

GOOD IDEA

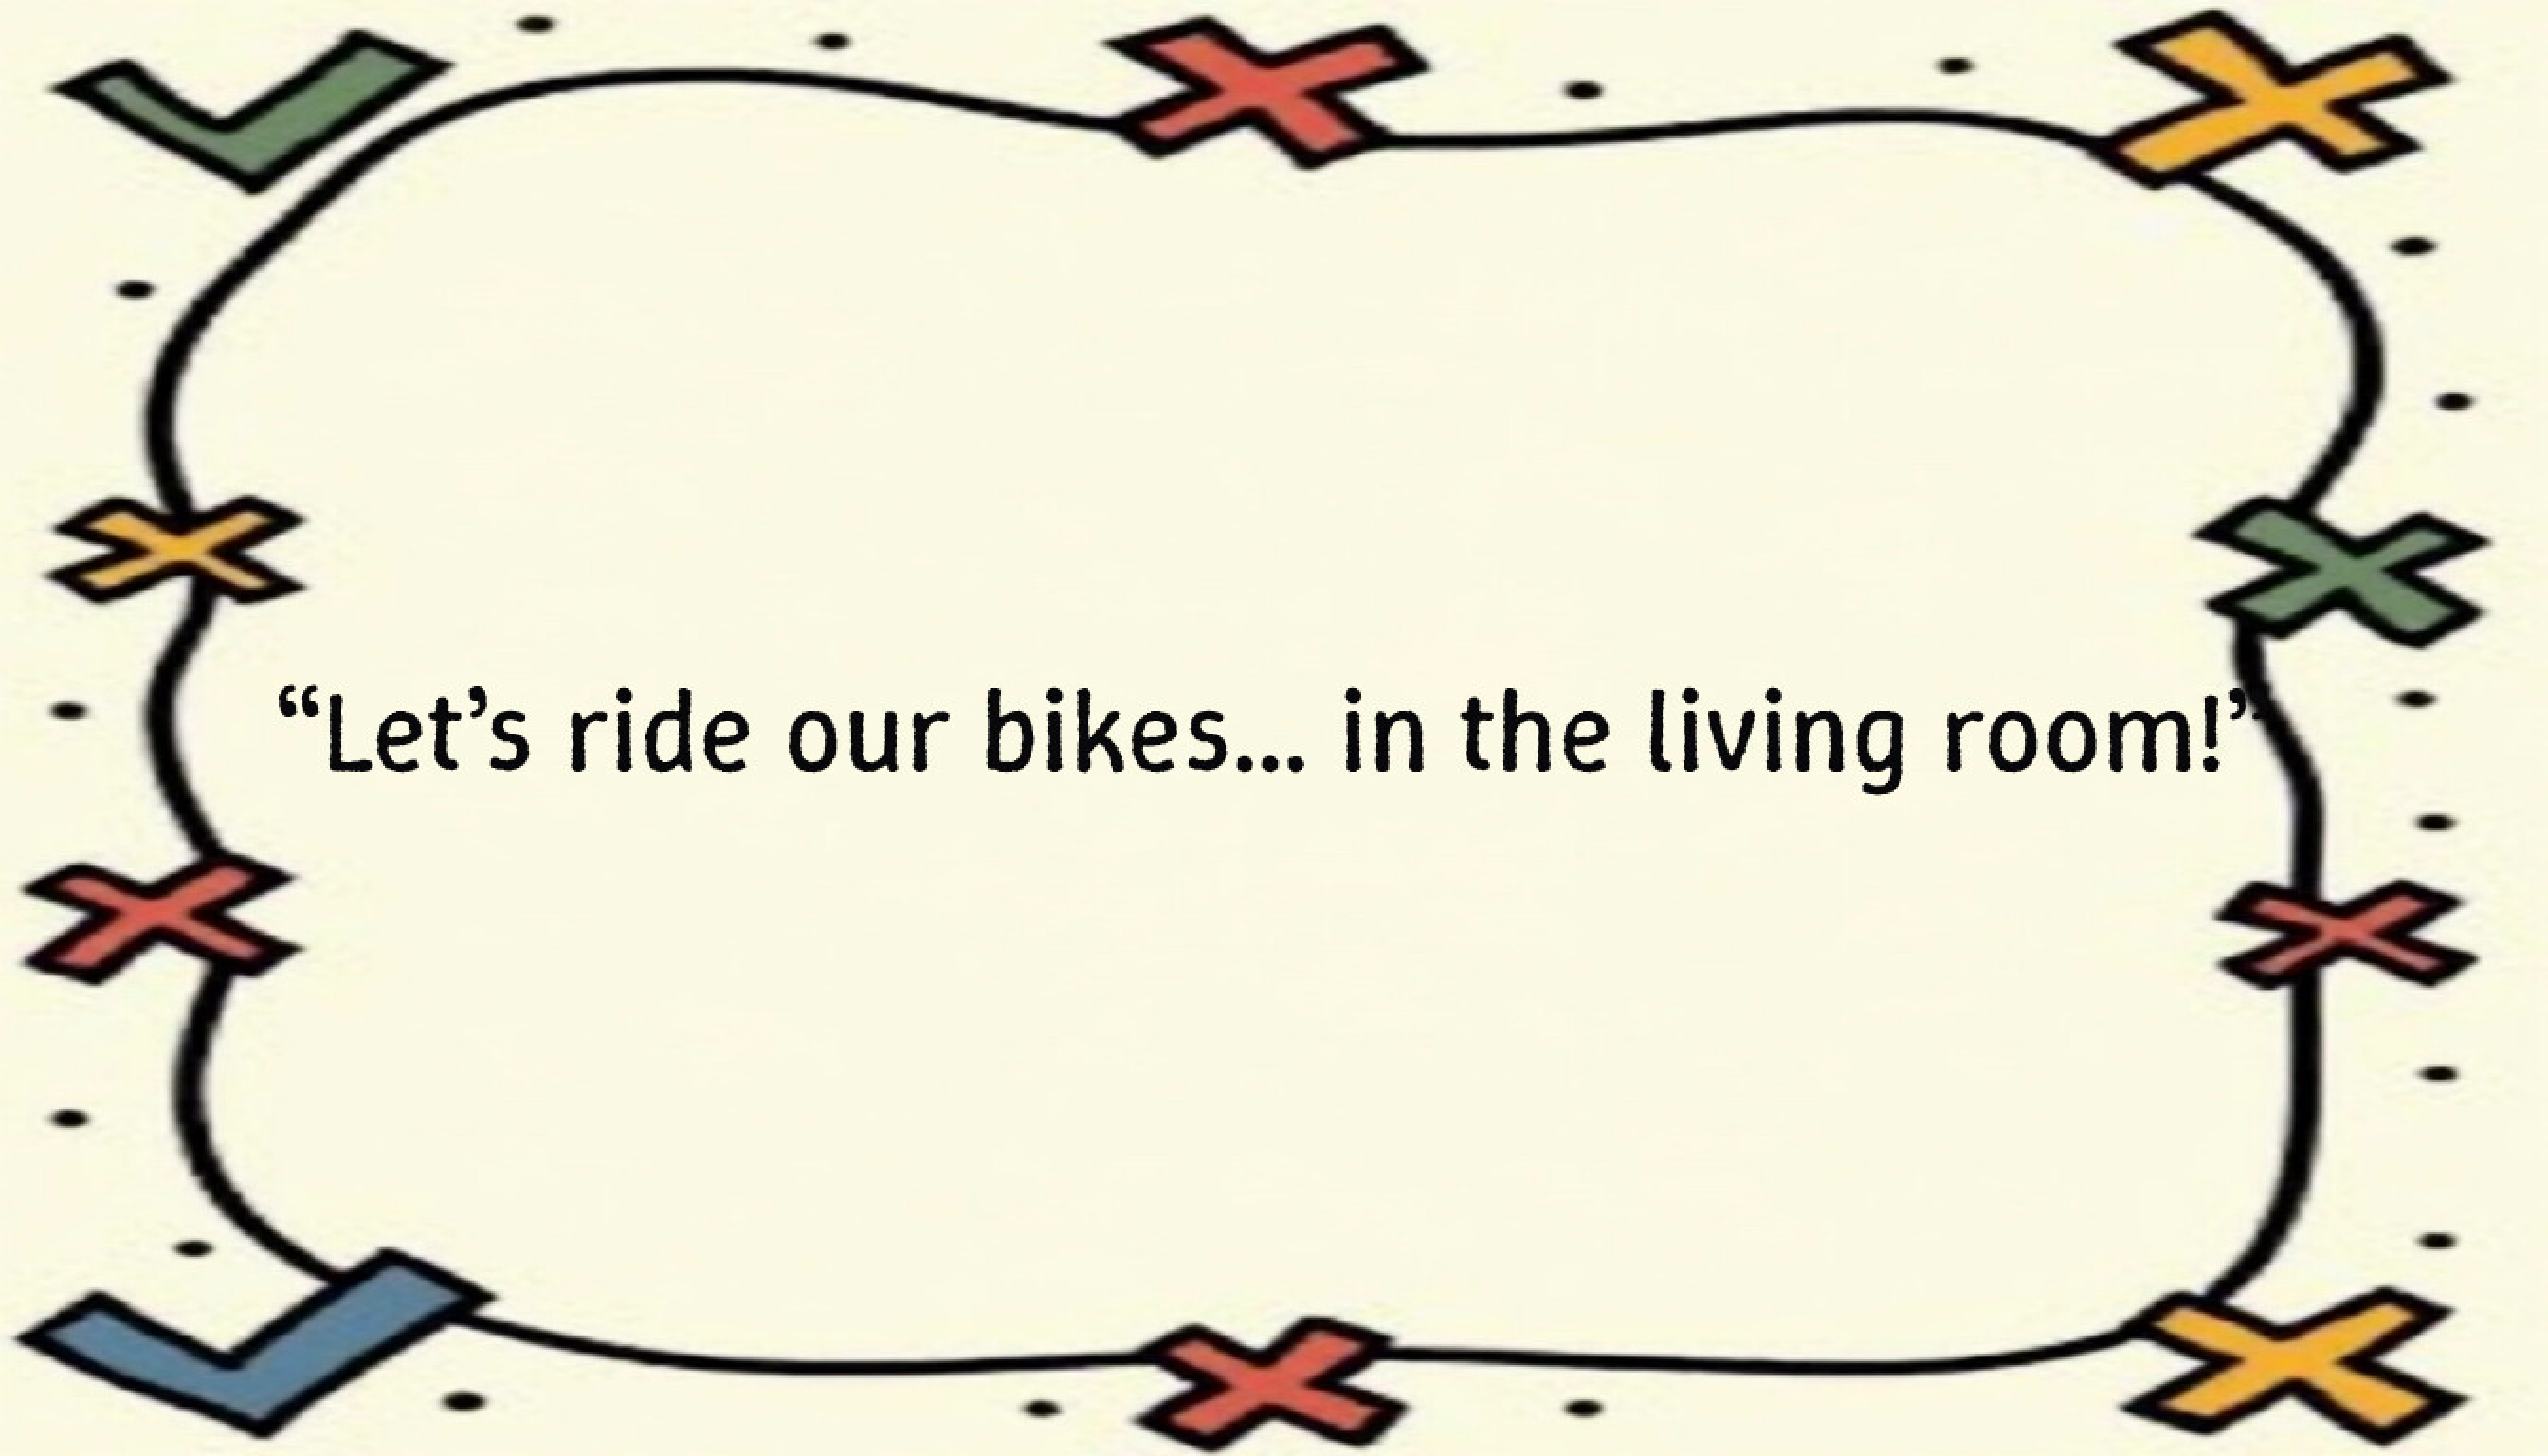

Fitz had an idea.

