Our Mission - We, as members of Our Lady of the Desert Church, through the guidance of our Blessed Mother Mary, are a community of believers in Jesus Christ, from whom we have the mission of making His Gospel alive in our parish and in the world. By living out His Gospel, we help to shape a society with greater respect for human life, economic and environmental jusce, cultural diversity, and global solidarity, so that we will build a church where everyone feels welcome and through it will find happiness and salvaon.

Nuestra Misión - Nosotros, como miembros de la Iglesia de Nuestra Señora del Desierto, con la dirección de Nuestra Madre María, somos una comunidad de creencia en Jesús Cristo, que tenemos la misión de hacer su evangelio vivo en nuestra parroquia y en el mundo. Viviendo su evangelio, ayudamos a formar una sociedad con mayor respecto a la vida humana, a la economía y juscia al ambiente, diversidad cultural, y la solidaridad global, de modo que construyamos una iglesia donde todos se sientan bienvenidos con felicidad y salvación.

Did you hear that trick question? “Tell us what is your opinion? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

If Jesus says, “Yes, people should pay taxes to Caesar,” the people will hate him for collaborating with the Romans. If Jesus says, “No, people should not pay taxes to Caesar,” the Romans will arrest him for sedition.

So Jesus answers them by tossing a coin. But its not “heads or tails”, rather it’s “heads AND tails.” Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God. What does that mean? And doesn’t everything belong to God anyway? Yes. We belong to God. We are created in the image and likeness of God. So we should be a reflection of Gods’ presence in the world. You might even say that we are like a coin that bears the image of God.

Then what doesn’t belong to God? That is the million dollar question. Each of us has to decide what belongs to Caesar and what belongs to God. How? We have to study, reflect and pray on it. And we have to rely in faith on the traditions and teachings of the Catholic Church.

But one thing is certain. The one thing that belongs to Caesar, which means the government, is that we should be concerned for the common good, and obedience to the laws. That is, unless they conflict with God’s commandments. We should never forget Jesus’ warning: “no one can serve two masters; you cannot serve God and mammon” (Mt. 6:24).

What that means is our loyalty lies with God. We owe God everything. The coin bears Caesar’s image. But we bear God’s own image. We owe Him our very lives—our heart, mind, soul and strength. And we should offer our life as a living sacrifice to Him by dying to our self-interests and living to love others.

But we need to be careful because a lot of politicians try to say that the distinction Jesus makes—between what we owe to Caesar and what we owe to God—means that our religion should be something we keep private.

And we can convince ourselves that there is no relationship between our faith and our daily life. We can start to think it’s OK if we go to Mass on Sunday and then we can forget about God the rest of the week. But Jesus is telling us something different. Jesus does not want us to separate our faith from our daily life.

So if the Roman coins bear the image of Caesar, then our human heart bears the image of Jesus Christ. He has marked us for his own. In fact when God sees us, when Jesus Christ sees us, when the Virgin Mary sees us, when all the angels and saints see us—they see Jesus Christ in us. That means that together with all of them, we have a special calling to offer our life as a living sacrifice by continuing the mission of Jesus Christ.

¿Escucharon la pregunta con trampa? "Dinos, pues, qué piensas: ¿Es lícito o no pagar el tributo al César?” Si Jesús dice que "Sí, la gente debe pagar el tributo al César,” la gente lo van a odiar por colaborar con los romanos. Si Jesús dice que "No, la gente no debe pagar el tributo al César," los romanos lo van a arrestar por sedición.

Así que Jesús les responde echando una moneda. Pero no es "cara o cruz", sino que es "cara Y cruz.” Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios. Qué significa eso? Y no le pertenece ya todo a Dios comoquiera?

Sí. Nosotros pertenecemos a Dios. Hemos sido creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Así que debemos ser un reflejo de la presencia de Dios en el mundo. Hasta se puede decir que somos como una moneda que lleva la imagen de Dios. Entonces que no le pertenece a Dios? Esa es la pregunta del millón de dólares. Cada uno de nosotros tenemos que decidir lo que es del César y lo que es de Dios. ¿Cómo? Tenemos que estudiar, reflexionar y orar sobre ella. Y tenemos que confiar con fe en las tradiciones y enseñanzas de la Iglesia Católica.

Pero una cosa si sabemos. La cosa que le pertenece al Cesar, quien es el gobierno, es que debemos dedicarnos al bien común, y obedecer la ley. Es decir, a menos que estén en conflicto con los mandamientos de Dios. Nunca debemos podemos olvidar la advertencia de Jesús: "nadie puede servir a dos patrones; no se puede servir al mismo tiempo a Dios y al dinero” (Mt. 6:24).

Lo que eso significa es que nuestra fidelidad le corresponde a Dios. Le debemos todo a Dios. La moneda lleva la imagen de César. Pero nosotros llevamos la imagen de Dios. Le debemos la mera vida--nuestro corazón, mente, alma y fuerza. Y debemos ofrecer nuestra vida como sacrificio vivo a Dios, muriendo a nuestros propios intereses y viviendo para amar a los demás.

Pero hay que tener cuidado porque muchos políticos dicen que la distinción que Jesús hace—entre lo que le debemos al César y lo que le debemos a Dios--significa que nuestra religión debe ser algo que guardamos en privado. Y podemos convencernos de que no existe una relación entre nuestra fe y nuestra vida diaria. Podemos empezar a pensar que esta bien venir a misa el domingo y luego podemos olvidarnos de Dios el resto de la semana. Pero Jesús nos dice lo contrario. Jesús no quiere que separemos nuestra fe de nuestra vida cotidiana. Así que, si las monedas romanas contienen la imagen de César, entonces nuestro corazón humano contiene la imagen de Jesucristo. Él nos ha marcado para ser suyos. De hecho, cuando Dios nos ve, cuando Jesucristo nos ve, cuando la Virgen María nos ve, cuando todos los santos y los ángeles nos ven—ven a Jesucristo dentro de nosotros. Eso significa que juntos con ellos, tenemos una llamada especial de ofrecer nuestra vida como un sacrificio vivo para continuar la misión de Jesucristo.

