Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

God plants and nurtures the seed of His Word in the good soil of our hearts until we become the good wheat. But we are surrounded by weeds that at first looked like wheat. They became poisonous weeds by the evil of Satan. They are the sinners all around us. The problem is their roots and our roots are intertwined together. We cannot pull up their roots without pulling up our own roots. Remember, we are a mixture of good and evil. Remember the crusades and the Spanish inquisition? A lot of innocent people died in those purges.

So God is telling us to trust in Him and let Him be the one who pulls up the weeds. For now, God is merciful and patient, and allows good and evil to co-exist in the world. Why? Because God patiently waits for sinners to open their hearts and receive the seed of His grace so they will repent and turn their lives around, before it is too late. What can we learn from that?

We have to do the same thing our Father does. We have to be merciful, patient, and forgive anyone who offends us. We, His sons and daughters, have to open our hearts and receive God's divine power of grace. Then we, His sons and daughters, have to use all our efforts to be merciful and patient just like God our Father.

That means we have to treat the bad weeds—the sinners in our community, like our brothers and sisters. And we have to do everything we can to put them back on the right road to heaven. But how? One way to do it is to pray for them. We have to pray for the conversion of our sinful brothers and sisters. We are called to recognize evil, name it, and then give it to God in prayer so He can take care of it. Just like the sower in the parable, God is telling us, his servants, that He will take care of the weeds.

Another way to help our sinful brothers and sisters, is to be merciful, patient, and to forgive them when they offend us. We need to be patient with them—when they annoy us by the way they drive their cars, when they annoy us with their bad habits, when their opinions are different from ours, and even by their sinful lives.

Look at the example of Jesus. Jesus did not weed out Judas who betrayed him, or Peter, who denied him. Jesus saw the weeds in their lives, but he also saw the wheat. He knew that with mercy, patience, forgiveness, and by the workings of the Holy Spirit, the wheat could prevail. And it did.

That is how we become the good wheat. By being merciful, being patient, and by forgiving. And our lives will become like an irresistible magnet that draws and invites sinners to repent and turn to our merciful and patient Father.

Dios planta y nutre la semilla de su Palabra en la tierra buena de nuestros corazones hasta que nos convertimos en el buen trigo. Pero estamos rodeados de malas hierbas que al principio parecían ser trigo. Se convirtieron en hierbas venenosas por la maldad de Satanás. Son los pecadores alrededor de nosotros.

El problema es que sus raíces y nuestras raíces se entrelazan entre sí. No podemos arrancarlas sin arrancar las nuestras. Recuerda que somos una mezcla del bueno y el mal. Recuerda las cruzadas y la inquisición española? Mucha gente inocente murieron en esas purgas.

Así que Dios nos dice que hay que confiar en Él y dejar que Él sea el que arranca las malas hierbas. Por ahora, Dios es misericordioso y paciente, y permite que el bueno y el mal co-existan en el mundo. ¿Por qué? Porque Dios espera pacientemente a ver si los pecadores van a abrir sus corazones para recibir la semilla de su gracia para que se arrepientan y cambien sus vidas, antes de que sea demasiado tarde. ¿Qué se puede aprender de eso?

Tenemos que hacer lo mismo como hace nuestro Padre. Tenemos que ser misericordiosos, ser pacientes, y perdonar a los que nos ofenden. Nosotros, sus hijos e hijas, tenemos que abrir nuestros corazones y recibir el poder divino de Dios de la gracia. Entonces nosotros, sus hijos e hijas, tenemos que usar todos nuestros esfuerzos para ser misericordiosos y pacientes así como Dios nuestro Padre. Eso significa que tenemos que tratar las malas hierbas—los pecadoras en nuestra comunidad como si fueran nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Y tenemos que hacer todo lo posible para ayudarlos volver al camino correcto hacia el cielo. ¿Pero cómo? Una manera de hacerlo es orar por ellos. Tenemos que orar por la conversión de nuestros hermanos y hermanas pecadores. Estamos llamados a reconocer el mal, nombrarlo, y luego dárselo a Dios en oración para que Él lo arregle. Así como el sembrador de la parábola, Dios nos dice a nosotros, sus siervos, que Él se hará cargo de las malas hierbas.

Otra manera de ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas pecadores, es ser misericordiosos, ser pacientes, y perdonarles cuando nos ofenden. Tenemos que ser pacientes con ellos—cuando nos molesta la manera en que manejan, cuando nos molesta sus malos hábitos, cuando sus opiniones son diferentes de las nuestras, y hasta por sus vidas llenas de pecado.

Mira el ejemplo de Jesús. Jesús no los arranco como una hierba a Judas, quien lo entrego, o a Pedro, quien lo negó. Jesús vio las malas hierbas en sus vidas, pero también vio el buen trigo. El sabía que con la misericordia, la paciencia, con el perdón, y por las obras del Espíritu Santo, el trigo podría prevalecer. Y así paso.

Así es como nos convertimos en el buen trigo. Siendo misericordiosos, siendo pacientes, y en perdonando. Y nuestras vidas serán como un imán irresistible que atrae e invita a los pecadores para arrepentirse y voltearse hacia nuestro Padre tan misericordioso y paciente.

God our Father,

We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call.

May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Padre Nuestro,

Te damos gracias por llamar a hombres y mujeres a servir en el Reino de tu Hijo como sacerdotes, diáconos y personas consagradas. Manda tu Santo Espíritu para ayudar a que otros respondan con generosidad y valentía tu llamado. Que nuestra comunidad de fe apoye las vocaciones de amor sacrificial en nuestros jóvenes adultos. Te lo pedimos por nuestro Señor Jesucristo quien vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

MONDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Open the Bible with newcomers and experienced students alike. Both will find much to learn and explore in this helpful study; 'Introduction to the Bible' by Little Rock Scripture Study. Book series author, Stephen J. Binz is a biblical scholar, award-winning author, popular speaker and pilgrimage guide. He studied Scripture at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome and Jerusalem and has developed dozens of books and programs in biblical theology and spirituality. Stephen Binz offers clear, practical explanations that will make the Bible more familiar, giving readers a sense of the Bible's structure, a better understanding of its various themes and writing styles, and insight into how to interpret the Bible within the Catholic tradition. This study provides commentary, reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures that are included in this 6-week study. Study books will be available to purchase at our first gathering on Monday, September 14, 2026 at the Ministry Building from 5:30-7p.
