Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

In today's gospel, Peter did not like that. He didn't want Jesus to suffer. Was that unreasonable? I don't think so. We act that way every time that we suffer. That reminds me. Several years ago, someone asked me "why does God allow us to suffer?"

The answer is found in the Cross of Jesus Christ. What do we see? We see one thing, and one thing only: Love. We may never understand it. We may never understand why we have to suffer. But we can accept it and we can endure it. How? By the power of love.

By the power of love Jesus Christ was able to suffer and die in obedience to God's will. By the power of love Jesus Christ was able to conquer sin and death. By the power of love Jesus brought us redemption and salvation. That is why we call it the redemptive suffering of Jesus Christ. Because it is really love, and that love brought us redemption.

And now Jesus Christ wants to give us that same power of love. The power of love that will transform our suffering into love—and our love into redemption and salvation for the world. All we have to do is offer up our suffering, together with Jesus' suffering—right here, in what we call the sacrifice of the mass, for the salvation of the world.

I know what you must be thinking. I thought Jesus already died for our salvation. How is it possible that we are going to help him? Because the redemption He accomplished by his love, is always open for more love—especially when it comes from suffering. (Salvifici Doloris 24, St. John Paul II).

But how can we do that? How can we possibly add our suffering to his? How can we possibly endure it and say "that's OK, this is really love for the salvation of the world?"

Because when we join our suffering with Jesus' suffering, we receive the power of his peace—the peace of Christ. Like Jesus said "I have said this to you, so that in me you may have peace. In the world you face persecution. But take courage; I have conquered the world!" (Jn. 16:33).

And that power of his peace, where does that come from? That comes from our faith in the resurrection. That means when we take up our cross and follow him, we have to always keep our eyes and heart fixed on the end of our journey—the Resurrection and eternal life.

Jesus does not explain it. He just says "Follow me!" "Come! Take part through your suffering in this work of saving the world, a salvation achieved through my suffering--through my Cross" (Salvifici Doloris 26, St. John Paul II). And that...is our vocation.

En el evangelio de hoy, a Pedro no le gusto. No quería que Jesús tenga que sufrir. ¿Fue irrazonable? Pienso que no. Actuamos de esa manera cada vez que tenemos que sufrir. Eso me recuerda. Hace varios años, alguien me preguntó "¿por qué Dios nos permite sufrir?"

La respuesta se encuentra en la Cruz de Jesucristo.

¿Qué vemos? Vemos una cosa y sólo una cosa: el amor.

Tal vez nunca lo vamos a entender. Tal vez nunca vamos a poder entender por qué tenemos que sufrir. Pero podemos aceptarlo y podemos aguantarlo. ¿Cómo?

Por el poder del amor.

Por el poder del amor Jesucristo pudo sufrir y morir, y obedecer la voluntad de Dios. Por el poder del amor

Jesucristo pudo vencer el pecado y la muerte. Por el poder del amor Jesús nos trajo la redención y la salvación.

Por eso lo llamamos el sufrimiento redentor de Jesucristo.

Porque de veras es el amor, y ese amor nos trajo la redención.

Y ahora Jesucristo nos quiere dar ese mismo poder del

amor. El poder del amor que va a transformar nuestro sufrimiento en amor—y nuestro amor en la redención y la salvación del mundo. Todo lo que tenemos que hacer es ofrecer nuestro sufrimiento, junto con el sufrimiento de Jesús, aquí mismo en lo que llamamos el sacrificio de la misa, para la salvación del mundo.

Ya se lo que han de pensar. Yo creí que Jesús ya murió por nuestra salvación. ¿Cómo es posible que lo vamos a ayudar? Porque la redención que Él logró por su amor, siempre esta abierta para más amor—especialmente cuando viene del sufrimiento.

(Salvifici doloris 24, St. John Paul II).

Pero ¿cómo podemos hacer eso? ¿Cómo es posible añadir nuestros sufrimientos a los suyos? ¿Cómo es posible aguantarlo y decir "esta bien, esto es de veras el amor para la salvación del mundo?"

Porque cuando unimos a nuestro sufrimiento con el sufrimiento de Jesús, recibimos el poder de su paz—la paz de Cristo. Como Jesús dijo: "Les he hablado de estas cosas para que tengan paz en mí. Ustedes encontraran la persecución en el mundo. Pero animo, yo he vencido al mundo" (Jn 16:33).

Y ese poder de su paz--de donde viene? Viene de nuestra fe en la resurrección. Eso significa que cuando tomamos nuestra cruz y lo seguimos, hay que siempre tener los ojos y el corazón puestos en el final de nuestro viaje--la resurrección y la vida eterna.

Jesús no lo explica. Sólo dice "¡Sígueme!" "¡Vengan!

Participa a través de tu sufrimiento en esta obra de salvar

el mundo, una salvación realizada a través de mi sufrimiento - a través de mi Cruz" (Salvifici Doloris 26, St. John Paul II). Y eso...es nuestra vocación.

BIBLE STUDY

Open the Bible with newcomers and experienced students alike. Both will find much to learn and explore in this helpful study; 'Introduction to the Bible' by Little Rock Scripture Study. Book series author, Stephen J. Binz is a biblical scholar, award-winning author, popular speaker and pilgrimage guide. He studied Scripture at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Jerusalem and has developed dozens of books and programs in biblical theology and spirituality. Stephen Binz offers clear, practical explanations that will make the Bible more familiar, giving readers a sense of the Bible's structure, a better understanding of its various themes and writing styles, and insight into how to interpret the Bible within the Catholic tradition. This study provides commentary, reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures that are included in this 6-week study. Study books will be available to purchase at our first gathering on Monday, September 14, 2026 at the Ministry Building from 5:30-7p.