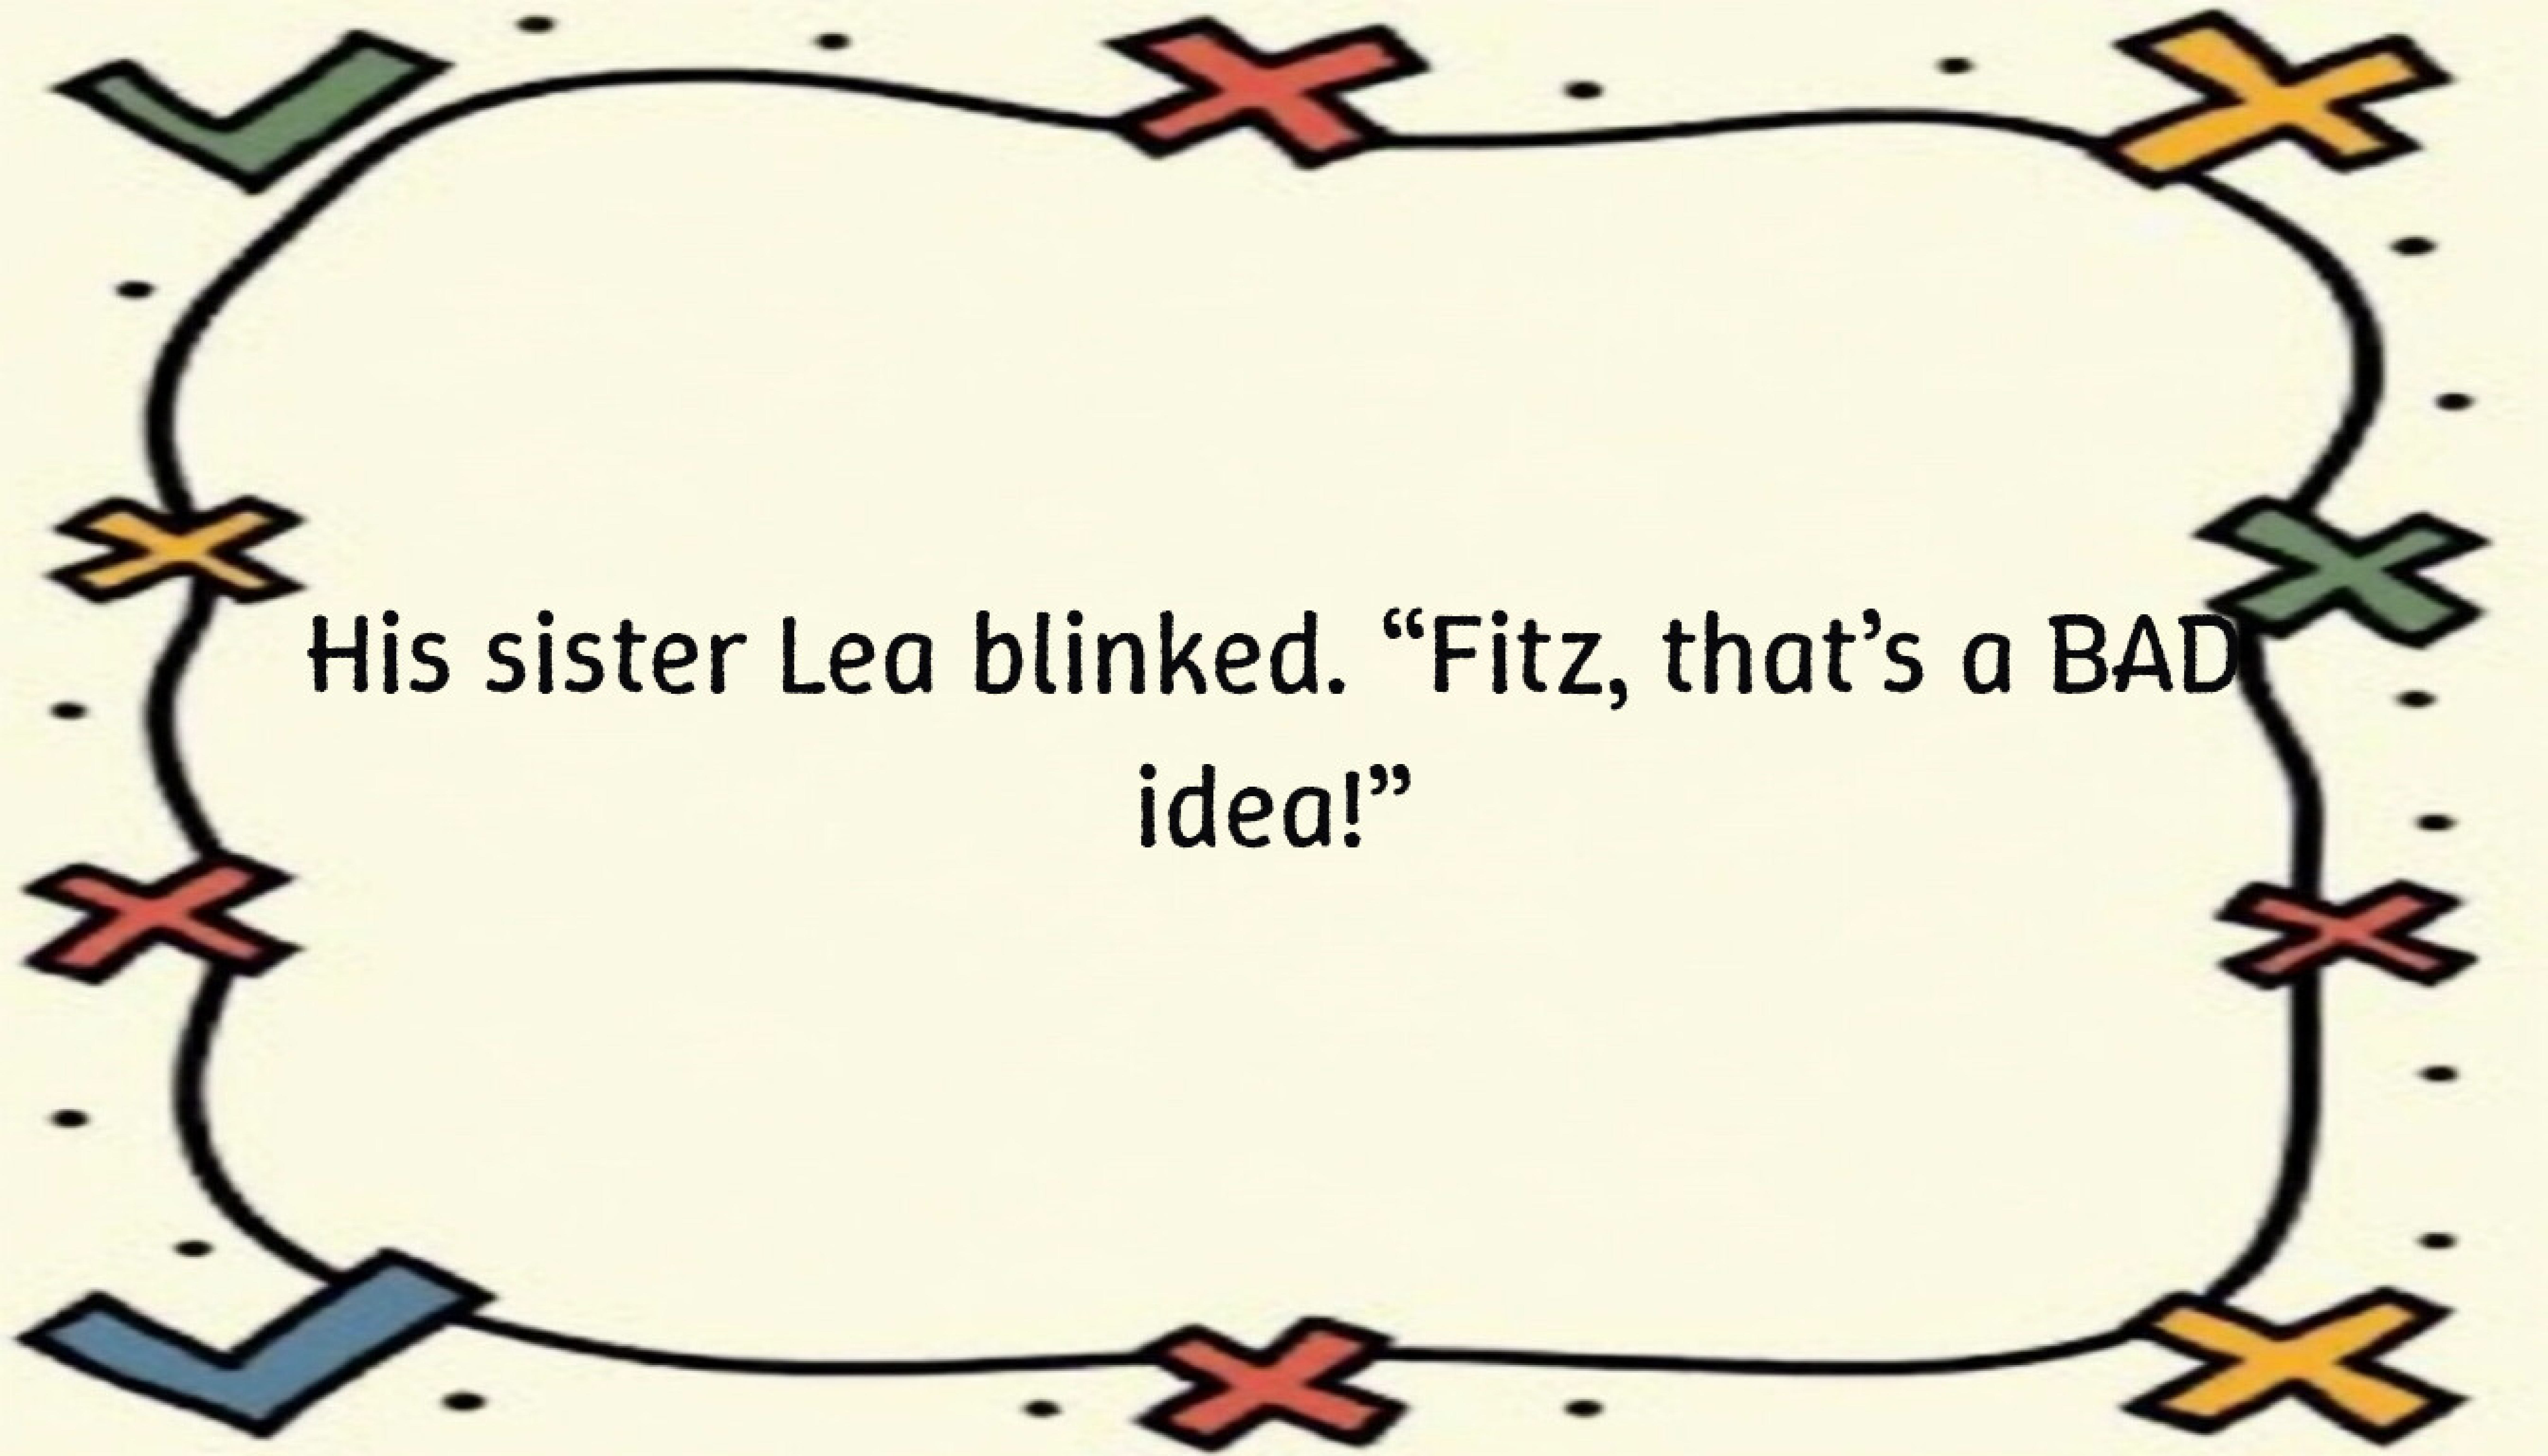

A hand-drawn circular path with a thick black outline. The path is decorated with eight markers: four 'X' marks and four checkmarks. The 'X' marks are colored red, orange, green, and red, while the checkmarks are colored green, orange, blue, and orange. The path is set against a light yellow background with small black dots.

“Let’s ride our bikes... in the living room!”

