

As we transition from honoring our veterans this past week, I certainly want to thank Chuck McConkey for sharing his faith journey and testimony with us. We can now move into the Thanksgiving season. I want to start by thanking each of you for your donations of items and money as we strive to reach out to our neighbors in Carroll as we as a church sponsored a local family for Christmas. We were able to bless this family with many items for this child's Christmas as you can see in this picture...

I pray we rise to the challenge next year and perhaps even step out in faith and sponsor multiple children.

Not only are we helping our local neighbors, but we are also well on our way towards collecting numerous eyeglasses to donate to RISE Missions to help our friends in the Dominican Republic. Reminder that any of those donations are needed by this coming Sunday, give them to Judy Fosnaugh, so she can pass them on to Josh Morrison before he heads back to the mission field.

In other news, in an attempt to keep my promise to introduce my family more to you as you get to know us, I would like to tell you that another "hat" I wear is that of an insurance agent. In that role, I can help people not only with their Car and Home insurance but also Health and Life insurance policies, including Medicare plans. My wife, Lisa, is a nurse at Forest Rose School but also is on the National Board of Parrish Nurses. So, if you would like any assistance in knowing what programs are out there to help with your medical needs, she would be happy to assist you.

Until next week...

Looking to the Future

- Sunday Nov 30th we will have Kameron Waits bring the Gospel Message thru song
 - This young artist brings a great blend of Southern and Country Gospel
 - Carry-in dinner after.
- ✓ Our current plans are to have a singer/group come and be with us whenever there is a 5th Sunday in a month and a carry-in dinner after.
- One of our long-range visions for our church is to become a host church for two different youth groups.
 - Trail Life for boys and American Heritage Girls are Christian based Scout-like organization for youth ages 5 to 18.
 - We will need a minimum of 5 adult males and 5 adult women to commit to being the leadership teams in order to get these troops chartered.

If you have any interest in learning more about these, please contact Pastor Vance.
