KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

knightsofcolumbus@stjude-redmond.org

We have great reasons to celebrate in these days of Christmas!

At Duvall, this Sunday we observe the patronal Feast of the Holy Innocents

This Sunday is December 28, the patronal Feast of the Holy Innocents in Duvall. It will take the place of the Feast of the Holy Family at Duvall. The feast recalls the children who died at the hands of King Herod, because of his fear and jealousy of Christ, the infant King of the Jews, king of kings, and prince of peace. The Holy Innocents are also called the proto-martyrs, because they died for Christ before He suffered, died, and rose for us. We rejoice that today, by God's grace, they share in His victory over death and the new life Christ won for us. Let us ask these Holy Martyrs to continue to intercede for us and let us thank God for their watchful care over Holy Innocents Church.

The Feast of Holy Family is Sunday for St. Jude and St. Anthony

For the universal Church and the rest of our family, Sunday is the Feast of the Holy Family and Thursday is the Octave Day of Christmas (the eighth day of Christmas), and on it we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. This celebration reminds us that Jesus, Mary and Joseph give us an example of what is to be a 'holy family.' Pope Francis reflected on the mystery of the Holy Family some years ago:

The message that comes from the Holy Family is first of all a message of faith. In the family life of Mary and Joseph, God is truly at the center, and He is so in the Person of Jesus. This is why the Family of Nazareth is holy. Why? Because it is centered on Jesus.

When parents and children together breathe in this climate of faith, they have an energy that allows them to face even difficult trials, as the experience of the Holy Family shows, for example, in the dramatic event of their flight to Egypt: a difficult ordeal.

The Baby Jesus with his Mother Mary and with St. Joseph are a simple but so luminous icon of the family. The light it casts is the light of mercy and salvation for all the world, the light of truth for every man, for the human family and for individual families. This light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth in those family situations in which, for various reasons, peace is lacking, harmony is lacking, and forgiveness is lacking. May our concrete solidarity not diminish especially with regard to the families who are experiencing more difficult situations due to illness, unemployment, discrimination, the need to emigrate.... Let us pause here for a moment and pray in silence for all these families in difficulty, whether due to problems of illness, unemployment, discrimination, need to emigrate, due to difficulty in understanding each other and also to disunion. Let us pray in silence for all these families.

-POPE FRANCIS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 1 IS THE SOLEMNITY OF MARY MOTHER OF GOD.

On Thursday, we celebrate the Holy Day of Mary Mother of God. Let us gather to give thanks to God for the blessing of the New Year and ask the Mother of God to help us grow in discipleship. It is also the World Day of Prayer for Peace. How urgently and fervently do we need to pray for peace in these days!

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who made our Christmas celebrations especially joyful this year. I want to take this opportunity to thank the many, many people who worked so hard to prepare our liturgies. Many thanks to all who decorated, cleaned, prepared, helped, and did a marvelous job making the Church look so beautiful for Christmas. Thank you to all the musicians who sang and played on Christmas. What wonderful praise of God was given! Thank you! Finally, I am grateful to Fr. Raphael, the wonderful staff of our parishes, our lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, servers, ushers, and especially all of our great music ministers. I so appreciate your selfless dedication and willingness to serve. I know many changed their plans to help out at particular Masses. Thank you for your generous service. That is what life is all about: giving of our selves in service to one another in gratitude to the One who gives his life for us, in love, and in service.

Finally, Fr. Raphael and I want to thank all of you who were so kind over the holidays. We cannot thank you enough for the cards, delicious treats, and generous gifts you sent us. We will certainly remember you in our prayers. We are so grateful for your thoughtfulness.

May God bless all of you for your generosity and love of the Lord!

Prayer to the Holy Family

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love, to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches. Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division: may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing. Holy Family of Nazareth, may the Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer."

Beware of Scams this Season

With it being Advent and Christmas time, we are seeing an increase in phishing emails and other scams aimed at targeting those with the giving hearts of the season. This is a reminder that Fr. Johnson, Fr. Raphael, or any parish staff will not individually email or text with gift or donation requests.

Be vigilant and double check any suspicious communications before responding to them.

CELEBRATING ADVENT AT ST. JUDE

As we joyfully enter into the Christmas season, we are grateful to God and to our parish community for a very busy, fruitful, and blessings-filled Advent!

St. Jude Christmas Giving Tree Our St. Jude family has shown overwhelming generosity: we had almost 900 tags on our trees and every tag was taken! We received over $20,000 in gift cards along with gifts for our 12 organizations that we will donate to this year. Thank you to Grace Sowder, all the volunteers who made this possible, and a very special thanks to YOU, who fulfilled these gifts!

Nativity Display

Thank you to all who helped display nativities in the Narthex!

Faith Formation Our Faith Formation children have had a wonderful Advent! Some highlights include learning and singing Christmas carols, making Advent crafts, and most recently, filling up their "Christmas passports" by "traveling" to 8 different countries experiencing Christmas traditions, foods, activities, and sights from all around the world! Thank you to all who volunteered and helped make the evening so special!

