JANUARY ~ POVERTY AWARENESS MONTH

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first canonized U.S. citizen, was born in 1774 to an Episcopal family. She converted to Catholicism in 1805 after living in Italy with her husband. After her husband passed away, she was left a widow with five children at the age of 30, rejected by many family and friends because of her conversion. In 1809, Elizabeth began the first female religious order in the United States, the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph. She opened St. Joseph's Academy, a tuition-free school, to educate children living in poverty. Her work laid the foundation for the American Catholic school system. To this day, her order continues her legacy of charity and education throughout the world. Her Feast Day is January 4th. Reflection: Women religious have played a significant role in the social ministry of the Catholic Church in the U.S. How can you follow the example of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in courageously following God's plan in your life and the call to care for God's children? COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

#ShareYourFaith
#1Church1Mission

The Bishops of the United States established the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America as a practical expression of unity and love for their brothers and sisters in Central and South America and the islands of the Caribbean. For more than 60 years, Catholics in the United States have answered the invitation to "Share Your Faith" by supporting pastoral ministries that strengthen the Church in the present day and help it pass on the Gospel to future generations. One of the most important ways that Catholics share our faith with future generations is by supporting the formation and seminary education of men who have answered God's call to the priesthood or diaconate. In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 149 priestly seminarians and 698 permanent deacons at the Sao Jose Archdiocesan Seminary received support through the Collection to help cover education tuition and spiritual retreat expenses, as well as the cost of food. Your support helps prepare these men for lives of serving others through their preaching and celebration of the sacraments.

Fr. Jim's Column—Just One More Thing”!

Second Sunday in OT – January 18, 2026

Dear Parish Family, as I shared with you last week, the Baptism of the Lord gives us a path to begin into 2026 with the treasures of God's love we each received this Christmas. We continue today in the beginning of Ordinary Time with John the Baptist proclaiming that it is Jesus who is the Messiah. That Jesus, not John, who will save us from our sins and call us into his very life of love and service through the power of the Holy Spirit - Jesus' very presence in us – that we receive especially in the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Reconciliation, and Eucharist.

Last week I shared insights with you from Gina Loehr, a Catholic mom and wife. Mrs. Loehr lives her vocation in communion not only with her husband and their children, but in communion with her parish family, friends, and many others to whom Jesus has entrusted her that she may learn and mature in loving all of them, the mission which Jesus has given her.

We too must accept and mature in our own individual life's mission that Jesus has entrusted to each one of us. Like John the Baptist, we need to build a deep loving relationship with Jesus. Otherwise, we cannot cry out in the words of Psalm 40, "Hear am I, Lord; I come to do your will." And we will not be able to bring others to Jesus. Nor can we alone live out the mission Jesus has given each of us. Living in communion with others is necessary for us to learn and mature in knowing God's love and to be able to share Jesus' good news. This is part of the work of catechesis which the Neo Catechumenal Way is offering this January and February. Again, please consider coming to several of the catechesis offered Tuesdays and Fridays at 7:30pm to 8:30pm in Heritage Hall. Let us pray for one another. Peace+ Father Jim

Christmas Thank You from Sterling House

Dear friends at Holy Name of Jesus Church, This past Saturday, something magical happened in Stratford. Thanks to you, 150 families picked out gifts for their children at our Community Christmas shop. Because of your generosity, their children will wake up to a Christmas morning full of excitement, surprises, and plenty of presents under the tree. We cannot thank you enough for supporting this wonderful event by hosting a Giving Tree. Last year, our toy drive brought holiday cheer to over 250 children and this year, thanks to a record number of donations, we reached over 300 kids—a record that speaks to the incredible kindness of our community. We are deeply grateful to friends like you who ensure that our neighbors have everything they need to celebrate this special time with more joy and less stress. On behalf of everyone we serve, thank you for sharing the gift of hope this holiday season. Your generosity shines brightly in the joy you've brought to so many families.

With gratitude and warmest wishes,
Amanda Meeson Executive Director

Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr Day, January

On Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day we pause and reflect on Rev. King's indelible legacy, and his rallying cry in the pursuit of justice and peace.

As Rev. King taught us, we must confront the evils of racism and prejudice with the love of Christ: 'Deeply etched in the fiber of our religious tradition is the conviction that men are made in the image of God.'

Each of us can and must work for justice and peace, remembering Rev. King's call to action:

'Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'

Martin Luther King, Jr., was a champion of civil rights. Dr. King used the Word of God to effect change of hearts and minds. Given the issues of migration, antisemitism and racial and religious discrimination touching our communities, we are reminded that the work of bringing people together in mutual recognition and cooperation is never really done.

There remain forces in the human condition that would tear asunder what has been accomplished. Let us remain vigilant to take advantage of positive signs existing in evangelization efforts and continued civic progress within human relations. These things help shape communities that manifest the affirmative outcomes arising from our varied races, ethnicities, and cultural backgrounds.

The Catholic Church is committed to this endeavor and willingly clasps hands and hearts with all others of like mind, faith, and hope.
