Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental justice, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvation.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respeto a la vida humana, a la economía y justicia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una Iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

Which of the two sons is more like you? When the father asked the first son to go and work in the vineyard he said “no.” But later he changed his mind and did the work. When the father asked the second son to go and work in the vineyard said “yes.” But then failed to do the work. How many of us pray that way? We tell God what we think He wants to hear from us. Like “thy will be done.” We feel holy. Then we do the opposite, like “my will be done.” Or how many of us go to confession, and we promise to sin no more? And then we go and commit the same sins?

Why does that happen? Because of original sin, our souls are wounded so that we are inclined to sin. And the root of all sin is pride. That was the problem with the Scribes and Pharisees. They were like the second son who said yes but did not obey his father. They heard the preaching of Jesus and knew the scriptures, but their hearts were hardened by pride.

That pride made them blind to realize that Jesus was God. And that pride made them spiritually negligent, so they did not put their faith into action. How can we avoid that? Let’s look at what Jesus said to the Scribes and Pharisees. He told them that tax collectors and prostitutes were entering the Kingdom of Heaven ahead of them. The lowest of the low—the tax collectors and prostitutes—were like the first son, who at first said no but then changed his mind and obeyed his father.

They were transformed. They let Jesus Christ touch them. And now they had a new heart and a new spirit. With a new heart and a new spirit they put their faith into action. Why? What was their secret?

In one word: they were humble.

In the second reading, St. Paul tells us we should strive to have the same mind as Jesus Christ so that we will be humble and obedient to God by becoming self-sacrificing without being competitive.

And that is the key. We have to become humble and obedient to God. That will open our hearts to let the Word of God—Jesus Christ—touch us and transform us. We have to pass through the cross of humility to get to the resurrection of exalting God. How? When we seek forgiveness for our sins and really make an honest effort to change our ways. But it is a life-long process.

Perhaps that is the true miracle—when we keep working at transforming who we are by receiving God’s grace and making our best effort to cooperate with that grace. By allowing Jesus to touch us and then working with him, by putting our faith into action, so that we are transformed from the second son into the first son.

¿Cuál de los dos hijos se parece más a ti? Cuando el padre le pidió al primer hijo que fuera a trabajar en la viña, él dijo “no”. Pero luego cambió su mente y hizo el trabajo. Cuando el padre le pidió al segundo hijo que fuera a trabajar en la viña, él dijo “sí”. Pero luego no cumplió con el trabajo. ¿Cuántos de nosotros oramos así? Le decimos a Dios lo que creemos que Él quiere escuchar de nosotros. Como “hágase tu voluntad.” Nos sentimos santitos. Luego hacemos lo contrario, como “hágase mi voluntad.” ¿O cuántos de nosotros vamos a confesión y prometemos no pecar más? ¿Y luego vamos y cometemos los mismos pecados? ¿Por qué pasa eso? Por el pecado original, nuestras almas están heridas y estamos inclinados a pecar. Y la raíz de todo pecado es el orgullo. Ese era el problema de los escribas y fariseos. Eran como el segundo hijo que dijo sí pero no obedeció a su padre. Escuchaban la prédica de Jesús y conocían las escrituras, pero sus corazones estaban endurecidos por el orgullo. Ese orgullo los cegó para darse cuenta de que Jesús era Dios. Y ese orgullo los hizo descuidados espiritualmente, así que no pusieron su fe en acción. ¿Cómo podemos evitar eso? Veamos lo que Jesús les dijo a los escribas y fariseos. Les dijo que los recaudadores de impuestos y las prostitutas entraban al Reino de los Cielos antes que ellos. Los más bajos de los bajos—los recaudadores de impuestos y las prostitutas—eran como el primer hijo, que al principio dijo que no pero luego cambió de opinión y obedeció a su padre. Fueron transformados. Dejaron que Jesucristo los tocara. Y ahora tenían un corazón nuevo y un espíritu nuevo. Con un corazón nuevo y un espíritu nuevo pusieron su fe en acción. ¿Por qué? ¿Cuál era su secreto? En una palabra: fueron humildes. En la segunda lectura, San Pablo nos dice que debemos esforzarnos por tener la misma mente que Jesucristo para que seamos humildes y obedientes a Dios, volviéndonos autosacrificados sin ser competitivos. Y esa es la clave. Tenemos que volvernos humildes y obedientes a Dios. Eso abrirá nuestros corazones para permitir que la Palabra de Dios—Jesucristo—nos toque y nos transforme. Tenemos que pasar por la cruz de la humildad para llegar a la resurrección de exaltar a Dios. ¿Cómo? Cuando buscamos perdón por nuestros pecados y de veras hacemos un esfuerzo honesto por cambiar nuestra manera de actuar. Pero es un proceso de toda la vida. Tal vez ese sea el verdadero milagro: cuando seguimos trabajando en transformar quiénes somos recibiendo la gracia de Dios y haciendo nuestro mejor esfuerzo por cooperar con esa gracia. Al permitir que Jesús nos toque y luego trabajar con él, poniendo nuestra fe en acción, para que seamos transformados del segundo hijo al primer hijo.

