Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

On the last day of school, a 4th grade teacher asked her students to draw something special that touched their lives during the school year. One drew a picture of God, another a church, a third his mother, another a cow and some drew a tree with fruits on it. But there was a boy in the class--shy, quiet and withdrawn, who drew a nice little hand which attracted the attention of all. Each of the students forgot about their drawing and tried to explain the hand. Some said it was the hand of God, of a friend, of a parent, and so on. When the boy was all alone the teacher asked him what he meant by this hand. The little boy looked up and said: Ma'am, it is your hand. When I entered this class I was shy and lost but you reached out your hand to care for me and to teach me. It is yours—my teacher's hand. And the teacher could not control her tears.

Jesus Christ is calling us to become that hand-- the hand that makes Jesus Christ present in the world. We only have to do 3 things: 1. Receive Jesus' compassion, 2. Receive Jesus' power, and then 3. Share it with everyone.

When Jesus saw the huge crowd, his heart was moved with compassion for them. And so he got out of the boat and began to walk among them teaching and curing the sick. His needs didn't matter anymore. Only their needs mattered.

It was a contagious compassion. The disciples were moved by His compassion and became worried. They said "Dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." But Jesus was still full of compassion. He said "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." It's like Jesus is telling to us: "You do it." "I am counting on you." "I need you." "I gave you my compassion, now I want you to give my compassion to them." Can you imagine how startled the disciples were? "All we have is 5 loaves and 2 fish." They had nothing to offer. What could Jesus possibly be thinking?

Sound familiar? How often do we feel like we have nothing to say, nothing to give, and nothing to offer. How can we possibly become the hand of Jesus that feeds the needy with spiritual food? But we do have something to offer. We can trust in Jesus and we can offer him the little that we have—all of it. That is when something really incredible is going to happen. Jesus will say "bring it to me." Then Jesus will take our small offering and transform it into something so incredibly big that it will satisfy everyone's needs. There will even be an abundance left over.

Jesus is going to give us all the power we need. The power will be in the Holy Eucharist. Jesus took the 5 loaves and 2 fish, he looked up to heaven, he said the blessing, he broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples. Sound familiar? Jesus does the same thing every time we celebrate mass. We receive his compassion and power in the Holy Eucharist. Now we have to walk out through those doors and share His compassion with the whole world.

So, let's become the loving hand of Jesus. Let's reach out to feed the broken, the poor, and the needy with the spiritual food that satisfies the hungry hearts. Jesus is our model. Let us imitate Him because we are his disciples and He has chosen us!

En el último día de la escuela, una maestra del cuarto grado les pidió a sus estudiantes que dibujaran algo especial que tocó sus vidas durante el año escolar. Uno dibujo una imagen de Dios, otro una iglesia, el tercero a su madre, otro a una vaca y algunos dibujaron un árbol lleno de fruta. Pero había un niño en la clase - tímido, tranquilo y retirado, que dibujó una pequeña mano que les llamo la atención a los demás. Cada uno de los estudiantes se olvidaron de su dibujo y trataron de explicar la mano. Algunos dijeron que era la mano de Dios, de un amigo, de un padre, o algo así. Cuando lo encontró solo, la maestro le preguntó al niño qué quería decir con esa mano. El niño levantó los ojos y dijo: Señora, es tu mano. Cuando entré en esta clase yo era tímido y perdido pero tu extendiste tu mano para cuidarme y enseñarme. Es tuya-la mano de mi maestra. Y la maestra no podía controlar sus lágrimas.

Jesucristo nos llama para convertirnos en esa mano - la mano que hace a Jesucristo presente en el mundo. Sólo hay que hacer 3 cosas: 1. Recibir la compasión de Jesús, 2. Recibir el poder de Jesús, y entonces 3. Compartirlo con los demás.

Cuando Jesús vio la muchedumbre, su corazón se llenó de compasión por ellos. Así que desembarco y comenzó a caminar entre ellos enseñándoles y curando a los enfermos. Sus necesidades ya no importaban. Sólo importaban las necesidades de los demás. Era una compasión contagiosa. Su compasión los movió a los discípulos y empezaron a preocuparse. Dijeron: "Despide a la gente para que vayan a los caseríos y compren algo de comer." Pero Jesús todavía estaba lleno de compasión. Él dijo: "No hace falta que vayan. Denles ustedes de comer."

