

It was mentioned this past Sunday during announcements that we have a lot happening right now as a church. That's true—and at times, it can feel overwhelming. With already full schedules, it's easy to think there's simply too much to do.

As I continue to challenge each of us to reach our “One”—to build relationships and ultimately disciple others—remember that this calling is ongoing. There is always another “One” whom God may be placing on our hearts.

Sometimes that “One” isn't already within our natural circle of influence. Stated another way, we may not encounter them in our normal - everyday routines. That's why, in addition to concerts, small groups, and other gatherings, we are intentionally creating opportunities to connect with people in our community. One way we're doing this is by setting up a church booth at local events, complete with giveaways and materials to help us engage with others.

Our first opportunity will be Saturday, April 4th at Johnson Park in Baltimore for the Community Easter Egg Hunt, “Eggstravaganza.” Setup will begin around 9:30 a.m., with the event opening at 11:00 a.m. The egg hunt starts at noon—and if past years are any indication, it will be over quickly... those kids find eggs fast! Please feel free to join me at this event as we reach out to possibly thousands of people in our area. Yes, in past years, when the weather is good, thousands of people show up for this event.

Another important event coming up is the Community Good Friday Service. While I've mentioned it only briefly before, I do want to encourage everyone to make plans to attend. All are welcome to join us on Friday, April 3rd at 7:00 p.m. at Trinity UCC (105 N. High St., Baltimore) for a meaningful and reflective evening centered on the death-burial-sacrifice of our Lord and Savior.

Thank you for continuing to be a church that is active, engaged, and committed to reaching others.

In His service with you,
Pastor Vance
