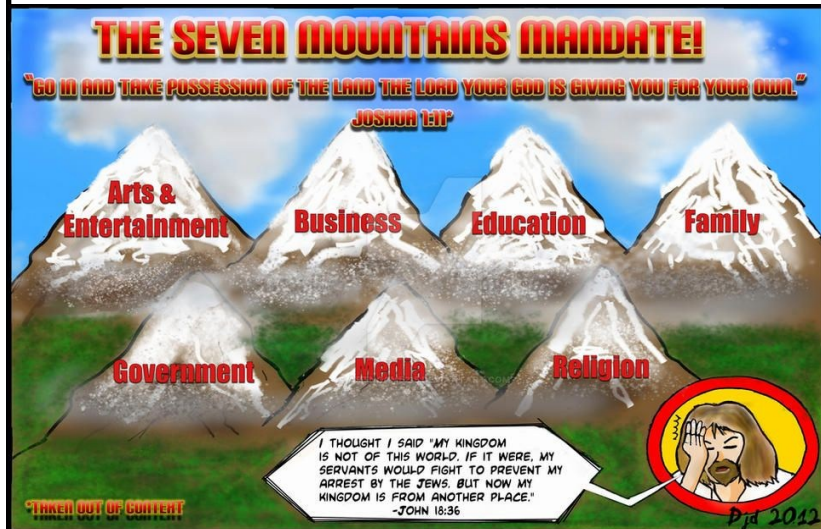

Don't mess with the demons. Wouldn't you rather be a son or daughter of God, than a child of Satan?

THREE MOVEMENTS COALESCING NOW IN AMERICA

By the Editors. From: Wikipedia and other sources.

We are witnessing in our nation today the implementation of Project 2025's proposals to revamp America and make it a Christian nation. On July 4, 2024, Kevin Roberts, the leader of a conservative think tank, Heritage Foundation, that is orchestrating plans for a massive overhaul of the federal government through PROJECT 2025 in the event of a Republican presidential win said that the country is in the midst of a "second American Revolution" that will be bloodless "if the left allows it to be." Heritage Foundation President Kevin Roberts made the comments on Steve Bannon's "War Room" podcast, adding that Republicans are "in the process of taking this country back."

Meanwhile another plan put forward by spiritual leaders—The Seven Mountain Mandate—...a dominionist conservative Christian ideology within evangelical Christianity, particularly independent Charismatic groups is working seamlessly with Project 2025. The Seven Mountain Mandate holds that there are seven aspects of society that believers seek to dominate: family, religion, education, media, arts and entertainment, business, and government.

The movement's theology is based on biblical passages like Revelation 17:9 and Isaiah 2:2, promoting the idea that Christians should actively take control of the seven societal "mountains" to establish God's kingdom on Earth. Organizations such as 7M Films and Ziklag operate under its principles, and prominent political figures, including Michele Bachman and Lauren Boebert are followers.

Ministry Needs

Our ministry is always in great need of your prayers and your financial support. The TV and radio programs that we are conducting at large in English, Spanish, and French, the work of the billboards in different parts of the country, the full-page newspaper ads, the literature work, the prison ministry, the Oklahoma Projects, the foreign missions, the Eternal Gospel Herald, and all other missionary activities—all these require a lot of funds. It is by the grace of God and the help of all of you that we are still moving forward with the proclamation of Three Angels' Messages. May God help us all to remain faithful until the end. God bless you.

So what we are seeing today is Apostate Protestantism joining with the civil government to gain by politics key positions in American culture where the government will control and then force Christian ideals onto the American culture. For instance, this why late night comedians and others have be cancelled by TV corporations: Christians are taking dominion over the mountain of Arts and Entertainment.

A third vital movement in this goal for Christians to take over and change the American culture, was Charlie Kirk's Turning Point USA. Charlie Kirk was a gifted speaker, with a lovely family. Like John the Baptist, he would talk to young college students and advocate for them to turn from a liberal sinful lifestyle and turn to Jesus. Charlie even adopted a form of personal Sabbath keeping—on the right day. But his day of worship remained the same. Ultimately he achieved his true goal—to move 10% of the young people to vote for Christian Conservatives.

On September 10, Charlie was tragically assassinated as he spoke to a crowd of young people on a college campus in Utah. This has only made himself and his movement ten times more well known. On September 21st, 73,000 people came to his memorial service in Phoenix, Arizona, including the President and the Vice President, who called Charlie their friend!