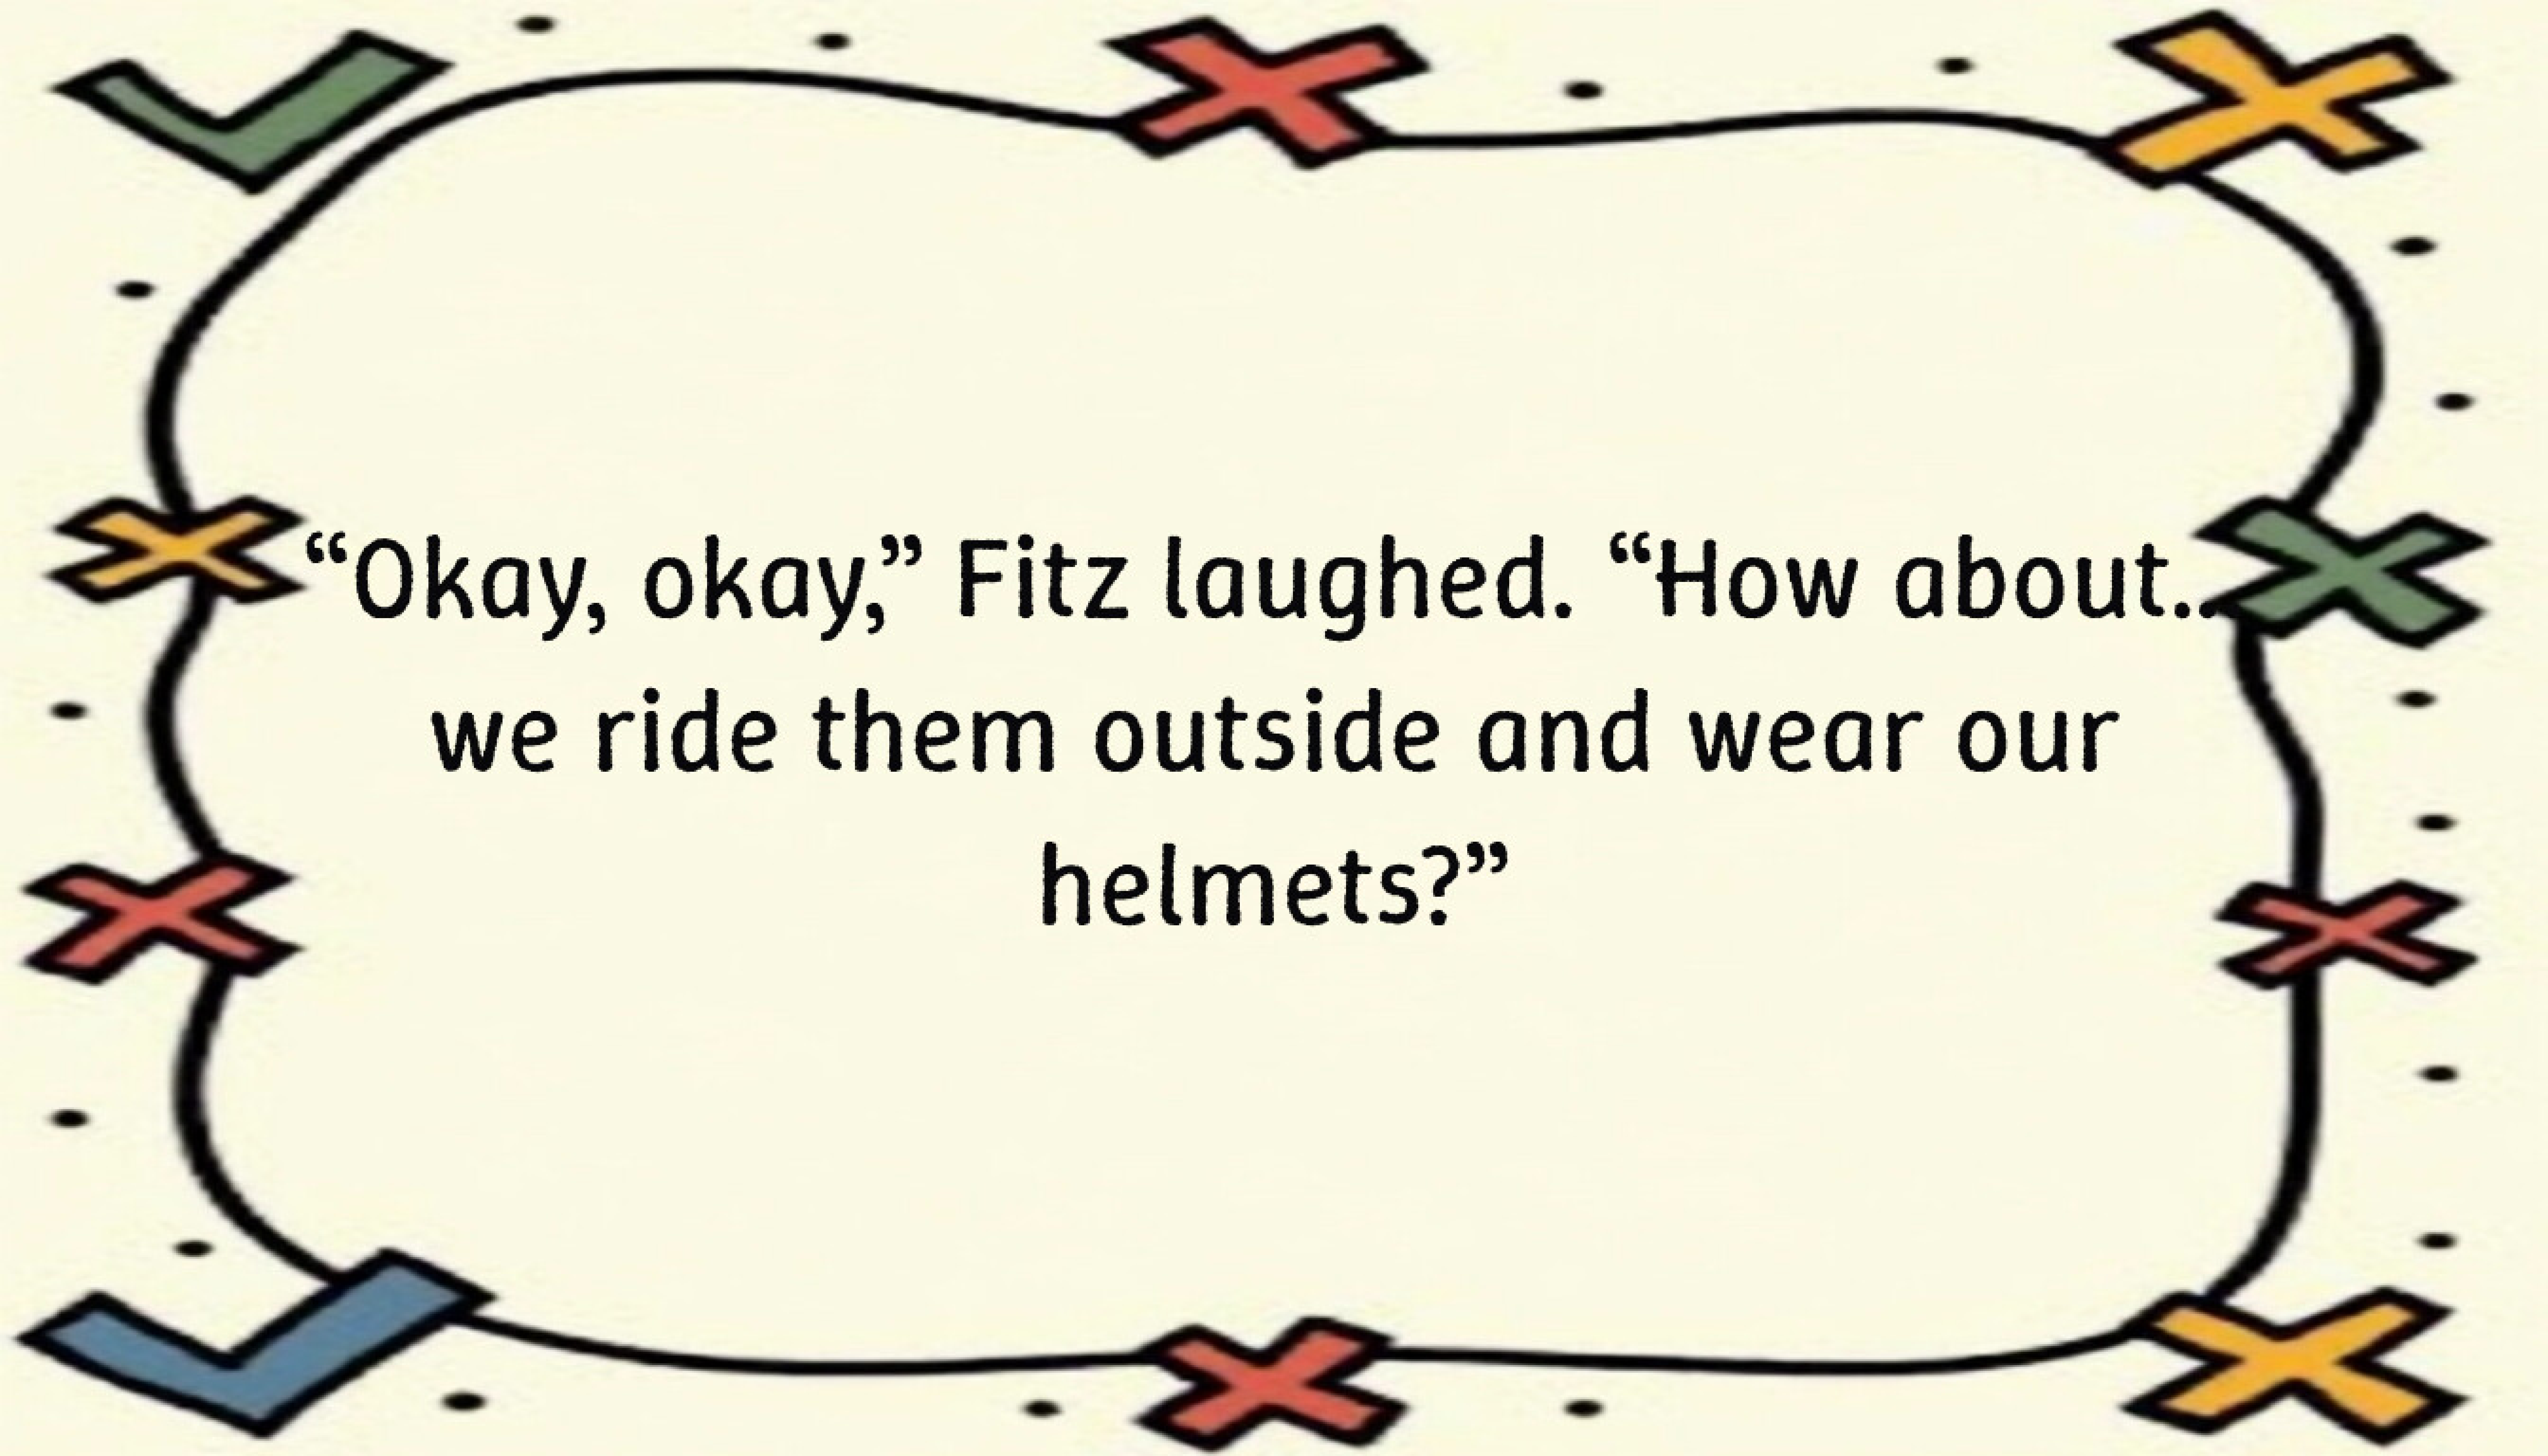

His sister Lea blinked. “Fitz, that’s a BAD idea!”

“Okay, okay,” Fitz laughed. “How about... we ride them outside and wear our helmets?”

“Now THAT’S a good idea!” said Lea.

