

TRAIN THE TRAINER WORKSHOP

Bale Grazing

FOR CONSERVATION PROFESSIONALS

Open to all SWCD, NRCS, Extension and conservation professionals who want to learn more about bale grazing to better support their producers.

WHEN
WED., NOV. 18, 2026
9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

WHERE
WADENA & BLUFFTON
Classroom + farm tour

COST
FREE
Buffet lunch included

THE DAY

Morning & lunch: Pizza Ranch
106 Jefferson St S, Wadena

- 9:00 Registration & coffee
- 9:15 Welcome & Sessions Overview
- 9:30 Bale Grazing in Minnesota
Jeff Duchene & Jace Stallman
- 10:15 What the Research Shows
Troy Salzer
- 11:00 FREE buffet lunch & table discussion
- 12:15 Farm tour: Bale grazing in practice
Steve Flanagan's farm, 36554 620th Ave, Bluffton
- 3:20 Wrap-up & evaluations

YOU'LL LEARN

- NRCS Practice 827, cost-share and technical assistance
- Nutrition, forage testing, nutrient distribution & soil health
- Winter water and fencing
- New research on the benefits of bale grazing
- Successes and challenges, straight from a producer

Before you come:

Watch the BWSR Tech Talk on NRCS Practice 827, Strategic Harvested Forage Management.

View video at: mnglca.org/bwsr-watch

REGISTER BY FRIDAY, NOV. 13

REGISTER ONLINE AT MNGLCA.ORG/SARE-BALE-GRAZING

Special thanks to
NCR-SARE & our supporters

