ST JUDE + HOLY INNOCENTS + ST ANTHONY

Serving Redmond, Duvall, Carnation and the Snoqualmie Valley

APRIL 19, 2026 | THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them,

“Peace be with you.”

But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

Then he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” Luke 24: 35-39

knightsofcolumbus@stjude-redmond.org

Dear friends in Christ,

Last Saturday at St. Peter's Basilica, our Holy Father Pope Leo led a rosary for peace. The Holy Father has been prompting us most urgently to pray for this most precious gift. Pope Leo stands in a long line of popes, who have, in times of war, called the leaders of peoples and nations to work for peace with justice. At that gathering, he offered these words for our reflection:

Your prayer is an expression of that faith which, according to the words of Jesus, moves mountains (cf. Mt 17:20). Thank you for accepting this invitation to gather here at the tomb of Saint Peter and in so many other places around the world to pray for peace. War divides; hope unites. Arrogance tramples upon others; love lifts up. Idolatry blinds us; the living God enlightens. My dearest friends, all it takes is a little faith, a mere "crumb" of faith, in order to face this dramatic hour in history together — as humanity and alongside humanity.

Prayer is not a refuge in which to hide from our responsibilities, nor an anesthetic to numb the pain provoked by so much injustice. Rather, it is the most selfless, universal and transformative response to death: we are a people who are already risen! Within each of us, within every human being, the interior Teacher teaches peace, urges us toward encounter and inspires us to make supplication. Let us rise from the rubble! Nothing can confine us to a predetermined fate, not even in this world where there never seem to be enough graves, for people continue to crucify one another and eliminate life, with no regard to justice and mercy.

In the context of the 2003 Iraq war crisis, Saint John Paul II, a tireless advocate for peace, said with deep emotion: "I belong to that generation that lived through World War II and, thanks be to God, survived it. I have the duty to say to all young people, to those who are younger than I, who have not had this experience: "No more war" as Paul VI said during his first visit to the United Nations. We must do everything possible. We know well that peace is not possible at any price. But we all know how great is this responsibility" (Angelus, 16 March 2003)....

Prayer teaches us how to act. In prayer, our limited human possibilities are joined to the infinite possibilities of God. Thoughts, words and deeds then break the demonic cycle of evil and are placed at the service of the Kingdom of God. A Kingdom in which there is no sword, no drone, no vengeance, no trivialization of evil, no unjust profit, but only dignity, understanding and forgiveness. It is here that we find a bulwark against that delusion of omnipotence that surrounds us and is becoming increasingly unpredictable and aggressive. The balance within the human family has been severely destabilized. Even the holy Name of God, the God of life, is being dragged into discourses of death. A world of brothers and sisters with one heavenly Father vanishes, as in a nightmare, giving way to a reality populated by enemies. We are met by threats, rather than the invitation to listen and to come together. Brothers and sisters, those who pray are aware of their own limitations; they do not kill or threaten with death. Instead, death enslaves those who have turned their backs on the living God, turning themselves and their own power into a mute, blind and deaf idol (cf. Ps 115:4–8), to which they sacrifice every value, demanding that the whole world bend its knee. Enough of the idolatry of self and money! Enough of the display of power! Enough of war! True strength is shown in serving life. With evangelical simplicity, Saint John XXIII once wrote: "The benefits of peace will be felt everywhere, by individuals, by families, by nations, by the whole human race." And echoing the incisive words of Pius XII, he added: "Nothing is lost by peace; everything may be lost by war" (Encyclical Letter Pacem in Terris, 116). Let us, therefore, unite the moral and spiritual strength of the millions and billions of men and women, young and old, who today choose to believe in peace, caring for the wounds and repairing the damage left behind by the madness of war. I receive countless letters from children in areas of conflict. In reading them, one perceives, through the lens of innocence, all the horror and inhumanity of actions that some adults boast of with pride. Let us listen to the voices of children!

Dear brothers and sisters, there are certainly binding responsibilities that fall to the leaders of nations. To them we cry out: Stop! It is time for peace! Sit at the table of dialogue and mediation, not at the table where rearmament is planned and deadly actions are decided! Yet there is a no less significant responsibility that falls to all of us — men and women from all over the world. We are an immense multitude that rejects war not only in word, but also in deed.