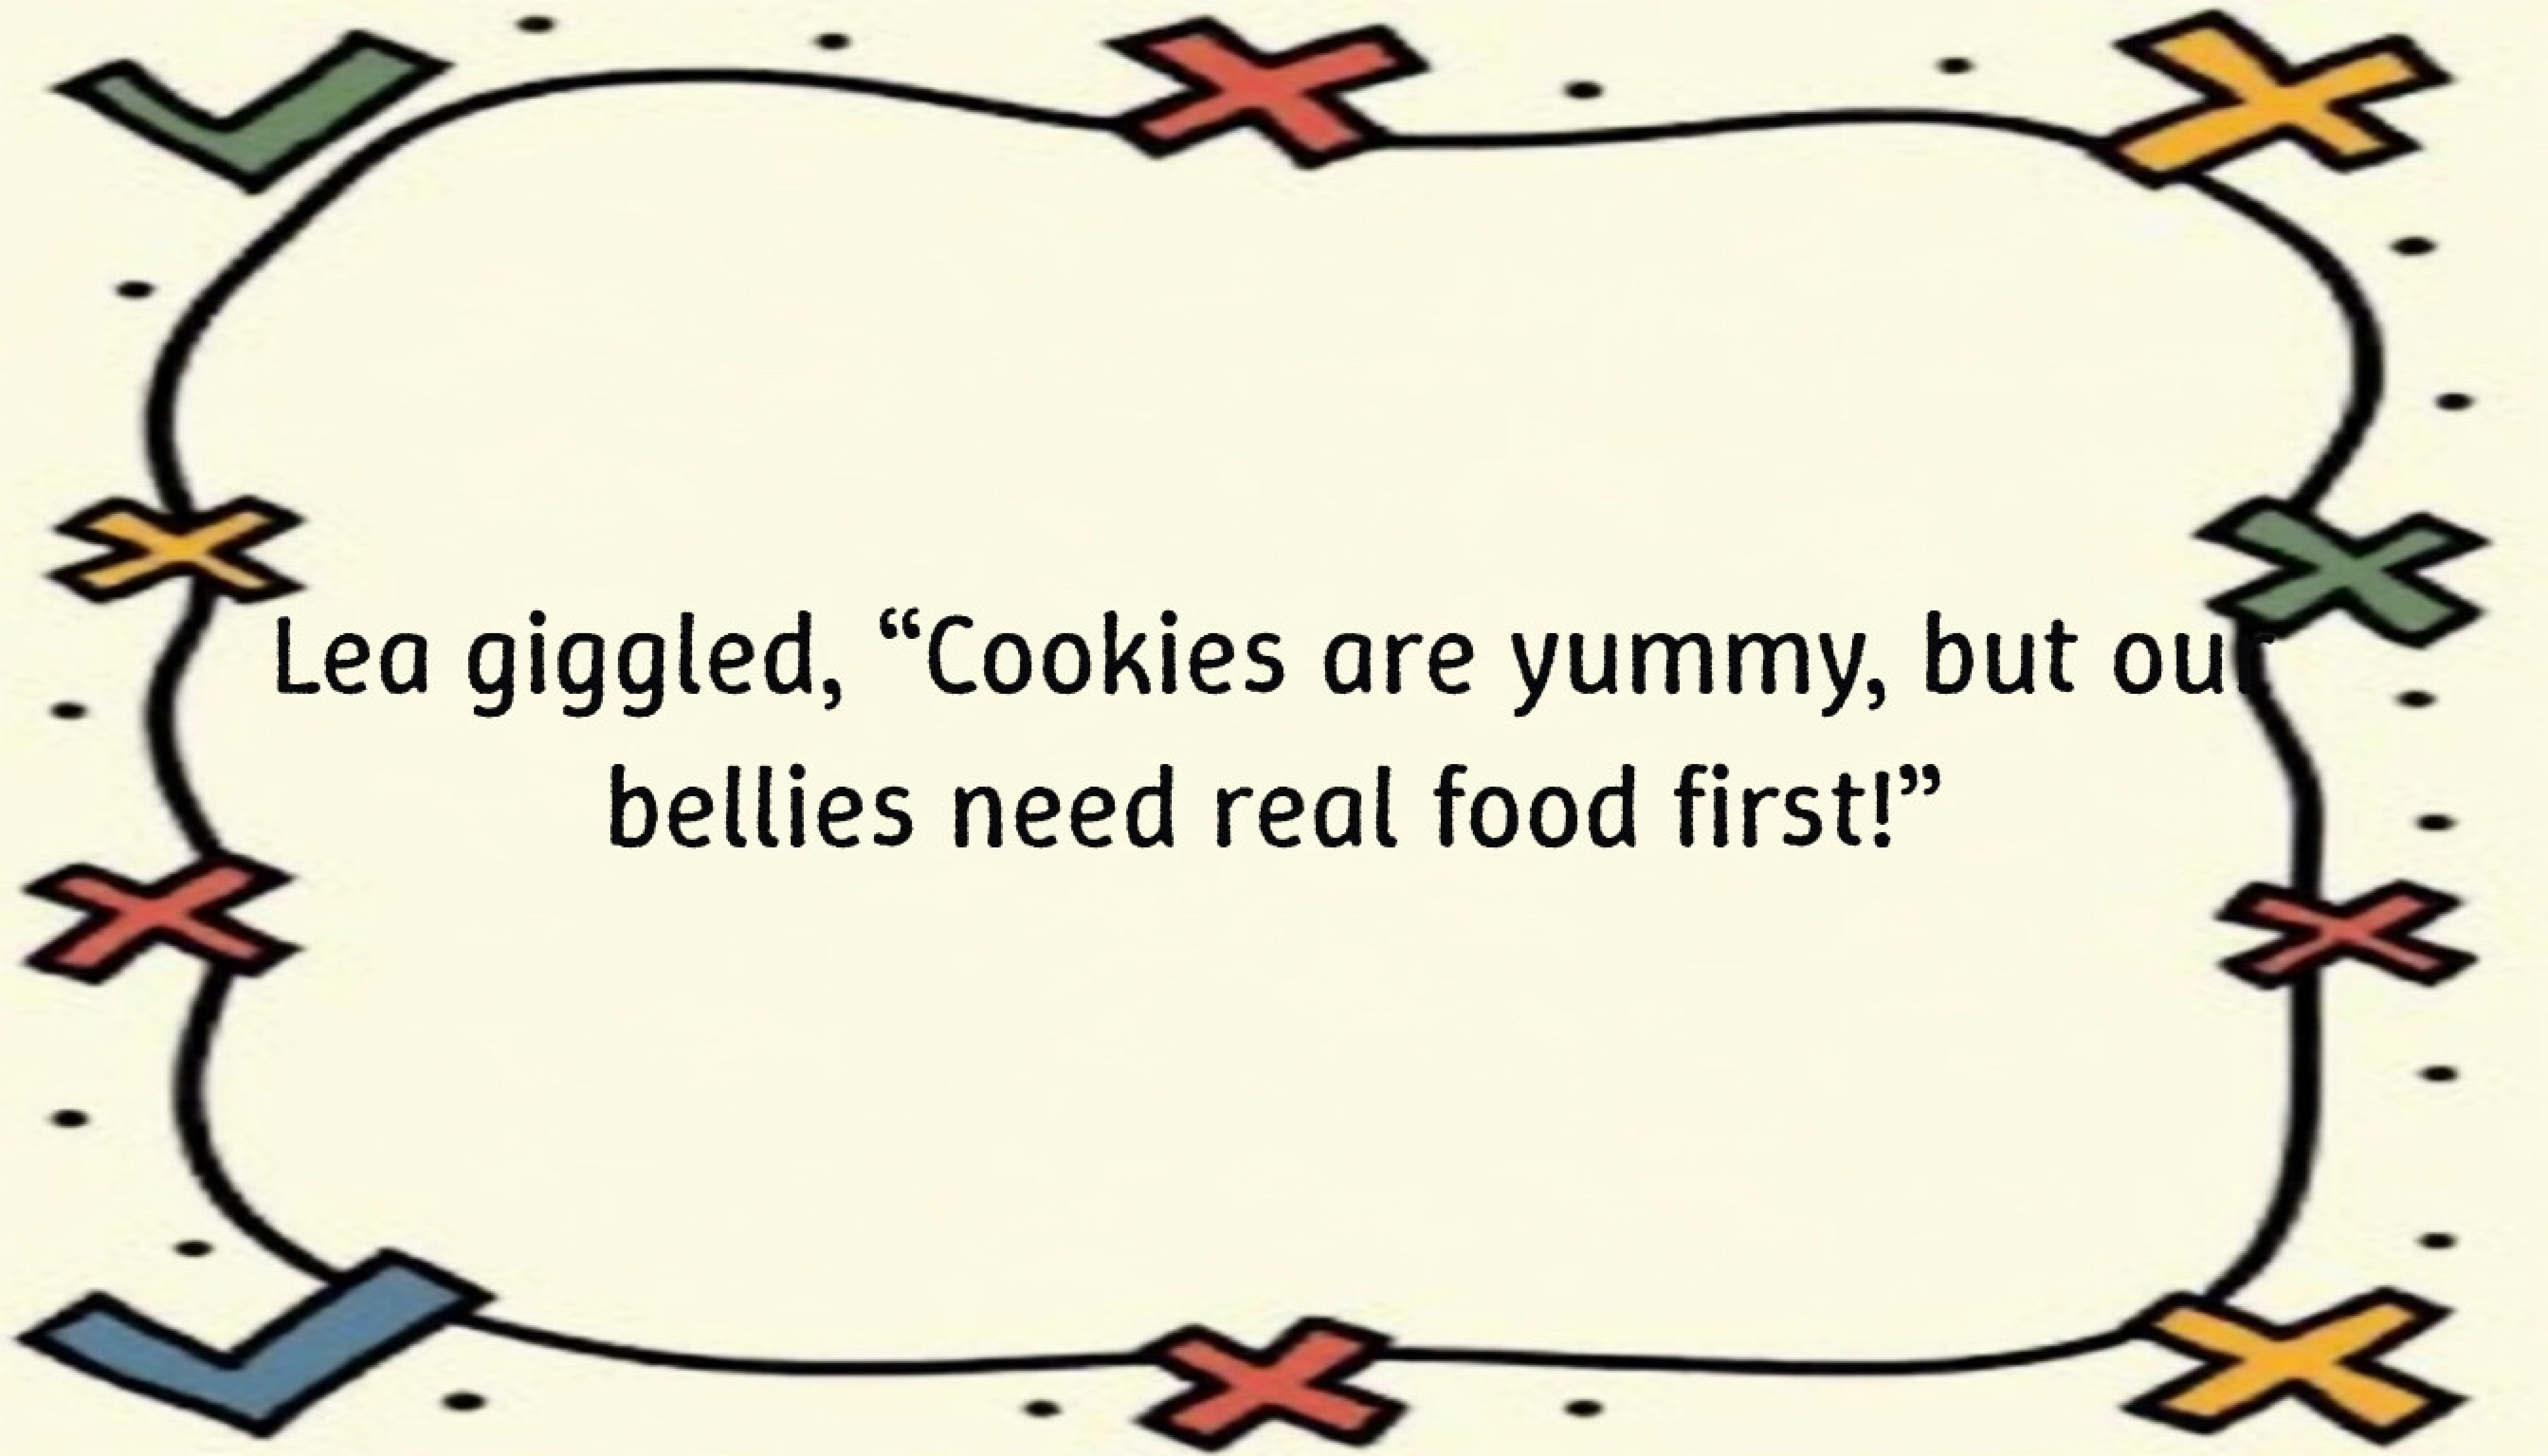

Later, Fitz said, “Let’s eat cookies for dinner!”

Lea giggled, “Cookies are yummy, but our bellies need real food first!”

So they ate spaghetti... and then had cookies. ☐☐

Good idea, Fitz!

A hand-drawn circular border with a thick black line. Along the border, there are eight symbols: a green checkmark at the top-left, a red X at the top, a yellow X at the top-right, a green X at the right, a red X at the bottom-right, a yellow X at the bottom, a blue checkmark at the bottom-left, and a red X at the left. The background is light yellow with small black dots scattered around the border.

