

Paige and the Mud Pie Day

By Fun Learning. Fun

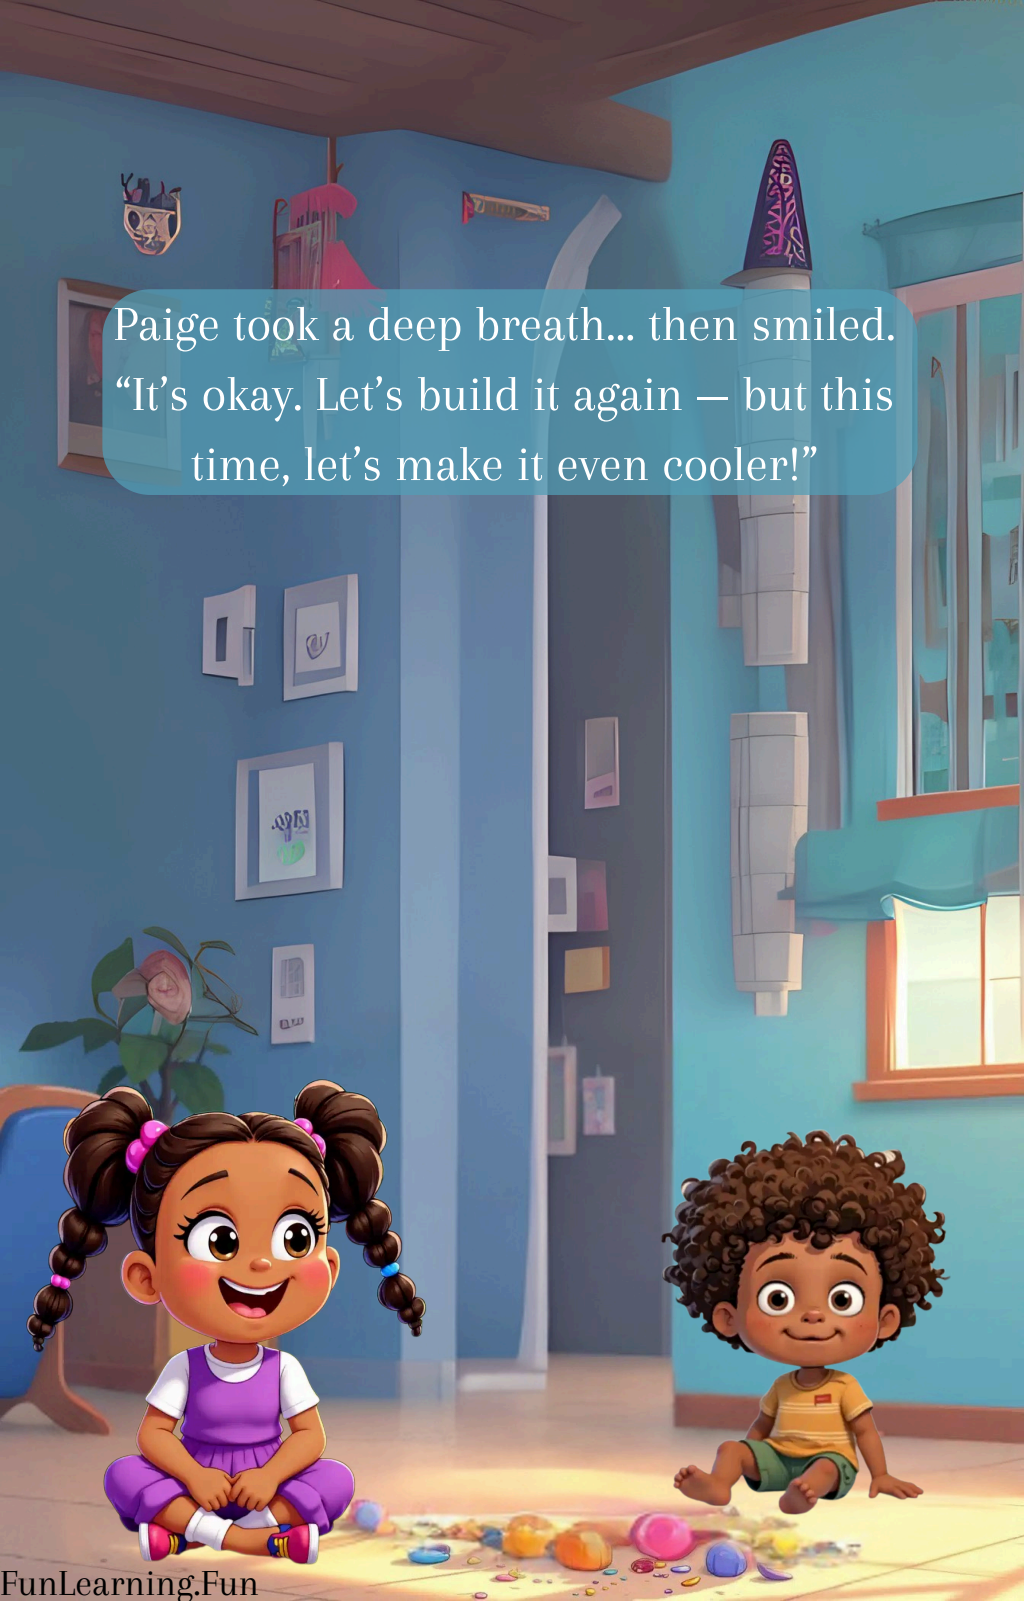

Paige was always smiling — even when her sandwich fell jelly-side down. “Oops! Jelly art!” she laughed, picking it up with a giggle.

At recess, her soccer team lost 3-0.
“Hey, we ran fast and didn’t trip over our shoelaces. That’s a win!” Paige cheered.

Later, her little brother accidentally knocked over her science project. He looked like a scared puppy.

Paige took a deep breath... then smiled.
“It’s okay. Let’s build it again — but this time, let’s make it even cooler!”

Her teacher overheard and said, Paige, your good attitude is shining brighter than the sun!

That afternoon, it rained during recess.
Everyone groaned — except Paige.
“Puddle-jumping, anyone?” she laughed.

The class jumped, splashed, and giggled all the way back inside.

A great attitude is like sunshine — it makes even muddy days better. Stay kind, stay positive, and don't forget to laugh along the way! 🌞 😊 🤍

The End!