20 million people watched via cable networks.

The progress of Christian Nationalism is accelerating. To protest now any unconstitutionality or high-handed use of force, is to endanger your well-being. We are witnessing the rise of the image of the beast. The 2nd American revolution of Project 2025; the conquest of the “seven mountains” of American culture; the turning point in the rise of Christian nationalism; the seventh head of Apostate Protestantism conquering the sixth head of Atheism. This will last “a short space.” “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, [and] the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.” Revelation 17:10. Soon Jesus will come. Soon, the attention will turn against the true Jesus and His followers who “keep the commandments of God and . . . These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him [are] called, and chosen, and faithful.” Jesus is coming soon to deliver His people. “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” Daniel 12:1. [This is the great battle of Armageddon. May we all be found worthy when Jesus comes soon to take His people home.]

The Dilemma of Political Christians Pt. 1 - Christ's Methods

by Joel Grant, September 14, 2025

The assassination of Charlie Kirk, the Christian founder of Turning Point USA & Republican Party Activist, has unreel a tense atmosphere of emotional disdain for his works and views from a large number of the masses which also includes political opponents. The almost celebratory spirit & indifference to his passing is fueled by cultural, racial & political differences. Thousands of video posts highlighting his controversial statements are published. In many of his videos Mr. Kirk recommends Christian principles that he believes are missing from America's Moral landscape; attributing the lack of such to the current ills that the United States is faced with. His positions are indicative of his stance with the Christian Nationalist Ideology wherein he stood center point. Simultaneously, with his TPUSA outreach projects in colleges, stands in greater proportion, his staunch advocacy and support of the current president Donald Trump; thus, deriving even greater popularity. For the engaged public and the concerned Christians the question arises: Does the cocktail of public Christian advocacy mixed with political alignment represent the approach of Jesus Christ in reaching the world? The duality of political—Christian entwinement is not limited to Charlie Kirk as many popular charismatic evangelical Christian pastors embrace this approach including Lance Wallnau and Bill Johnson the authors of the book- “Invading Babylon.”

All who hold themselves as Christ's disciples are espoused to follow the principles that he has laid out for the evangelization of the world. Zeal for God's glory is a necessary virtue, but this zeal must be regulated by a correct interpretation of God's word. How did Christ evangelize the world? Did he minister to the people in the highways and byways to then be found at Herod's political meetings endorsing him to the people? When Christ was brought before Pontius Pilate and —Continue to Pg. 4, Col. 1 top

then before Herod, did his tie to any of these leaders prevent him from reaching the cross? Christ's political unalignment was testified to in scriptures when the Pharisees and Sadducees came sharing that Herod desired to kill him, Christ response in Luke 13:32 was:

"Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and tomorrow, and the third [day] I shall be perfected. Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the [day] following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem."

If Christ and the leader at that time were in one accord, there would be no such dialogue, If Christ were aligned to Herod or Pilate then one would have delivered Him. One of Jesus's most conclusive statements on settling the question and negating the ambitions of Christian Nationalists was given to the leader Pontius Pilate:

"Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence." John 18:36 KJV

Those who are seeking to establish Christ's kingdom on earth through allegiance to and close political associations are working contrary to Him who said "I go to prepare a place for you" John 14:2-3 KJV. "I go to prepare a place for you" is the word but modern Christians are trying to prepare a place for God on earth. It is a people that are to be called out & educated to be in Christs kingdom by His pure church and not corrupted channels. If modern Christians continue along this line contrary to the word of God, then it must be another god they are preparing to receive.

According to Encyclopedia Britannica, Christian Nationalism is "an ideology that seeks to create or maintain a legal fusion of the Christian religion with a nation's character. Advocates of Christian Nationalism consider their view of Christianity to be an integral part of their country's identity and want the government to promote - or even enforce - the religions position within it." In Charles Kettering Foundation's report titled - "Project 2025 The Blueprint for Christian Nationalist Regime Change" establishes a link with Project 2025 and Christian Nationalism. The President of the Heritage Foundation (Project 2025 Authors) Kevin Roberts stated according to the report: "We are in the process of the second American Revolution, which will remain bloodless if the left allows it to be." Their intent is to have America as place run by biblical principles. The positions taken by this initiative are contrary of the first amendment of the US constitution that states:

