Bidding Heats Up in Womanspace's Beat the Heat Online Auction

ROCKFORD, IL — There's still time to find something special, and support Womanspace while you're at it.

Bidding is well underway in Womanspace's Beat the Heat Online Auction, with an exciting mix of experiences, local favorites, gift certificates, unique treasures, and special finds up for grabs. The online fundraiser continues through Friday, July 31 at 9:00 PM.

Among this year's offerings include a private small plane adventure for two, a create-your-own stained glass experience for two, an Artale & Co. wine tasting for 6–8, and golf clubs paired with a certificate for Swanhills Golf Course. And there's plenty more waiting to be discovered.

Whether bidders are looking for a new adventure, a night out, a creative experience, or something special to take home, the auction offers plenty of reasons to browse. And with bidding already heating up, now is a great time to find a favorite and get in on the action before the final bids are placed.

The auction is completely online, so participants can browse and bid from anywhere and check back throughout the week to keep an eye on the items they hope to win.

Proceeds from Beat the Heat support Womanspace and its programs, helping create opportunities for connection, creativity, learning, personal growth, and community.

Bidding closes Friday, July 31 at 9:00 PM.
