♦♦♦ JANUARY

Bard Manufacturing began in 1910 and as demand increased, moved their facility to Evansport Road in 1937. It remained the company's main production site until a 1944 fire destroyed much of the building. Rather than relocate, Bard rebuilt on the same site, and in 2017, added their new hi-tech Innovation & Design facility.

◆◆◆ FEBRUARY

The Bryan Dairy Queen opened on East High Street in 1950 serving the best ice cream & sandwiches around. In 1999, the DQ finished construction on their new modern restaurant with indoor seating and served Nora's famous creamed chicken sandwiches, Dilly Bars, ice cream cakes, and eventually the ever-popular Blizzards.

◆◆◆ MAY

The former Bryan Fire Station and City Hall were built in 1874 at a cost of $4,867.27! For years, the building featured a distinct cupola with a public fire-alarm bell, and below it a 60-foot tower used for drying hoses after fires. On December 16, 2012, open house for the new Fire Police Complex was held.

Originally on Lynn Street, the Ohio Gas Company building, with its signature blue neon sign, was a High Street landmark. The west part of the Gas Company building was the home of the Ruth Restaurant that served the Bryan community for years. In 2020, the Gas Company moved to the modern new location on East Wilson Street.