—Continue to next column

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

The fulfillment of this initiative will result in religious favouritism and ultimately the suppression of other minorities and opposers; the history of the dark ages dictates that. Charlie Kirk showed his alignment with these initiatives when he endorsed the "The Seven Mountain Mandate"—a theology promoted by charismatic leaders that calls on Christians to take dominion over key spheres of society: government, education, media, family, business, arts & religion. One of the forming members of the SDA church in her writings gave her reasons at the time why political involvement of its members cannot be encouraged:

"Their principles and positions in political matters are a great hindrance to their spiritual advancement. These are a constant snare to them and a reproach to Render unto Caesar, the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. Matthew 22:21.

our faith, and those who retain these principles will eventually be brought just where the enemy would be glad to have them, where they will be finally separated from Sabbath keeping Christians. These brethren cannot receive the approval of God while they lack sympathy for the oppressed colored race and are at variance with the pure, republican principles of our Government. God has no more sympathy with rebellion upon earth than with the rebellion in heaven, when the great rebel questioned the foundation of God's government and was thrust out with all who sympathized with him in his rebellion. Testimonies to the Church Vol 1, pg 534

When the people desired to make Christ king in Israel the response is found in John 6:14-15:

"When Jesus perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him king, he departed again in to a mountain himself alone."

Christ triumphal entry into Jerusalem was not an indication that he desired earthly power, the proclamations of “hosanna to the sun of David” was already prophesied in Zechariah 9:9

“Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion; shout, O Daughter of Jerusalem; behold, the king cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation: lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.”

The evidence of the salvation he came to bring and not earthly-secular power was seen round about him through the very subjects who benefitted from His healing touch & His offerings of grace. The book Desire of Ages renders a graphic scene for the mind to capture:

“But about the Saviour were the glorious trophies of His labors of love for sinful man. There were the captives whom He had rescued from Satan’s power, praising God for their deliverance. The blind whom He had restored to sight were leading the way. The dumb whose tongues He had loosed shouted the loudest hosannas. The cripples whom He had healed bounded with joy, and were the most active in breaking the palm branches and waving them before the Saviour. Widows and orphans were exalting the name of Jesus for His works of mercy to them. The lepers whom He had cleansed spread their untainted garments in His path, and hailed Him as the King of glory.” pg 573

Such is the Kingdom of Jesus on earth through works of mercy, acts of kindness and words of sympathy, practical godliness in coming close to the needs of men and not the enactments from earthly powers to obtain a better society.

“The enemy knows that if the church can be controlled by political enactments, if she can be led to unite with the world, she virtually acknowledges him as her head. Then the authority of man-made commandments will work to oppose the rule of government of heaven.”—Signs of the Times, 11/22/1899.

“The mingling of churchcraft and statecraft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God’s forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves.” (MS 63, 1899).

“And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters’ clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided.”

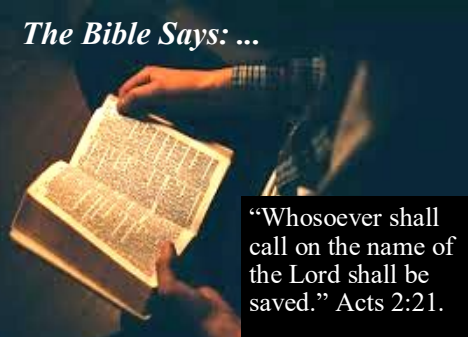

Daniel 2:41

Catholic View of Charley Kirk’s Death

By Br. André Marie, Sep 13, 2025, www.Catholicism.org

The point of this short piece is neither to lionize nor to condemn the fallen activist with whom I disagreed on certain matters of major moment, both religious and political — but for whom I also held high hopes, seeing that his trajectory, both temporal and spiritual, seemed to be changing drastically and amazingly for the good.

My objective here is to address how Catholics should speak of the fallen so as not to engender the dangerous and ubiquitous scandal of indifferentism. And no, in case anyone is wondering, I am not going to pontificate on the eternal whereabouts of the fallen. That is beyond my ken.

Here is a case in point of how not to speak of the fallen — even in terms of a rhetorical question: “Was Charlie Kirk a Martyr—and Should He Be Canonized?” That headline about a lifelong Protestant, from a site commenting on things from a Catholic perspective, is objectively scandalous. Worse yet, the “poll” that the site set up, asking, “Do You Believe Charlie Kirk Should Be Canonized?” has garnered, as of this writing, nearly 62% Yes votes. Almost seventeen percent voted No, while another fifteen percent replied, “no, but he is a martyr,” and 6% voted, “I’m not sure.”

