Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respeto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

Let me ask you a question: Do you love others enough to correct them? In other words, if you see a friend, an enemy, or even a stranger, committing a sin, do you love them enough to correct them? Jesus did. Remember when he told Peter “Get behind me, Satan” (Mt. 16:23). Remember when he kept telling the Jewish leaders “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!” (Mt. 23:13, 23, 25, 27, 29). Jesus loved them enough to correct them. Why? Because Jesus was consumed with helping everyone save their souls.

Now we have to do the same thing. When a person does evil and sins, we have an obligation as disciples of Jesus Christ to help them by correcting them. It will give them the opportunity to change and save their souls. That is very important because we may be the only ones who have the opportunity to do it.

But it's not always easy. So Jesus gave us a three-step process for correction and reconciliation. (1) First, confront the sinner in private. (2) Second, confront the sinner with a group of witnesses. (3) Third, bring the matter to the Church. If the matter is brought to the Church, the Church is authorized to exercise Christ's authority in disciplining the sinner. Jesus said: “If he refuses to listen even to the Church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector.”

Do you know what is interesting? This process almost sounds like the way we try to get alcoholics into rehab. First we confront them individually or in a group intervention. If that doesn't work, we have to stop being enablers, so we practice tough love because we have to let the person hit rock bottom. But once they turn around, we help them into rehab where they are reconciled back into the community.

That was the way it worked in the early Christian churches during the first centuries. When a person committed a grave sin like idolatry, murder, or adultery, they had to do public penance for their sins. They were called the “order of penitents.” It often took years to complete before they were reconciled and welcomed back into the church. But in some places this could only be done once in a lifetime.

Then during the 7th century Irish missionaries, inspired by the Eastern monastic tradition, brought the practice of private confession and penance to Europe. Still, whenever we go to confession, we are assigned a penance and reconciled back into our faith community. I think the most important thing to remember, is that if we are really going to love everyone the way Jesus Christ loves us, then we have to be willing to correct sinners and help reconcile them with Christ and his Catholic Church. And when we do, something really incredible is going to happen. What is going to happen is this: when we reach out to correct and reconcile anyone who is sinning, we are going to be awakening Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit inside of them. We are going to be helping them to resurrect their souls to find salvation. And when we do that, the Holy Spirit will transform us, more and more, into Jesus Christ.

Permíteme hacerte una pregunta: ¿Amas a los demás lo suficiente como para corregirlos? Es decir, si ves a un amigo, a un enemigo o hasta a un desconocido cometiendo un pecado, ¿los amas lo suficiente como para corregirlos? Jesús lo hizo. Recuerdas cuando le dijo a Pedro: «¡Apártate de mí, Satanás!» (Mt 16, 23). Recuerdas cuando repetía a los líderes judíos: «¡Ay de ustedes, escribas y fariseos, hipócritas!» (Mt 23, 13, 23, 25, 27, 29). Jesús los amaba lo suficiente como para corregirlos. ¿Por qué? Porque Jesús estaba completamente obsesionado con ayudar a todos a salvar sus almas.

Ahora nosotros tenemos que hacer lo mismo. Cuando una persona obra mal y peca, tenemos la obligación, como discípulos de Jesucristo, de ayudarlos corrigiéndolos. Esto le dará la oportunidad de cambiar y salvar su alma. Es algo muy importante, porque tal vez seamos los únicos que tengamos la oportunidad de hacerlo.

Pero no siempre es fácil. Por eso, Jesús nos dio un proceso de tres pasos para la corrección y la reconciliación. (1) Primero, confrontar al pecador en privado. (2) Segundo, confrontar al pecador con un grupo de testigos. (3) Tercero, llevar el asunto a la Iglesia. Si el asunto llega a la Iglesia, la Iglesia está autorizada para ejercer la autoridad de Cristo en disciplinar al pecador. Jesús dijo: «Si se niega a escuchar hasta a la Iglesia, trátalo como a un pagano o a un recaudador de impuestos».

¿Sabes qué es interesante? Este proceso casi suena como la manera en que intentamos que los alcohólicos entren en rehabilitación. Primero los confrontamos individualmente o en una intervención grupal. Si eso no funciona, tenemos que dejar de ser facilitadores, así que practicamos el amor duro porque tenemos que dejar que la persona toque fondo. Pero una vez que se recuperan, los ayudamos a entrar en rehabilitación donde son reincorporados a la comunidad. Así era como funcionaba en las primeras iglesias cristianas durante los primeros siglos. Cuando una persona cometía un pecado grave como idolatría, asesinato o adulterio, tenía que hacer penitencia pública por sus pecados. A esto se le llamaba “el orden de los penitentes”. Muchas veces tomaba años completarla antes de ser reconciliados y bienvenidos nuevamente en la iglesia. Pero en algunos lugares esto solo se podía hacer una vez en la vida.

Más tarde, durante el siglo VII, misioneros irlandeses — inspirados por la tradición monástica de Oriente— introdujeron en Europa la práctica de la confesión y la penitencia privadas. Aun así, cada vez que vamos a confesarnos, se nos asigna una penitencia y somos reconciliados con nuestra comunidad de fe.

Creo que lo más importante para recordar es que si realmente vamos a amar a todos de la manera en que Jesucristo nos ama, entonces tenemos que estar dispuestos a corregir a los pecadores y ayudarlos a reconciliarse con Cristo y su Iglesia Católica. Y cuando lo hagamos, algo realmente increíble va a suceder.

Lo que va a suceder es esto: cuando extendemos la mano para corregir y reconciliar a cualquiera que esté pecando, estaremos despertando a Jesucristo y al Espíritu Santo dentro de ellos. Estaremos ayudándolos a resucitar sus almas para encontrar la salvación. Y cuando hacemos eso, el Espíritu Santo nos transforma a nosotros, cada vez más, en Jesucristo.

Looking to get married in the Catholic Church? Our Lady of the Desert Catholic Church has programs to prepare you for a Joy-Filled Marriage! Whether you just got engaged, are married civilly and want to commit to being married in the Church, or are living together with children, we have programs designed just for you. These programs help couples bear love each other by following God's abundant plans for marriage. It also helps couples learn practical life skills necessary to live out the rich Catholic vision of marriage that Jesus proclaims for "all the days of your lives."

How Do the Classes Work? Each couple attends two, 4-hour classes to learn more about each other and God's wonderful plan for their lives together. The classes are interactive, fun, and tailored to each couple's life situation. After successfully completing the class, the couple receives a certificate of completion allowing them to proceed with their marriage plans in any Catholic Church. Fee $200 per couple.

Next Classes:

Part 1: Saturday, September 12, 2026, 8AM to Noon;

Part 2: Saturday, September 19, 2026, 8 AM to Noon

Priesthood Sunday is September 27, 2026

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one, without whom the Mass could not be offered, and Sacraments could not be celebrated. Join us in praying for our priests, praising God for their courage and generosity. Let us show the priests in our parish our encouragement and gratitude in thoughts and deeds. God Bless our priests! Saint John Vianney, the Patron of Priests says, "The priesthood is the love of the Heart of Jesus. When you see a Priest, think of our Lord Jesus Christ." Let us PRAY for all Priests today, Priesthood Sunday and every day to see their vocation as a blessing and strive to live out their calling to be CHRIST to all!

Monday Night Bible Study will begin on 9/14/26 at the Church Ministry Building from 5:30 – 7p. 'Introduction to the Bible' is a 6-week study published by 'Little Rock Scripture Study'. The study provides commentary, reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures. Books will be available for purchase ($11) on 9/14/26. For information contact Gina Greear @ 760.963.5571 or gggreatful@gmail.com.
