Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

Why was Jesus baptized? John the Baptist tried to talk Jesus out of it. "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" (Mt. 3:14). Jesus came to be baptized—to identify with us sinners whom he was now about to save by washing away our sins. But I think God also wanted us to get baptized. Jesus said to John: "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." What did that mean? It meant it was part of God's plan for our salvation—to make us right with God. So it was God's will that Jesus should become the model for our repentance and the forgiveness of sins. Like everything Jesus does, He does it for us. He was born for us. He suffered for us. He died for us. He rose for us. He ascended into heaven for us. And yes, he was baptized for us. That means Jesus' baptism is our baptism. Does that mean what happened at Jesus' baptism also happened at our baptism? Did you hear what happened? The heavens were opened up for him. That means a revelation of God. The Holy Spirit of God descended like a dove upon him. In the flood narrative a dove stands as a symbol of a new world. It means Jesus will bring about a new world. And the Holy Spirit descended on him to empower him for his ministry. Then God the Father spoke saying "this is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." That was God commissioning Jesus as the Messiah. At our baptism, just like with Jesus, the Holy Spirit came down into our hearts through the water and words of Baptism. Just like with Jesus, God the Father spoke at our baptism saying: "You are my son and daughter, whom I love. With you I am well pleased."

And in baptism we were reborn as children of God with all the rights and privileges of son-ship. We became heirs of heaven and the doors of heaven were opened to us. Now God our Father's love pours over us as he cares for us day after day and he is still saying: "With you I am well-pleased." Why is God well-pleased with us? Because when we were baptized we made a public commitment. For most of us, our parents made that public commitment for us to do God's will by continuing the ministry of the Risen Christ. But even if our parents made that commitment for us, sooner or later we have to make that commitment our own if our baptism is going to have any meaning at all and we want to achieve salvation.

And so today, on the feast day of the Baptism of Jesus we are going to recommit ourselves in baptism to become disciples of the Resurrection who will continue the ministry of the Risen Christ. What is the ministry of the Risen Christ we are going to recommit ourselves into? We are going to recommit ourselves to bring our faith, hope, and love into the world by our active love for God. An active love for God means loving God by loving others. And this will transform us and this will transform society.

¿Por qué se bautizó Jesús? Juan el Bautista trató de desanimarlo. "Yo soy quien debe ser bautizado por ti, y tu vienes a que yo te bautice?" (Mt. 03:14). bautizo Jesús se bautizó --para identificarse con nosotros los pecadores, quien el iba salvar en quitarnos los pecados. Pero creo que Dios también quiso que fuéramos bautizados. Jesús le dijo a Juan: "Haz ahora lo que te digo, porque es necesario que así cumplamos todo lo que Dios quiere." ¿Qué significaba eso? Significaba que era parte del plan de Dios para nuestra salvación—para hacernos rectos con Dios.

Por eso Dios quiso que fuéramos bautizados. Fue la voluntad de Dios que Jesús se convierta en el modelo para nuestro arrepentimiento y el perdón de los pecados. Como todo lo que hace Jesús, lo hace por nosotros. Nació por nosotros. Sufrió por nosotros. Murió por nosotros. Resucitó por nosotros. Ascendió al cielo por nosotros. Y también fue bautizado por nosotros.

Eso significa que el bautismo de Jesús es nuestro bautismo. ¿Significa eso que lo que pasó en el bautismo de Jesús también pasó en nuestro bautismo? ¿Oíste lo que pasó? Se le abrieron los cielos.

Eso quiere decir que fue una revelación de Dios. El Espíritu Santo de Dios se descendió como una paloma sobre él. En la historia de la inundación, la paloma fue símbolo de un nuevo mundo. Quiere decir que Jesús iba traer un nuevo mundo. Y el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre él para empoderarlo para su ministerio. Entonces Dios Padre habló diciendo "este es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo mis complacencias." Eso fue Dios comisionándolo como Mesías.

En nuestro bautismo, así como con Jesús, el Espíritu Santo descendió a nuestros corazones por el agua y las palabras del Bautismo. Así como con Jesús, Dios Padre habló en nuestro bautismo diciendo: "Tú eres mi hijo y hija, a quien amo. Contigo estoy complacido." Y en el bautismo fuimos renacidos como hijos de Dios con todos los derechos y privilegios de la filiación. Nos convertimos en herederos del cielo y las puertas del cielo se nos abrieron. Ahora el amor de nuestro Dios Padre se derrama sobre nosotros mientras nos cuida día tras día, y sigue diciendo: "Contigo estoy complacido." ¿Por qué Dios esta complacido con nosotros?

Porque cuando fuimos bautizados hicimos un compromiso público. Para la mayoría de nosotros, nuestros padres hicieron ese compromiso público para nosotros, para que hagamos la voluntad de Dios al continuar el ministerio de Jesucristo resucitado. Pero aunque nuestros padres hicieron ese compromiso para nosotros, tarde o temprano tenemos que hacerlo nuestro compromiso, si nuestro bautismo va tener sentido y queremos alcanzar la salvación.

Y por eso hoy, en el día que celebramos el Bautismo de Jesús, vamos a comprometernos de nuevo en el bautismo para convertirnos en discípulos de la Resurrección para continuar el ministerio de Jesucristo resucitado. ¿Qué es el ministerio de Cristo resucitado en que nos vamos a comprometer? Vamos a comprometernos para traer nuestra fe, esperanza y amor al mundo con nuestro amor activo para Dios. Un amor activo para Dios, es amar a Dios en amar a los demás. Y eso nos va a transformar y va a transformar la sociedad.

GOSPEL

After you were baptized, the Holy Spirit came to help you do great things for God. Forgive someone who really hurts you. Invite someone who is usually left out to your party. Take care of the sick. Feed those without food. Do these things. They show that you love God above all and your neighbor as yourself. Then God will say to you, "I love this child of mine and am very pleased with you."
