KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Dear friends in Christ,

With everything going on in the world, it is easy to be anxious about many things. In the midst of all, God wants us to have a peace the world cannot give, a peace that is grounded in his watchful care and abiding love for us. So today, I want to commend to you an excerpt from St. Paul and the words of St. Teresa of Avila: Let us pray for one another and lift each other up in these days.

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4:6-9

Let nothing disturb you. Let nothing frighten you.

All things are passing away. God never changes.

Patience obtains all things.

Whoever has God lacks nothing;

God alone suffices. Saint Teresa of Avila

LENTEN MISSION THIS WEEK March 23-25

This coming weekend at all the Masses in 3 churches we kick off a Lenten Mission for all our family: Abundant Life in Christ.

The mission talks will be given by Deacon Reuben D'sa at St. Jude in the church from 7-8:30 PM Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday March 23-25.

The Mission will focus on the reconciling and healing mercy of God. The evenings will include opportunities for prayer, adoration, and faith sharing. Plan to come this coming week! Don't miss this great opportunity for Lenten renewal.

Holy Week begins next Sunday!

Come let us walk with the Lord!

This week we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent, which means Holy Week begins next Sunday. Each year in Holy Week, we take time to remember and celebrate the love Christ poured out for us in his Passion, Death and Resurrection. This week is the holiest and most important of the year for us as Catholic Christians. I would like to invite each of you to renew your faith by taking an active part in these deeply meaningful celebrations.

In the sacred liturgy Christ is able to touch us directly. Through the signs and symbols of the liturgy we enter into the life changing work of Jesus Christ. We encounter the Lord and we are changed.

I invite you to walk with Christ this year in the liturgies of Holy Week. We begin next Sunday by celebrating Palm Sunday, commemorating Christ's entry into Jerusalem, when the children carrying palm branches acclaimed him as King. We continue with the Sacred Triduum or "Holy three days" beginning on Holy Thursday, remembering the origins of the Eucharist in the Mass of the Lord's Supper. On Good Friday, we recall Christ offering himself on the cross and we venerate that cross, where he poured out his life out of love for us. All liturgies of Holy Week are oriented to the great event of Christ's triumph over sin and death: The Resurrection. On Holy Saturday, after dark, a new fire is kindled, the Easter Candle is blessed, and we sing of the triumph of the light of Christ over darkness. This Mass is unlike any other because the church watches and waits as she recalls all the mighty deeds God has done for us. I hope you can attend the Vigil, for we will welcome new members with the Easter sacraments. Let us rejoice at how God has planted the faith in the hearts of these believers. Their faith renews our faith. Although this liturgy is lengthy, it lasts no longer than a good movie or baseball game and is, of course, infinitely more meaningful. If you have never taken part in the Sacred Triduum or if it has been years since you have, please take time out this coming week to appreciate the manifold ways Christ has demonstrated his love for us.

Let us renew our faith and our Church by taking part in these celebrations. Wouldn't it be great if every family took an active role? These liturgies are most wonderful when everyone takes part, praising God with our whole heart. While there is much conflict in our world, and so much in our society is in need of healing, Christ remains the only answer, the one source of salvation, the only way to peace. So, let us join together this Holy Week, thanking, praising Christ the Lord for the salvation and hope he brings!

Blessings on your week,
Fr. Johnson

PARISH MISSION

Lenten Mission for St. Jude, Holy Innocents, and St. Anthony

ABUNDANT LIFE IN CHRIST

MARCH 23–25 • 7:00–8:30 PM

ST. JUDE CHURCH, REDMOND

Jesus proclaims in John 10:10, “I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.” This mission is an invitation to rediscover that promise—deep, joyful, grace-filled life in Christ. Over three evenings, we will explore God’s mercy, the freedom that comes through forgiveness, and a practical path toward healing the heart. Come expecting renewal, encouragement, and the gentle work of the Holy Spirit.

MISSION SCHEDULE & THEMES

March 23 — God’s Mercy

Discover the heart of the Father who runs to meet His children. This evening opens the mission with a powerful reflection on God’s desire to heal, restore, and draw us into His love.

March 24 — Forgiveness: Setting Others Free

Unforgiveness weighs down the soul. This night focuses on the grace—and challenge—of forgiving others, and how forgiveness opens the door to peace and spiritual freedom.

March 25 — A 13-Step Journey Into Forgiveness

A practical, guided walk through a proven process of forgiving others. Participants will leave with tools to continue healing and living more fully in Christ.

The Return of the Prodigal Son Rembrandt, 1663-1669

Why Attend?

This mission is designed to help you:

- Experience God’s mercy in a deeper way.
- Break patterns that steal peace and joy.
- Learn how forgiveness transforms relationships.
- Walk away with practical steps for ongoing spiritual healing.
- Live more fully the abundant life Jesus desires for you.

Whether you are seeking healing, renewal, or simply a closer walk with Christ, these three evenings will offer hope, clarity, and encouragement.

ALL ARE WELCOME

COME AS YOU ARE. BRING A FRIEND.

ENCOUNTER THE MERCY AND HEALING OF JESUS CHRIST.

“I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly.” — John 10:10
