SACRAMENTS

If your student needs sacraments of baptism, first communion or confirmation:

BAPTISM:

- Parents of children through 7 years of age must apply at the church office for the Sacrament of Baptism.
- Children seven years or older needing Baptism will attend youth faith formation class with their peers AND Order of Christian Initiation for Children (OCIC). OCIC requires two years or more of catechetical training. Please discuss OCIC with the Director of Religious Education and provide a copy of the student's birth certificate.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION:

- Our Diocese requires two years of first communion preparation, normally in second and third grades.
- Children fourth grade and older who have not received First Communion will receive faith formation to learn about Reconciliation and Communion in addition to their regular class. Please contact Carol Dutchover to ensure your children receive the necessary preparation. This class will be in the spring of their second year of Youth Faith Formation. The class will meet from 5:15 – 6 pm.
- Catholic Mass attendance, class attendance, and active parent participation are required.
- First reconciliation and first communion are celebrated in April or May.

CONFIRMATION:

- Our Diocese requires two years of preparation for Confirmation.
- 7th graders will be in Confirmation 1 (C1)
- 8th graders will be in Confirmation 2 (C2)
- If your teen is 9th grade or over, under 18, and needs to be confirmed, we will place him/her in C1 if first year or C2 if second year of Confirmation instruction.
- Parent participation, Mass attendance, class attendance, retreats, and service hours are required.
- Confirmation date will be set by the Diocese of Las Cruces usually in April or May.