We reflect on the readings for the Liturgical Season on a weekly basis using the Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word for Year A. Cost of book is $15. Contact the office for registration. Facilitator is Peggy Perring-Mulligan, 760 961-2617.

Pre-Cana Classes

Looking to get married in the Catholic Church? Our Lady of the Desert Catholic Church has programs to prepare you for a Joy-Filled Marriage. Whether you just got engaged, are married civilly and want to commit to being married in the Church, or are living together with children, we have programs designed just for you. These programs help couples better love each other by following God's abundant plans for marriage. It also helps couples learn practical life skills necessary to live out the rich Catholic vision of marriage that Jesus proclaims for "all the days of your lives." Each couple attends two, 4-hour classes to learn more about each other and God's wonderful plan for their lives together. The classes are interactive, fun, and tailored to each couple's life situation. After successfully completing the classes, the couple receives a certificate of completion allowing them to proceed with their marriage plans in any Catholic Church. Fee $200 per couple.

Next Classes in the Auditorium of the Ministry Building:

Part 1: Saturday, Nov. 7th, 8am-12noon

Part 2: Nov. 14th, 8am-12 noon

Our OCIA ministry, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a beautiful ministry that helps adults prepare to become fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

Like many parishes, we are blessed to see this ministry growing! And with that growth comes a wonderful need: we are looking for sponsors.

A sponsor is simply a companion on the journey of faith. Someone who will pray for an inquirer, help answer questions, encourage their spiritual growth, and stand beside them at the Easter Vigil.

You don't need to be a theological expert or have all the answers. All we ask is that you be a faithful witness to what it means to live a Catholic life, with a willingness to share your faith and walk alongside someone as they grow in theirs.

If you feel God may be calling you to accompany someone on this beautiful journey, please contact Amanda at 760-774-5480

October 1st - 31st in the Church at 5:30 PM.

The church recognizes October as the month of the rosary. Beginning October 1st at 5:30 PM every day through 31st, we will be praying the rosary in honor of our blessed Mother. Please come and join us and ask our mother to intercede with her Son for favors we need or in thanksgiving. As children, who better to run to our mothers to fix our scrapes and bruises, and if your mother ever asks you for a favor, wouldn't you do anything you could for her?

So, Jesus will do anything for his Mother.

The rosary is a powerful prayer, Jesus tells us to ask in his name so we ask Jesus through Mary when we pray "Holy Mary, mother of God pray for us". We make a strong voice when we pray as a community. The rosary is also said every weekday after the 7:30am Mass all year long.

Please come and join us whether it's in the morning or in the evening. GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Church Lighting Update

We would like to provide a brief update on the church lighting. Our existing lights were custom-made and have since been discontinued, making replacements very difficult to find. We continue to work with vendors to find suitable replacements for the rest of the church.

We have been able to make adjustments to some of the lighting for the choir and altar areas, and installation will be completed in accordance with Diocesan guidelines by qualified contractors.

We are especially grateful to our contractors who are generously volunteering their time and labor at no cost to the parish, as well as to our staff who have worked diligently and given so much of their time to this project.

Replacing the entire lighting system would be extremely costly, so we are working carefully to find the most practical and financially responsible solution.

Thank you for your patience and understanding, and a special thank you to our contractors and staff for their generosity, dedication, and continued efforts. We will provide another update as soon as we have more information regarding the remaining lights.
