A YEAR IN REVIEW

Executive Director Franca Trunzo Chunga and Board President Deborah M. Brisbane with Club supporter Mr. David P. Pearson.

We faced many challenges this past year but with your support and investment in our Club, we managed to come through this pandemic with little disruption to our kids.

At the onset of the shutdown, we efficiently and seamlessly transitioned programming to a Virtual Experience. We remained connected to our members and continued crucial programs promoting academics and uninterrupted learning. We effectively implemented our vital Summer Youth Employment initiative virtually preparing teens for all aspects of vocational development including college preparation and career advancement. By summer, our young members eagerly returned to the place they call 'home away from home' and our SYE teens were prepared and ready to take on group leader roles.

We have been the cornerstone of the Glen Cove for nearly 120 years and have always remained committed and connected to our community and our youth. As we reflect on 2020 and look to the future, we can assure our supporters and our member families that the important role we play in the lives of our members will go on, even under unprecedented times.

While we were effective in our goal to serve the kids who need us most, our organization's overall fundraising efforts were affected by the pandemic as a direct result of premiere event cancellations. Your support to our Mission during this decline was even more critical to our efforts. We are hopeful 2021 will see better days, returning to a pre-COVID phase where we can reconnect at our annual Golf Outing, Dinner Dance, or Thanksgiving Dinner.

Thank you for your continued commitment to our Club and our kids. We are grateful to our Board of Directors, donors, volunteers, families and friends for their invaluable contributions and for making a difference the lives of our community's youth.