Three infallible statements from the Church assure us that there is no salvation outside the Catholic Church: the first is from Lateran Council IV (Pope Innocent III); the second, from Pope Boniface VIII; and the third, from the Council of Florence (Pope Eugene IV). Regarding the impossibility of a non-Catholic martyr (as in a saint, a martyr in the strict sense), we have this part of the infallible definition of the Council of Florence — note the text I have emboldened:

*It [the sacrosanct Roman Church] firmly believes, professes, and proclaims that those not living within the Catholic Church, not only pagans, but also Jews and heretics and schismatics cannot become participants in eternal life, but will depart “into everlasting fire which was prepared for the devil and his angels” [Matt. 25:41], unless before the end of life the same have been added to the flock; and that the unity of the ecclesiastical body is so strong that only to those remaining in it are the sacraments of the Church of benefit for salvation, and do fastings, almsgiving, and other functions of piety and exercises of Christian service produce eternal reward, and that no one, whatever almsgiving he has practiced, even if he has shed blood for the name of Christ, can be saved, unless he has remained in the bosom and unity of the Catholic Church.

Because indifferentism is part and parcel of the Modernist crisis that still afflicts the Church, the scandalous habit of canonizing departed non-Catholics is, sadly, part of our current ecclesiastical landscape.

[EDITORS: Membership in a church cannot save anyone. Salvation is in Christ, not in a church structure. This was one of the lessons that the Reformers quickly learned. But many times, maybe all the time, the church structure becomes so big that the structure itself becomes more important than the Truth. And so, like Caiaphas, church leaders will say, "It is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not." John 11:50.

"Romanists have persisted in bringing against Protestants the charge of heresy and willful separation from the true church. But these accusations apply rather to themselves. They are the ones who laid down the banner of Christ and departed from "the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Jude 3. Great Controversy, 51.

Remember the blind man who was "cast out" of the Jewish Church because he gave credit to Jesus for healing him. John 9:22, 34. "Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" John 9:35. Jesus said, "(Though they kicked you out, I am letting you know that you are part of the true fold!) "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." John 10:9.] THE END

MAY OUR LAST THOUGHTS BE GLORIOUS

By Ellen G. White, Great Controversy, 50.

Nowhere in the Sacred Scriptures is found the statement that the righteous go to their reward or the wicked to their punishment at death. The patriarchs and prophets have left no such assurance. Christ and His apostles have given no hint of it. The Bible clearly teaches that the dead do not go immediately to heaven. They are represented as sleeping until the resurrection. 1 Thess. 4:14; Job 14:10-12. In the very day when the silver cord is loosed and the golden bowl broken (Ecc. 12:6), man's thoughts perish. They that go down to the grave are in silence. They know no more of anything that is done under the sun. Job 14:21. Blessed rest for the weary righteous! Time, be it long or short, is but a moment to them. They sleep; they are awakened by the trump of God to

"For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible. . . . So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." 1 Cor. 15:52-54. As they are called forth from their deep slumber they begin to think just where they ceased. The last sensation was the pang of death; the last thought, that they were falling beneath the power of the grave. When they arise from the tomb, their first glad thought will be echoed in the triumphal shout: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Vs. 55. THE END

VISITOR HELPS TO CLEAN & FIX THE CHURCH

Every six months we try to get our members together to help keep the physical aspects of our meeting place clean and in good repair. Recently this involved work on the septic system outside, maintaining the windows, preparing some food for the inside of the body temples of all that helped, and me scaling mount Everest to replace the lights and clean the fans. One of the highlights was that we had a visitor come to help us. One of our local radio listeners, who came to church one Sabbath with his young daughter. He heard that we were going to have this work bee, and wanted to help us out, so he came. Please keep him in your prayers as he is a former Catholic and is interested in following Jesus in the present truth. Finally, God has blessed to install some new pews that came from an old church. They are being well received. We want to thank and praise God for His good blessings upon us who are so unworthy. And we thank God for you, dear reader. May we all draw closer to Jesus.