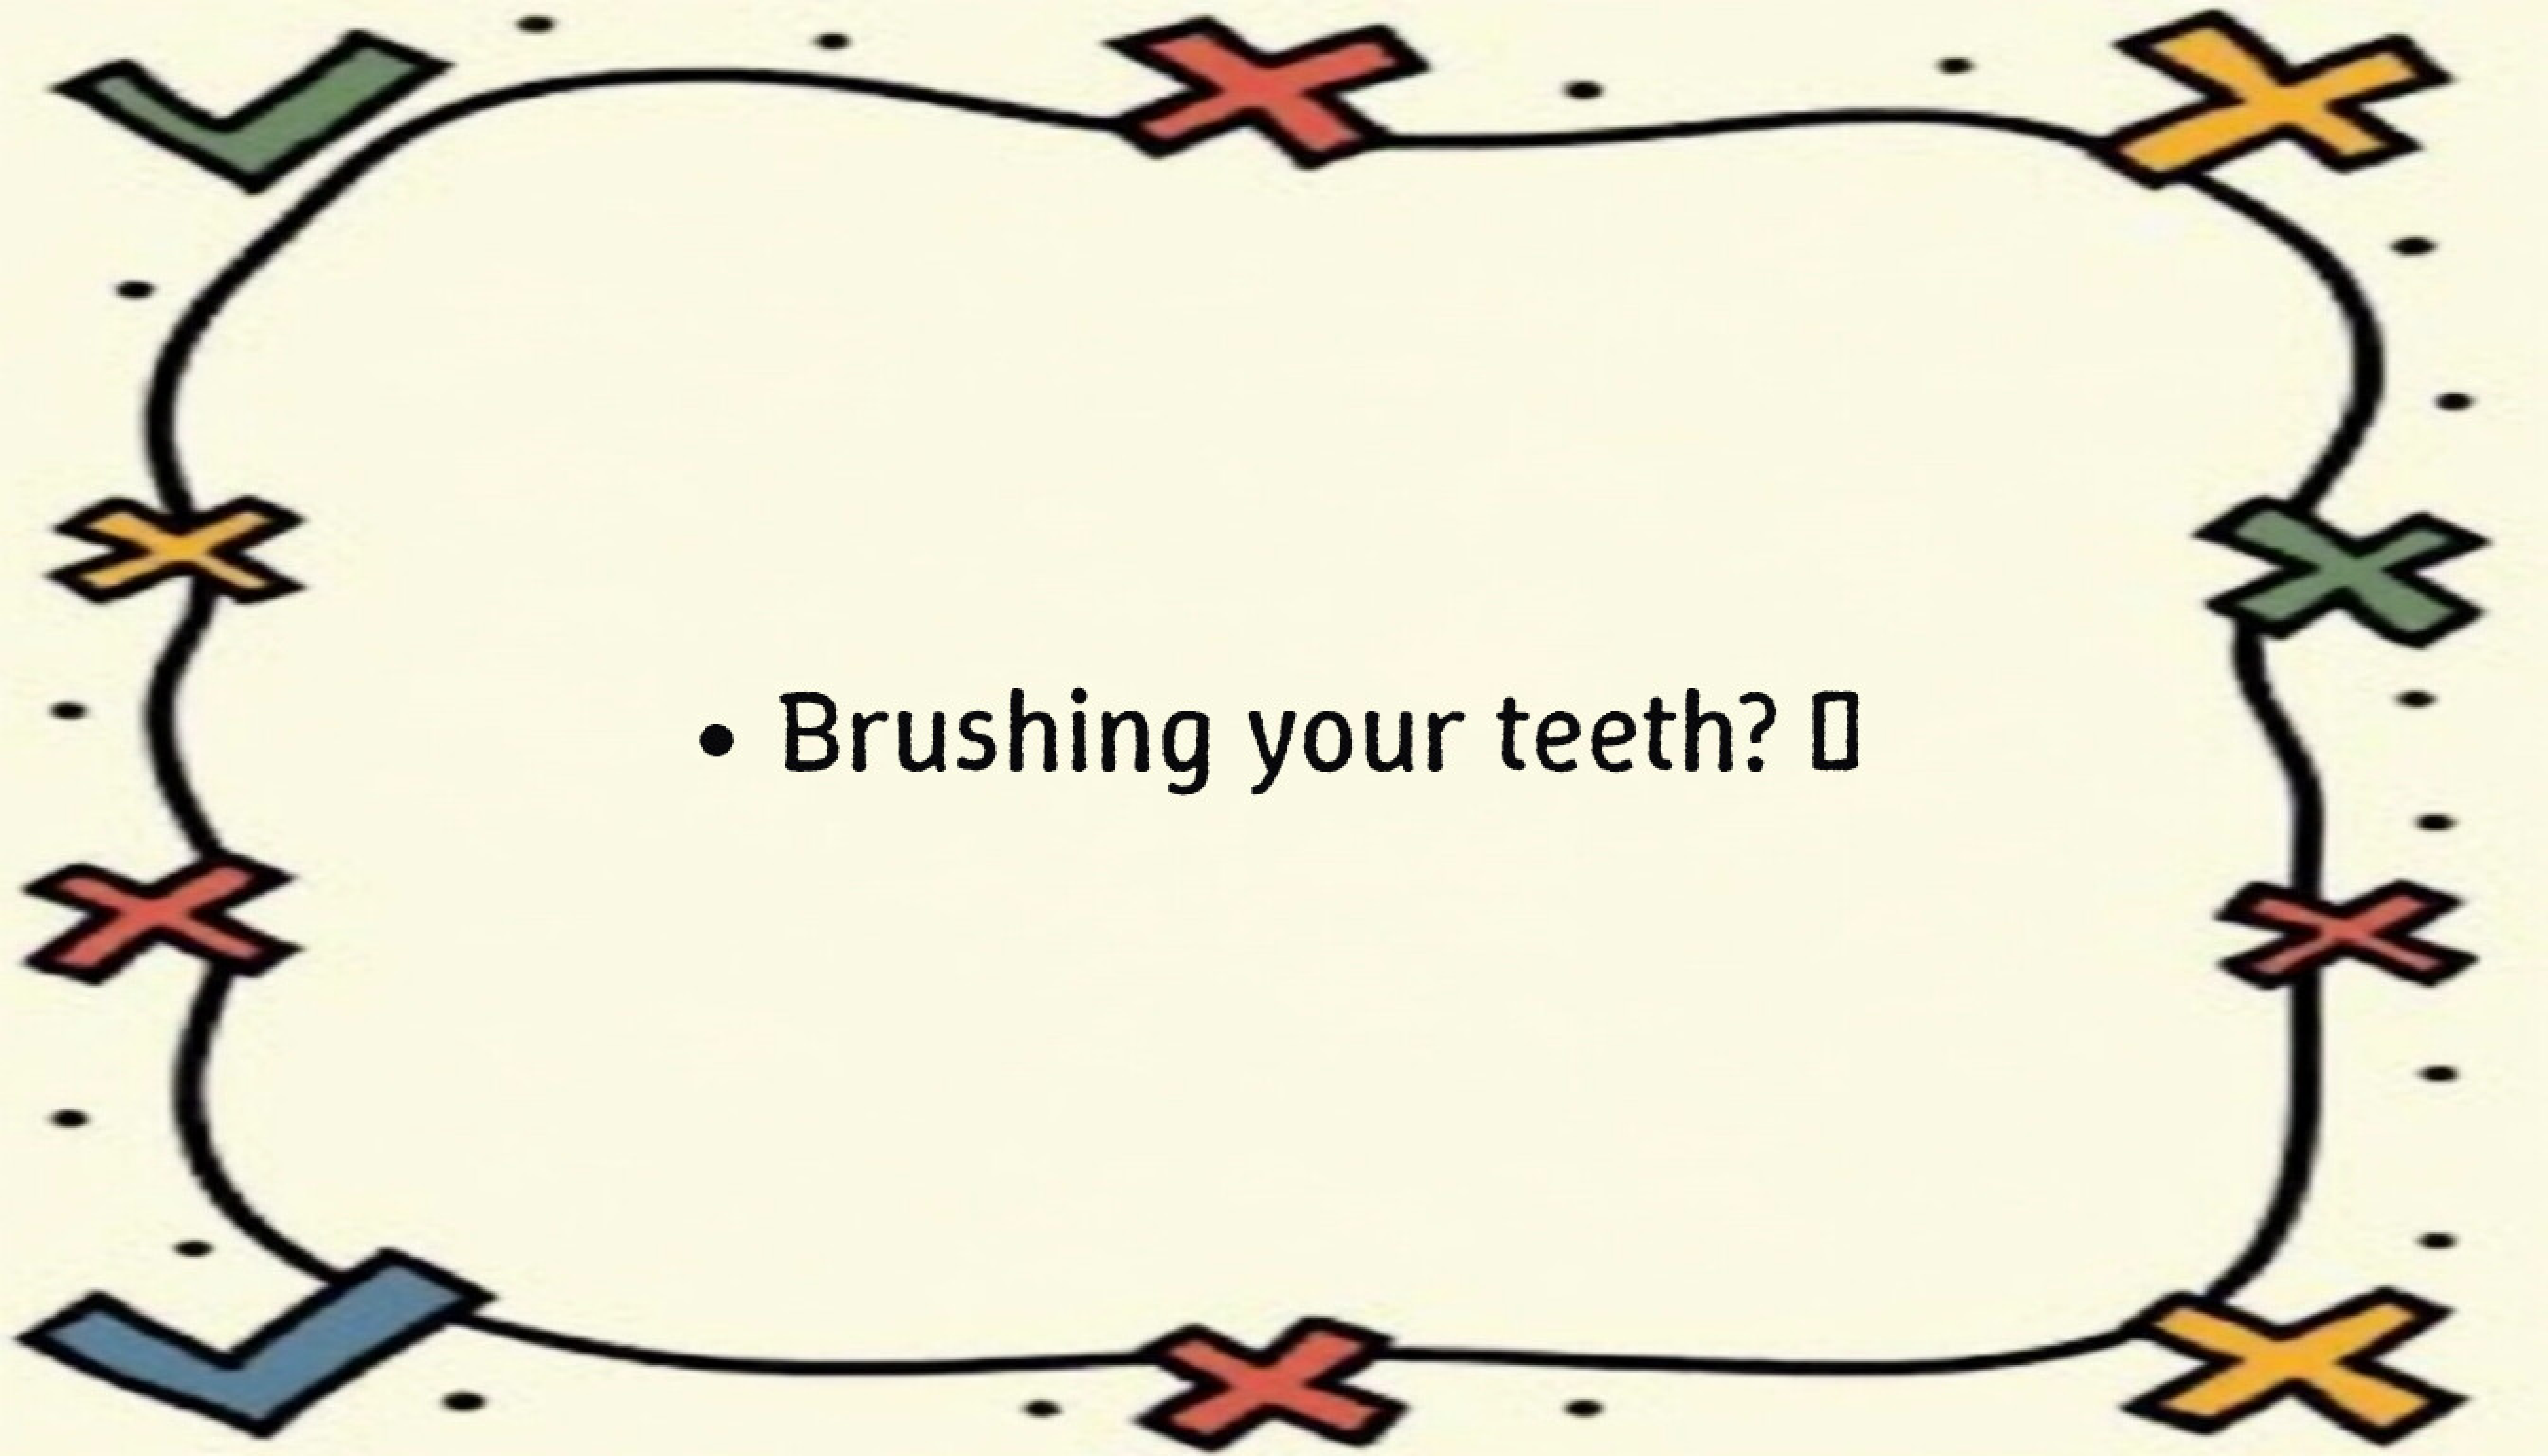

They made a game: Good Idea or Bad Idea?

- Brushing your teeth? ☐

BAD

- A hand-drawn circular border with a thick black line. Along the border, there are several 'X' marks and checkmarks in different colors: red, yellow, green, and blue. The 'X' marks are placed at regular intervals, while the checkmarks are placed at the top-left, bottom-left, and bottom-right positions. The background is a light cream color with small black dots scattered around the border.

Fitz laughed, "Okay, okay! I think I got it now!"