Es como si Jesús nos está diciendo: "Háganlo ustedes." "Cuento con ustedes". "Los necesito." "Les di mi compasión, ahora quiero que les den mi compasión a ellos." ¿Te imaginas que sorprendidos se quedaron los discípulos? "Todo lo que tenemos son 5 panes y 2 pescados." "No tenían nada que ofrecer. ¿Qué estaría pensando Jesús? ¿Suena familiar? ¿Cuántas veces nos sentimos como que no tenemos nada que decir, nada que dar, y nada que ofrecer. ¿Cómo es posible que vamos a convertirnos en la mano de Jesús que alimenta a los necesitados con la comida espiritual? Pero si tenemos algo que ofrecer. Podemos confiar en Jesús y podemos ofrecerle lo poco que tenemos—completamente todo. Es entonces cuando algo muy increíble va a pasar. Jesús va a decir "traíganmelo." Entonces Jesús va a tomar nuestra pequeña ofrenda y lo va a transformar en algo tan increíblemente grande que va a satisfacer las necesidades de todos. Hasta va a sobrar una abundancia.

Jesús nos va a dar todo el poder que necesitamos. El poder va a estar en la Sagrada Eucaristía. Jesús tomó los 5 panes y 2 pescados, mirando al cielo, pronunció la bendición, partió los panes y se los dio a sus discípulos. ¿Suena familiar? Jesús hace lo mismo cada vez que celebramos la misa. Recibimos su compasión y su poder en la Santa Eucaristía. Ahora tenemos que salir por esas puertas y compartir su compasión con todo el mundo. Así que nos convirtamos en la mano amorosa de Jesús. Que extendamos la mano para alimentar a los destrozados, los pobres y los necesitados con la comida espiritual que satisface los corazones hambrientos. Jesús es nuestro modelo. Hay que imitarlo porque somos sus discípulos y El nos ha escogido!

MONDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Open the Bible with newcomers and experienced students alike. Both will find much to learn and explore in this helpful study; 'Introduction to the Bible' by Little Rock Scripture Study. Book series author, Stephen J. Binz is a biblical scholar, award-winning author, popular speaker and pilgrimage guide. He studied Scripture at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Jerusalem and has developed dozens of books and programs in biblical theology and spirituality. Stephen Binz offers clear, practical explanations that will make the Bible more familiar, giving readers a sense of the Bible's structure, a better understanding of its various themes and writing styles, and insight into how to interpret the Bible within the Catholic tradition. This study provides commentary, reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures that are included in this 6-week study. Study books will be available to purchase at our first gathering on Monday, September 14, 2026 at the Ministry Building from 5:30-7p. The road to recovery will be long. While the headlines may eventually fade, families will continue to struggle to rebuild their homes, their communities, and their lives. Today, we have an opportunity to be instruments of God's mercy.

I humbly ask you to join me in praying for the people of Venezuela and, if you are able, to make a financial contribution to support the Church's ongoing relief efforts.

Donations may be made directly through Catholic Relief Services (CRS) at:

<https://www.crs.org/donate/venezuela-earthquake>

You may also send your donation through the Diocese of San Bernardino by making your check payable to: Diocese of San Bernardino

All donations received by the Diocese will be forwarded to Catholic Relief Services to provide emergency assistance and long-term recovery for those most affected.

Thank you for opening your hearts to this urgent need. Your prayers, generosity, and solidarity are powerful signs of God's love for those who are suffering. Together, we can remind the people of Venezuela that they are not alone—that the Church stands with them, prays for them, and walks beside them in hope.

May Our Lady of Coromoto, Patroness of Venezuela, intercede for all who mourn, protect those who continue the work of rescue and relief, and bring comfort, healing, and peace to every family affected by this tragedy.

United in prayer and mission,

Fr. Duong Nguyen, SVD
Director of the Mission Office

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Matthew 14:13-21

GOSPEL

Imagine being one of Jesus' disciples. One moment you see more than 5,000 hungry people. You don't know what to do. The next moment you see Jesus turn a small lunch into a huge feast. Jesus gives you the food, and he asks you to share it with the hungry people. Jesus asks the same thing today. Share what he gives you with others, too.

PRAYER

Jesus, help me to share what you have given me.