KING OF STORMS HEADS TOWARD CHINA

From: Fortune, by Susan Bryan, Morgan Lee, August 30, 2025

Super Typhoon Ragasa is the strongest storm of 2025 and is now bearing down on China's southern coast. Equivalent to a Category 5 hurricane—packed wind gusts of up to 285km/h (177mph) at its highest point on Monday, Ragasa has triggered warnings of floods, storm surges and landslides across the region this week. Chinese authorities are warning of storm surges of up to five meters. Some 370,000 people have been evacuated so far in Guangdong, as authorities warn of a "catastrophic" situation. On Tuesday, supermarket shelves in Hong Kong were wiped empty of fresh bread, vegetables, meat and instant noodles as residents prepared to hunker down. Ragasa has been dubbed the "King of Storms" by China's meteorological agency and is expected to move towards northern Vietnam in the coming days, potentially affecting millions.

SAN DIEGO PASTOR SHOT IN HOME

From: Anugrah Kumar, Christian Post, 9/14/2025

Felipe Ascencio, pastor of Templo Monte Horeb, in San Diego County was shot and killed at his residence on 8th Street in Ramona on Sept. 7, leaving his community reeling from the sudden loss. Joel Martin Dukes III, 22, the alleged shooter, has been arrested for murder. Deputies responded to calls about a shooting and found Ascencio with a gunshot wound. Unfortunately, he succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased at the scene, the Sheriff's Office reported. Ascencio was known for his role beyond the pulpit. Longtime congregants described him as a mentor, father figure and personal guide. ["The earth was filled with violence." Genesis 6:11.]

THE IMPENDING CONFLICT

The Great Controversy, 588-589, 591-592, by Ellen White

Through the two great errors, the immortality of the soul and Sunday sacredness, Satan will bring the people under his deceptions. While the former lays the foundation of spiritualism, the latter creates a bond of sympathy with Rome. The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of spiritualism; they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power; and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience.

As spiritualism more closely imitates the nominal Christianity of the day, it has greater power to deceive and ensnare. Satan himself is converted, after the modern order of things. He will appear in the character of an angel of light. Through the agency of spiritualism, miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and many undeniable wonders will be performed. And as the spirits will profess faith in the Bible, and manifest respect for the institutions of the church, their work will be accepted as a manifestation of divine power.

The line of distinction between professed Christians and the ungodly is now hardly distinguishable. Church members love what the world loves and are ready to join with them, and Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism. Papists, who boast of miracles as a certain sign of the true church, will be readily deceived by this wonder-working power; and Protestants, having cast away the shield of truth, will also be deluded. Papists, Protestants, and worldlings will alike accept the form of godliness without the power, and they will see in this union a grand movement for the conversion of the world and the ushering in of the long-expected millennium.

...Satan's policy in this final conflict with God's people is the same that he employed in the opening of the great controversy in heaven. He professed to be seeking to promote the stability of the divine government, while secretly —Continue next column bending every effort to secure its overthrow. And the very work which he was thus endeavoring to accomplish he charged upon the loyal angels. The same policy of deception has marked the history of the Roman Church. It has professed to act as the vicegerent of Heaven, while seeking to exalt itself above God and to change His law. Under the rule of Rome, those who suffered death for their fidelity to the gospel were denounced as evildoers; they were declared to be in league with Satan; and every possible means was employed to cover them with reproach, to cause them to appear in the eyes of the people and even to themselves as the vilest of criminals. So it will be now. While Satan seeks to destroy those who honor God's law, he will cause them to be accused as lawbreakers, as men who are dishonoring God and bringing judgments upon the world.

God never forces the will or the conscience; but Satan's constant resort—to gain control of those whom he cannot otherwise seduce—is compulsion by cruelty. Through fear or force he endeavors to rule the conscience and to secure homage to himself. To accomplish this, he works through both religious and secular authorities, moving them to the enforcement of human laws in defiance of the law of God.

Those who honor the Bible Sabbath will be denounced as enemies of law and order, as breaking down the moral restraints of society, causing anarchy and corruption, and calling down the judgments of God upon the earth. Their conscientious scruples will be pronounced obstinacy, stubbornness, and contempt of authority. They will be accused of disaffection toward the government. Ministers who deny the obligation of the divine law will present from the pulpit the duty of yielding obedience to the civil authorities as ordained of God. In legislative halls and courts of justice, commandment keepers will be misrepresented and condemned. A false coloring will be given to their words; the worst construction will be put upon their motives. GC 588-589, 591-592.