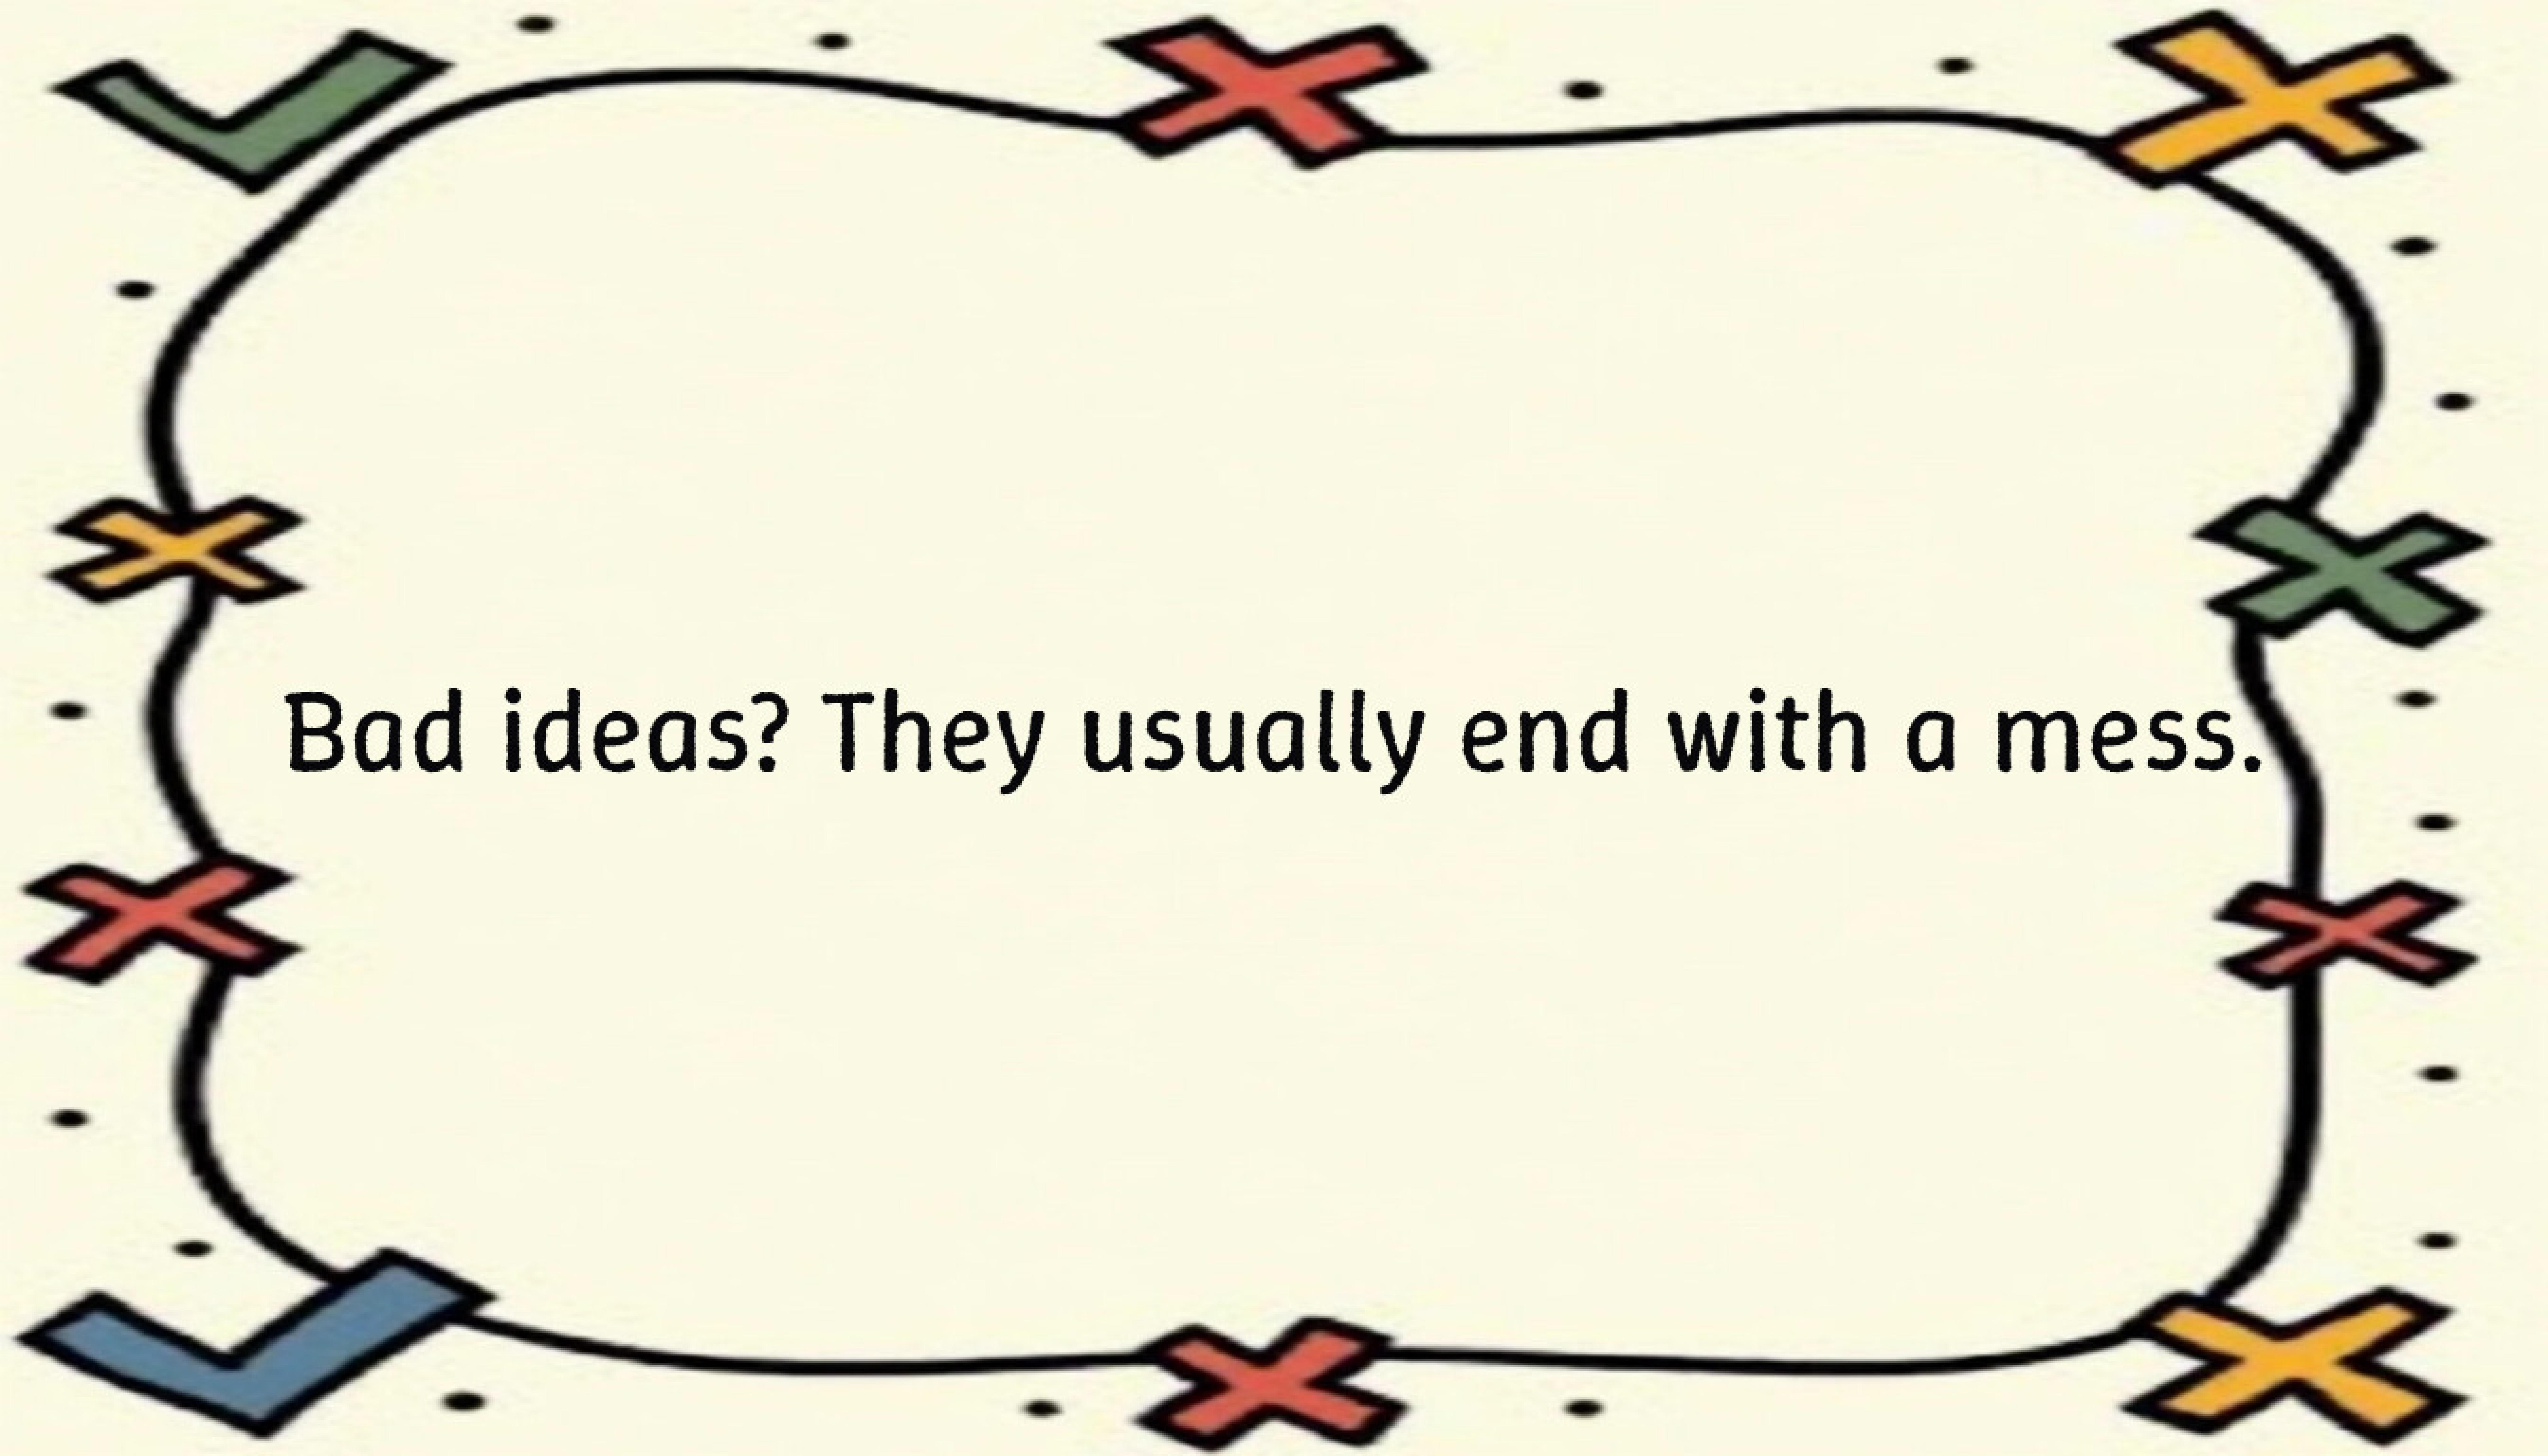

A good idea helps you or others feel safe,
happy, or healthy!

The text is centered within the circle.

Bad ideas? They usually end with a mess.

Choose the good ones — and laugh when you learn from the silly ones! 😊