Help Pope Leo Help Missionaries!

2nd Collection Sunday, Oct. 18th

Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries around the world, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community, especially those most in need. The World Mission Sunday collection grants funds to mission dioceses, which help to underwrite the basic physical footprint that keeps missionary life going: where priests live, where sisters live, where children are catechized, where formation and pastoral work can happen, and where Holy Mass can be celebrated, often for the first time.

Thank you!

¡Ayude al Papa León a apoyar a los misioneros!

Segunda colecta: domingo 18 de octubre

La misión pertenece a toda la Iglesia. Todo bautizado está llamado a compartir el amor de Dios mediante la oración, la generosidad y el testimonio. Inspirados por la entrega de los misioneros en todo el mundo, seguimos trabajando juntos para que el mensaje de Cristo llegue a todas las comunidades, especialmente a las más necesitadas.

La colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones destina fondos a las diócesis misioneras, ayudando a financiar la infraestructura básica que sostiene la vida misionera: los lugares donde viven sacerdotes y religiosas, donde se imparte catequesis a los niños, donde se llevan a cabo la formación y la labor pastoral, y donde se celebra la Santa Misa, a menudo por primera vez. ¡Gracias!

In the Holy Sacrifice of the Masses on Sunday, Nov. 1st, all Souls will be remembered and prayed over our deceased loved ones. Envelopes available in the Church.

We pray for All our brothers & sisters

God our Father,

We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

Joy-filled MARRIAGE

Pre-Cana Classes

Looking to get married in the Catholic Church? Our Lady of the Desert Catholic Church has programs to prepare you for a Joy-Filled Marriage. Whether you just got engaged, are married civilly and want to commit to being married in the Church, or are living together with children, we have programs designed just for you. These programs help couples better love each other by following God's abundant plans for marriage. It also helps couples learn practical life skills necessary to live out the rich Catholic vision of marriage that Jesus proclaims for "all the days of your lives." Each couple attends two, 4-hour classes to learn more about each other and God's wonderful plan for their lives together. The classes are interacve, fun, and tailored to each couple's life situaon. After successfully completing the classes,the couple receives a certificate of completion allowing them to proceed with their marriage plans in any Catholic Church.

Our OCIA ministry, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a beautiful ministry that helps adults prepare to become fully initiated into the Catholic Church. Like many parishes, we are blessed to see this ministry growing! And with that growth comes a wonderful need: we are looking for sponsors. A sponsor is simply a companion on the journey of faith. Someone who will pray for an inquirer, help answer questions, encourage their spiritual growth, and stand beside them at the Easter Vigil. You don't need to be a theological expert or have all the answers. All we ask is that you be a faithful witness to what it means to live a Catholic life, with a willingness to share your faith. Our catechumens become fully initiated into the Catholic Church at Easter.

We have over 20 inquirers for this upcoming year.

What are the eligibility requirements for a Sponsor?

· Be a Catholic who has been baptized, received the Eucharist, and been confirmed, and who is currently living a sacramental life (e.g., attend Mass regularly, making use of the sacrament of Reconciliation) and, if married, has had their marriage in the Catholic Church;

· Be at least eighteen years of age;

· Lead a life of faith in harmony with the teachings of the Catholic Church, and have the intention of undertaking the ministry of sponsor;

· Not be a parent of the individual.

If you feel God may be calling you to accompany someone on this beautiful journey, please contact Amanda at 760-774-5480

"Pray as though everything depended on God."
Join us on Wednesday, Oct. 28th at 7pm in the Church for one hour of prayer, including a Rosary. Our intention is for our children in need of God's mercy and return to their catholic faith.
All women are welcome.
NO sensitive information is shared

October 1st - 31st in the Church at 5:30 PM.

The church recognizes October as the month of the rosary. Beginning October 1st at 5:30 PM every day through 31st, we will be praying the rosary in honor of our blessed Mother. Please come and join us and ask our mother to intercede with her Son for favors we need or in thanksgiving . As children, who better to run to our mothers to fix our scrapes and bruises, and if your mother ever asks you for a favor, wouldn't you do anything you could for her? So, Jesus will do anything for his Mother.
The rosary is a powerful prayer, Jesus tells us to ask in his name so we ask Jesus through Mary when we pray " Holy Mary, mother of God pray for us". We make a strong voice when we pray as a community. The rosary is also said every weekday after the 7:30am Mass all year long. Please come and join us whether it's in the morning or in the evening.
GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

We have started adding late Mass Intentions into a basket at the back of the Church that will be brought to the Altar. These intentions will not be individually mentioned, as they will be prayed over. If you have a late Mass Intention, please put it into the basket along with your $10 donation. Please do not give the priest, deacon or lectors papers with Mass Intentions.

Hemos comenzado a colocar las intenciones de Misa de última hora en una canasta situada al fondo de la iglesia, la cual será llevada al altar. Estas intenciones no se mencionarán individualmente, sino que se rezará por ellas. Si tiene una intención de última hora, por favor colóquela en la canasta junto con su donativo de 10 dólares. Les pedimos que no entregue papeles con intenciones de Misa al sacerdote, al diácono ni a los lectores.
