Restyle the Runway Brings Sustainable Fashion to Rockford

A Creative Collaboration Between Womanspace and Tad More Tailoring

Rockford, IL – Womanspace, in collaboration with Tad More Tailoring, invites the community to an inspiring afternoon of fashion, sustainability, and connection at Restyle the Runway on Saturday, March 7, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Regents Hall at Rockford University (5050 E. State St., Rockford).

Restyle the Runway reimagines what a fashion show can be. Instead of high-end couture, the runway will feature creatively restyled pieces sourced from everyday closets and thrift store finds—proving that sustainable fashion can be stylish, wearable, and deeply personal.

Guests will enjoy a delicious luncheon, libations, sustainability-focused vendors, and a one-of-a-kind fashion show highlighting how clothing can be refreshed, reworked, and re-loved. Stylists from Tad More Tailoring will share insights on transforming existing wardrobes into curated collections that reflect both personal style and environmental responsibility.

At a time when millions of tons of textiles end up in landfills each year, Restyle the Runway celebrates thoughtful consumption and the art of giving garments new life. The event aligns with Womanspace's commitment to sustainability and being good stewards of the earth, while fostering creativity and community.

Tickets are $75 per person or $550 for a table of eight. Space is limited to 160 guests, and advance registration is encouraged.

Restyle the Runway is generously sponsored by Goodwill Northern Illinois and Rockford University.
