

Sales & Design Consultant

Accent Window Fashions | Elkhorn, NE

www.omahawindowcovering.com

Pay: $40,000 – $90,000 per year

About Us

Accent Window Fashions is a family-owned business with 20+ years of expertise in custom window treatments, serving residential and commercial clients in the greater Omaha area. We're a small, professional team built on integrity, quality, and exceptional customer service.

The Opportunity

This is a career position with real earning potential and room to grow. You'll guide clients from initial consultation through installation — blending design, sales, and relationship-building into a rewarding role. As home automation expands, so does demand for what we offer, making this an exciting time to join our team.

What You'll Do

- Meet with clients in-home and in our Elkhorn showroom to assess needs and recommend solutions
- Become a certified expert in Hunter Douglas window coverings and automation
- Build and manage your own client pipeline through networking and relationship-building
- Manage each project from sale to installation with support from our team

What We're Looking For

- 2+ years of customer-facing or outside sales experience
- Associate's degree required; Bachelor's preferred (business, marketing, or design)
- Detail-oriented, self-motivated, and genuinely enjoys working with people
- Tech comfortable and holds a valid driver's license with reliable transportation
- Must be local to or able to commute to Elkhorn, NE — not a remote position

Compensation & Benefits

- Paid training period with a base salary or wage of $40,000–$50,000
- Base or draw + uncapped commission following training (total earnings up to $90,000+)
- Simple Retirement Plan with 3% company match
- Paid time off and paid holidays
- Flexible schedule, mileage reimbursement, and generous employee discount

Schedule

Full-time | Monday–Friday + rotating Saturdays | No Sundays
