KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

knightsofcolumbus@stjude-redmond.org

Dear friends in Christ,

During these beautiful weeks of Summer, I want to invite us to get to know our new Pope, Pope Leo XIV. Over these weeks, while I am away on vacation. I am sharing some excerpts from homilies which he has given over the last number of weeks. Today, I offer some portions of his homily for the Jubilee of Families, Children, Grandparents and the Elderly given on the 7th Sunday of Easter:

*Dear brothers and sisters,
The Gospel we have just heard shows us Jesus, at the Last Supper, praying on our behalf (cf. Jn 17:20). The Word of God, made man, as he nears the end of his earthly life, thinks of us, his brothers and sisters, and becomes a blessing, a prayer of petition and praise to the Father, in the power of the Holy Spirit. As we ourselves, full of wonder and trust, enter into Jesus' prayer, we become, thanks to his love, part of a great plan that concerns all of humanity.*

Christ prays that we may "all be one" (v. 21). This is the greatest good that we can desire, for this universal union brings about among his creatures the eternal communion of love that is God himself: the Father who gives life, the Son who receives it and the Spirit who shares it.

The Lord does not want us, in this unity, to be a nameless and faceless crowd. He wants us to be one: "As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us" (v. 21). The unity for which Jesus prays is thus a communion grounded in the same love with which God loves, which brings life and salvation into the world. As such, it is firstly a gift that Jesus comes to bring. From his human heart, the Son of God prays to the Father in these words: "I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me" (v. 23).

Let us listen with amazement to these words. Jesus is telling us that God loves us as he loves himself. The Father does not love us any less than he loves his only-begotten Son. In other words, with an infinite love. God does not love less, because he loves first, from the very beginning! Christ himself bears witness to this when he says to the Father: "You loved me before the foundation of the world" (v. 24). And so it is: in his mercy, God has always desired to draw all people to himself. It is his life, bestowed upon us in Christ, that makes us one, uniting us with one another.

Listening to this Gospel today, during the Jubilee of Families, Children, Grandparents and the Elderly, fills us with joy.

Dear friends, we received life before we ever desired it. As Pope Francis said: "all of us are sons and daughters, but none of us chose to be born" (Angelus, 1 January 2025). Not only that. As soon as we were born, we needed others in order to live; left to ourselves, we would not have survived. Someone else saved us by caring for us in body and spirit. All of us are alive today thanks to a relationship, a free and freeing relationship of human kindness and mutual care.

That human kindness is sometimes betrayed. As for example, whenever freedom is invoked not to give life, but to take it away, not to help, but to hurt. Yet even in the face of the evil that opposes and takes life, Jesus continues to pray to the Father for us. His prayer acts as a balm for our wounds; it speaks to us of forgiveness and reconciliation. That prayer makes fully meaningful our experience of love for one another as parents, grandparents, sons and daughters. That is what we want to proclaim to the world: we are here in order to be "one" as the Lord wants us to be "one," in our families and in those places where we live, work and study. Different, yet one; many, yet one; always, in every situation and at every stage of life.

Dear friends, if we love one another in this way, grounded in Christ, who is "the Alpha and the Omega," "the beginning and the end" (cf. Rev 22:13), we will be a sign of peace for everyone, in society and the world. Let us not forget: families are the cradle of the future of humanity.

In recent decades, we have received a sign that fills us with joy but also makes us think. It is the fact that several spouses have been beatified and canonized, not separately, but as married couples. I think of Louis and Zélie Martin, the parents of Saint Therese of the Child Jesus; and of Blessed Luigi and Maria Beltrame Quattrocchi, who raised a family in Rome in the last century. And let us not forget the Ulma family from Poland: parents and children, united in love and martyrdom. I said that this is a sign that makes us think.

By pointing to them as exemplary witnesses of married life, the Church tells us that today's world needs the marriage covenant in order to know and accept God's love and to defeat, thanks to its unifying and reconciling power, the forces that break down relationships and societies.

*For this reason, with a heart filled with gratitude and hope, I would remind all married couples that marriage is not an ideal but the measure of true love between a man and a woman: a love that is total, faithful and fruitful (cf. SAINT PAUL VI, Humanae Vitae, 9). This love makes you one flesh and enables you, in the image of God, to bestow the gift of life... POPE LEO XIV

Blessings on your week!

The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa is your opportunity to support the faith of our African brothers and sisters. Please be generous to the collection at Mass. www.usccb.org/africa

Holy Hour Friday 7:00PM August 1, 2025

The St. Jude House of Prayer ministry hosts a monthly holy hour on every first Friday of the month in the church. Taking time to be with the Lord in the quietness of church can be one of the most rewarding and peaceful things you can do. Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you. The hour of prayer will include praise & worship, a talk, and guided Adoration. All are welcome!

FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION

FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION

Registration Open Now!

Classes begin Sep 16th, 2025
5:30pm to 7:00pm every Tuesday.

The vision for Family Faith Formation is to help families build a strong Catholic foundation, where children learn the joys of following Jesus Christ and the truths of the Catholic faith through the witness of their parents.

Family Faith Formation
St. Jude Catholic Church

Children learn quickly and model parents often. Parents have a great responsibility in shaping the faith of their child/children, which was shared through baptism. We, as a parish, are here to support your endeavor in shaping your child's life in the Catholic faith. We'll guide them by teaching important aspects of faith and church, and prepare them to receive their sacraments.

There are regular faith formation classes from K-6 as well as Sacramental preparation (First Reconciliation and First Holy Eucharist) for children, from 2nd grade to 6th grade.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Nothing can happen without parent volunteers. Parent volunteers are required always during these classes to help assist teachers and with set up of classes. We are also in need of teachers (teaching materials will be provided).

JUBILEE 2025
PILGRIMS OF HOPE

Five Local Pilgrimage Sites

This summer, you can make a Jubilee pilgrimage closer to home by visiting St. James Cathedral in Seattle or one of the other designated pilgrimage places throughout the archdiocese. In each location, you will find a self-guided pilgrimage brochure including special prayers for the Jubilee. At the Cathedral, all are encouraged to venerate the special Jubilee Cross which was placed by Archbishop Etienne on December 29, 2024. It will be available for veneration throughout the 2025 Jubilee Year.

What is a Jubilee Year?

A Jubilee is a special year of prayer. Jubilees are times for forgiveness, reconciliation, and pilgrimage and are a part of Catholic tradition. Jubilees ordinarily take place every 25 years. The theme of Jubilee 2025 is Pilgrims of Hope, and the faithful are encouraged to participate, either by going on pilgrimage to Rome or in your local archdiocese.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION

A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. A QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. QCDs don't require that you itemize, which due to recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

ONLINE GIVING: To donate, scan the QR Code or visit our website at www.stjude-redmond.org

IRA DISTRIBUTIONS (RMD)

By utilizing an IRA for charitable giving, you can satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) obligations starting at age 73, while also supporting a cause you care about. The donated amount is excluded from your taxable income, which can provide a tax advantage, especially if you do not itemize deductions.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS

A charitable investment account for the sole purpose of supporting charitable organizations.
