

ST JUDE CATHOLIC CHURCH

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing was white as snow. The guards were shaken with fear of him and became like dead men. Then the angel said to the women in reply, "Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said." ST. MATTHEW

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

knightsofcolumbus@stjude-redmond.org

Dear Friends in Christ,

These past three days, we walked with the Lord Jesus as he went up to Jerusalem to suffer and die for us. With the women in St. Matthew's Gospel, we sat facing the tomb waiting and hoping in the Lord. This Easter morning, we went with Mary Magdalene and the other Mary and saw the angel roll away the stone and tell the good news:

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead.'"

Because of this event, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, along with the disciples, became urgent and insistent messengers of the resurrection and new life offered by the Lord Jesus. We are all called to be the same; courageous messengers, fools for Christ for what we have seen and believed. I want to ask you as you go forth today, to share your faith, to let it transform and reorder your priorities, to let it change your life. The resurrection of Christ changed the world. It has changed us. It is Good News too joyous to keep inside.

At the Easter Vigil we joyfully welcomed a great number of new members into the Church and conferred the Easter Sacraments. Please join me in congratulating them and praying for them. What a blessings they are to our Church!

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. — Jn 20:6-8

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The disciples didn't understand, at first, what happened at the tomb. Often, we can't fathom the purpose of God's plan. We only see a stone in the wrong place. When we pause and look deeper, we see it: God has moved the stone. So, we must ask ourselves: why?
