

The Medical Appointment Planner

HELPING YOUR AUTISTIC CHILD FEEL PREPARED, SUPPORTED, AND UNDERSTOOD.

Ground Yourself...

- ☐ My goal is for my child to feel safe, understood, and supported
- ☐ I will advocate when needed
- ☐ Each appointment is an opportunity for practice

Pack Your Appointment Bag

- ☐ Insurance card
- ☐ Required paperwork
- ☐ Medication list
- ☐ Questions for the provider
- ☐ Comfort items of your child's choosing
- ☐ Drink and snack (for each of you)

Make the Appointment

- ☐ Choose the best time of day
- ☐ Ask someone to be a second set of ears or note-taker at the appointment
- ☐ Get paperwork ahead of time
- ☐ Review what will happen in the appointment
- ☐ Advocate for your child's sensory needs - (waiting area, masking, lighting, paper sheets)
- ☐ Share important details with the provider

At the Appointment

- ☐ Share what helps your child feel successful
 - ☐ Ask providers to explain before doing
 - ☐ Allow extra processing time
 - ☐ Ask your questions; encourage your child to ask theirs
 - ☐ Speak up if something isn't working
- Remember: You are the expert on your child.

Prepare Your Child

- ☐ Explain what will happen
- ☐ Answer questions honestly
- ☐ Look at photos or a social story
- ☐ Practice or role-play with toys

After the Appointment

- ☐ Leave time to decompress
- ☐ Skip extra errands
- ☐ Plan a calming activity
- ☐ Celebrate the progress

My Child's Appointment Profile

Things that help my child feel comfortable

Sensory trigger(s) to avoid

Communication tips for providers

Examples: • Give one direction at a time • Explain before doing • Allow for my child's pace

Important medical information

Questions I want to ask today

1.

2.

3.

Follow-up

- ☐ Schedule next appointment or referral
- ☐ Prescription(s), lab work, test result(s)
- ☐ Is any documentation needed?
(school, other providers)
- ☐ Other:

Reflect - What worked / didn't?

Progress is more important than perfection.