International Breakfast A big thank you from the Knights of Columbus for making Breakfast with Santa a big success! We are grateful to all who prepared the international dishes, all the volunteers who helped, and the choir that gifted us with their lovely voices. What a great way to celebrate and build up our parish community!

Catholic Schoolhouse

Advent Showcase The Catholic Schoolhouse homeschooling group showcase was a joyful celebration of the children's hard work and efforts! Scholars showcased their progress with beautiful sung performances, skits, music, poetry and history recitations. CSH is deeply grateful to be hosted by St. Jude whose support allows us to meet and grow together.

MINISTRY NEWS

St Vincent de Paul Ministry

As the year ends, we reflect on the many gifts we have been given. We want to thank our parish and parishioners for their generosity over the last year. We have been truly blessed by your monetary, Christmas Giving Tree, and furniture or household goods donations. These gifts help us provide hope for the neighbors we serve.

blessed

Thank you for your prayers, which make a positive impact on our ministry. We experience miracles as a result. It doesn't seem possible that we can fulfill some requests, but we can feel Him guiding us when we hit a roadblock.

All year long we have been sharing stories of our experiences with people we served and what it's like to be a Vincentian. Here's a quick recap of our progress: through November, we received over 850 requests for assistance. We spent $48,000 primarily on rent and utilities. Additionally, we distributed $13,000 of donated items, including food/gas from donated gift cards, donated furniture and household goods, and clothing from KidVantage. Those we help include single parent families, minorities, immigrants, victims of domestic violence, disabled individuals, homeless people, and the unemployed or underemployed.

We wish you many blessings this Christmas Season. And again, we thank you!

You can donate to St Vincent de Paul online using the QR code and clicking fund 118-St Vincent de Paul. If you are interested in joining our team of Vincentians, please contact Diane Murphy via email:

St. Jude Year-End Giving Reminder

"The starting point of stewardship is recognizing that everything we have, everything that we are is by God's initiative-by God's grace." Archbishop Etienne on the spirituality of stewardship

This is the time of year when most people give and receive. We thank you for your generosity and good stewardship to St Jude as we continue the mission of Jesus Christ. As you search for the perfect gift for loved ones, remember that a year-end charitable gift in their name is deeply appreciated.

Our sincerest THANKS to you — for your generosity, good stewardship and financial support of the parish throughout the year! And if God has especially blessed you financially in 2025, please consider a special year-end gift to our parish.

Blessings, Fr. Johnson

YOUR GIFT MAKES A DIFFERENCE:

- In our children's Faith Formation
- To the people we serve in our community (Safe Parkers, St. Vincent de Paul, etc)
- In our facilities
- In advancing the mission of the Church

Please Note:
to qualify as a 2025 contribution, donations to the parish must be received in the parish office or postmarked by or before December 31

Ways to Give Beyond Cash

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION (QCD)

A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. A QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. QCDs don't require that you itemize, which due to recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

IRA

By utilizing an IRA for charitable giving, you can satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) obligations starting at age 73, while also supporting a cause you care about. The donated amount is excluded from your taxable income, which can provide a tax advantage, especially if you do not itemize deductions.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS (DAF)

A DAF is like a charitable investment account for the sole purpose of supporting charitable organizations. When you contribute cash, securities or other assets to a donor advised fund, you are generally eligible to take an immediate tax deduction. Funds are disbursed at your discretion.

Remember us in your will or trust.

What comes after Christmas day? More Christmas!

December 25–January 11

When the secular world moves on after Christmas day, let's keep our lights on and candles lit while celebrate the joy of Christ's birth and his gift to all of us. The Christmas season lasts 18 days and is filled with beautiful feasts and solemnities, including the Feast of the Holy Family, Solemnity of Mary and Epiphany.

Ways to keep celebrating Christmas all season long:

- Come to Mass on the 7 feasts of solemnities of Christmas this year
- Keep the Christmas carols playing, especially those that focus on the birth of our savior
- Keep the creche out, tree up and lights lit until Epiphany
- Plan a 12th Night or Epiphany celebration with your family or friends
- Spend time in prayer in front of the creche at your parish

Go to archseattle.org/Christmas for all the feasts and solemnities of Christmas and more ways to celebrate the peace and joy of Christmas all season long.

YOU ARE NOT ALONE

A NATIONAL CATHOLIC INITIATIVE FOR MIGRANTS AND THEIR FAMILIES

You Are Not Alone is a national initiative of the Catholic Church offering hope, compassion, and practical support to immigrants across the United States. Rooted in the belief that every person is created in God's image, we provide resources and information through four pillars: legal-rights education, emergency assistance, pastoral care, and accompaniment during times of crisis—so that nobody has to face a time of such uncertainty alone.

Through parishes, ministries, Catholic Charities, and community partners, people of faith stand in solidarity with immigrant families through prayer, public witness, and direct support. Everyone is invited to get involved—join the movement, take the Cabrini Pledge, or reach out directly for more information at notalone@usccb.org.