Prayer calls us to leave behind whatever violence remains in our hearts and minds. Let us turn to a Kingdom of peace that is built up day by day — in our homes, schools, neighborhoods, and civil and religious communities. A Kingdom that counters polemics and resignation through friendship and a culture of encounter. Let us believe once again in love, moderation and good politics. We must form ourselves and get personally involved, each following our own calling. Everyone has a place in the mosaic of peace! The Rosary, like other ancient forms of prayer, has united us this evening in its steady rhythm built on repetition. Peace gains ground in the same way: word by word, deed by deed, just as a rock is hollowed out drop by drop, or fabric woven stitch by stitch. These are the slow rhythms of life, a sign of God's patience. Dear brothers and sisters, let us return home having made a commitment to pray without ceasing and without growing weary, a commitment to a profound conversion of heart. The Church is a great people at the service of reconciliation and peace.... Brothers and sisters of every language, people and nation: we are one family that weeps, hopes and rises again. "No more war, a journey with no return; no more war, a vicious cycle of grief and violence," (Saint John Paul II, Prayer for Peace, 2 February 1991).

Dear friends, peace be with you all! It is the peace of the Risen Christ, the fruit of his sacrifice of love on the cross....
POPE LEO

Blessings on your week!
Fr Johnson

CATHOLIC LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS NEEDED FOR ASCEND SECURITY SUPPORT

Are you a Catholic law enforcement officer who may be willing to assist with security support for the upcoming ASCEND Eucharistic Revival on May 16, 2026 in Bellevue?

ASCEND is expected to welcome thousands of attendees from across the region for a day of prayer, worship, formation, and fellowship. We are seeking Catholic law enforcement officers who may be interested in serving in a volunteer security role during a portion of the event.

Volunteers will still be able to participate in and enjoy much of the event with their families while offering this important support. For security reasons, details regarding volunteer responsibilities and timing will be shared privately with those who inquire.

If you are interested in learning more, please contact Mark Sizemore at childfamilyministry@saintbrendan.org

COFFEE & DONUTS MINISTRY

Coffee & Donuts Volunteers Needed!

Our Sunday Coffee & Donuts fellowship is such a special part of parish life. It is a chance to connect, welcome one another, and build community after Mass.

We have a few weeks until we take a break and would love to finish the season strong with a full team of volunteers. Help is needed with picking up donuts, setting up, serving, and cleaning up after the Sunday Masses.

If you would like to join this ministry, we would be so grateful for your support. It is a simple but meaningful way to serve and bring people together.

CAPS OFF TO YOU GRADUATES!

A dedicated student leader at Redmond High School with a 3.95 GPA, Mary Angelici leads a life grounded in family, faith, and a deep love for theater. She has been a unifying presence both at St. Jude and in her school, consistently working to ensure that every voice is valued. Her commitment to social justice and her desire to build inclusive, compassionate communities reflect the values we cherish as a parish. We are proud to support Mary as she continues her education at Gonzaga University.

Samantha Kujath is a young woman whose journey reflects the power of courage and service. She maintains a 3.94 GPA at Redmond High School while taking college level courses. Formed by the values of a Catholic education, she discovered her confidence through volunteer work teaching equestrian programs and guiding younger children. The St. Jude community that has supported her family for generations is now the one she joyfully serves through Knights of Columbus events and parish ministries. We are honored to support Sammy as she begins her studies at Western Washington University.

Tiegan Lang is a trusted leader and role model for youth at St. Jude and in her school community, where she is deeply passionate about giving back. A 3.953 GPA student at Redmond High School, she brings her love of theater and jujitsu into her leadership, helping fellow students feel supported. She believes that strong communities are built through genuine connections, a conviction she lives out in her daily interactions. Tiegan plans to pursue a college education in entrepreneurship, attending Bellevue College with online courses at Harvard Business School.

Sebastian Miadowicz consistently steps forward to serve with patience and empathy. A longtime altar server and usher at St. Jude, he pairs his commitment to faith with academic excellence, maintaining a 3.97 GPA at Redmond High School. As a respected student-athlete and a volunteer at a local food bank, he leads by empowering others. His resilience, shaped by personal loss, has formed him into a compassionate young man. Sebastian plans to study Chemical Engineering at UC Davis or the University of Washington.

Congratulations to Mary, Sammy, Tiegan and Sebastian

Come meet our winners and their families at our awards ceremony on Sunday, April 26th during the Knights of Columbus breakfast after the 9:00AM mass
