THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:16-17

LA DEDICACIÓN A LA BASÍLICA DE LETRÁN

A los que vendían palomas les dijo: "Quiten todo de aquí y no conviertan en un mercado la casa de mi Padre". En ese momento, sus discípulos se acordaron de lo que estaba escrito: El celo de tu casa me devora. - Jn 2, 16-17

Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

Do you know that you are God's temple and God's Spirit dwells in you? (1 Cor. 3:16). It's true. After the death and resurrection of Jesus, the Living Temple of God became a person. Just like the Word of God is no longer the written Law of Moses but the person of Jesus Christ; so the Temple of God is no longer a physical building but the person of Jesus Christ. And if the person of Jesus Christ is living inside of us, then we are the Temple of God—as individuals and together as the Body of Christ.

Now all we have to do is live our life as a sacrifice to God. Now you are the sacrifice. Together with Jesus Christ, you are the victim, who is going to be offered on that altar, for the forgiveness of sins and for the salvation of the world. And do you know what the most incredible thing of all is? You and all of us are going to be transformed into a living temple of God in Jesus Christ.

So now it's our turn to bring Jesus Christ who is present inside of us, from this Church into a world that is desperately starving for Him. We will carry Christ to others in the tabernacle of our hearts. When people see us, they will see holy lives and they won't resist from raising their minds up to God.

How appropriate then that today we celebrate the dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. What? Aren't we now the temple of God? Why should we celebrate the dedication of a physical building? Because of what it represents. Just so you know, there was no such person as John Lateran. The Emperor Constantine took the property from the Lateran family, built a basilica, and gave it to the Pope. Then it was dedicated to St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist.

But the important thing is that this basilica was the first church ever dedicated. And it was the Pope's cathedral and residence for 1000 years. During that time, it was almost entirely destroyed by vandals, earthquakes and fires. But it survived.

And so it became a powerful symbol that the Body of Christ goes on surviving. It is a symbol that Jesus Christ kept His promise to be with his church. And it reminds us that we are united with each other and with our Pope; and that our home is in the Body of Christ.

And so we come to our church to re-dedicate ourselves in building the Body of Christ. St. Paul reminds us that we are holy. Our holiness meets God on this holy ground. When that encounter happens, we can feel God's finger writing in our heart "You are My Temple." And now as holy living temples of God, we must do what a holy person must do:

"feed the hungry, give water to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick, and visit those in prison." By sharing our love and compassion with anyone in need, the world will see that we belong to one family—the Body of Christ.

¿Sabías que eres el templo de Dios y que el Espíritu de Dios habita en ti? (1 Cor. 3:16). Es verdad. Después de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús, el templo vivo de Dios se convirtió en una persona. Así como la Palabra de Dios ya no es la ley escrita de Moisés sino la persona de Jesucristo; también el Templo de Dios ya no es un edificio físico sino la persona de Jesucristo. Y si la persona de Jesucristo está viviendo dentro de nosotros, entonces nosotros somos el Templo de Dios—como individuales y juntos como el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Ahora, todo lo que tenemos que hacer es vivir nuestra vida como un sacrificio a Dios. Ahora tu eres el sacrificio. Junto con Jesucristo, tu eres la víctima, que se va a ofrecer en ese altar, para el perdón de los pecados y para la salvación del mundo. ¿Y sabes qué es lo más increíble de todo? Tu y todos de nosotros nos vamos a convertir en un templo vivo de Dios en Jesucristo.

Así que ahora nos toca llevar a Jesucristo que está presente dentro de nosotros, de esta Iglesia a un mundo que está desesperadamente hambriento por Él. Vamos a traer a Jesucristo quien está en el sagrario de nuestro corazón, a los demás. Cuando la gente nos ve, van a ver vidas santas y no van a poder menos que levantar sus mentes hacia Dios.

Qué apropiado entonces que hoy celebramos la dedicación de la Basílica de San Juan de Letrán en Roma. ¿Qué? ¿No somos ahora nosotros el templo de Dios? ¿Por qué debemos celebrar la dedicación de un edificio físico? Debido a lo que representa. Para que sepan, nunca existió una persona llamada Juan de Letrán. El Emperador Constantino tomó la propiedad de la familia Letrán, edificó una basílica, y se la dio al Papa. Luego la dedicaron a San Juan el Bautista y San Juan el Evangelista.

Pero lo importante es que esa basílica fue la primera iglesia dedicada. Y fue la catedral y la residencia del Papa por 1000 años. Durante ese tiempo, casi fue completamente destruida por vándalos, terremotos y fuegos. Pero sobrevivió.

Así que ahora es un símbolo poderoso de que el Cuerpo de Cristo sigue sobreviviendo. Es un símbolo de que Jesucristo cumplió con su promesa de estar con su Iglesia. Y nos recuerda que estamos unidos unos con otros y con el Papa; y que nuestra casa está en el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Y así venimos a nuestra iglesia para volver a dedicarnos a construir el Cuerpo de Cristo. San Pablo nos recuerda que somos santos. Nuestra santidad se encuentra con Dios en esta tierra santa. Cuando ese encuentro pasa, podemos sentir el dedo de Dios escribiendo en nuestro corazón "Tu eres mi templo." Y ahora como templos santos y vivos de Dios, tenemos que hacer lo que una persona santa debe de hacer:

"Alimentar al hambriento, dar agua al sediento, dar la bienvenida al forastero, vestir al desnudo, cuidar a los enfermos, y visitar a los presos." Al compartir nuestro amor y compasión con cualquier persona necesitada, el mundo se va a dar cuenta de que pertenecemos a una sola familia, el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Preparation Classes

Looking to get married in the Catholic Church? Our Lady of the Desert has programs to prepare you for a Joy-Filled Marriage! Whether you just got engaged, are married civilly and want to commit to being married in the Church, or are living together with children, we have programs designed just for you. These programs help couples better love each other by following God's abundant plans for marriage. It also helps couples learn practical life skills necessary to live out the rich Catholic vision of marriage that Jesus proclaims for "all the days of your lives."

How Do the Classes Work?

Each couple attends two, 4-hour classes to learn more about each other and God's wonderful plan for their lives together. The classes are interactive, fun, and tailored to each couple's life situation. After successfully completing the class, the couple receives a certificate of completion allowing them to proceed with their marriage plans in the Catholic Church.
