LET US ENTER INTO THE HOLY WEEK WITH JOY AND HOPE! THIS SUNDAY IS PALM SUNDAY!

This weekend we begin Holy Week with Palm Sunday and the blessing of Palms at all the Masses. I urge you all to take part in all the major Liturgies of Holy Week, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and the Easter Vigil. We, as Catholics, need to live this week differently, to orient our lives around these sacred mysteries this week, so that the Lord's passion, death and resurrection might transform our lives throughout the rest of the years. Fast, pray, celebrate! Please set aside time in these days, for family prayer, for spiritual reading, for acts of charity, and with the resurrection, feasting and celebration. Most of all, plan to participate fully in these beautiful liturgies. They immerse us into mysteries of the Lord's saving love. Please be assured of my special prayers for you and your families this Holy Week. May we turn to the Lord and be more deeply converted by his love!

Please note that this year at St. Jude we will be having two liturgies going on at the same time, 7 PM on Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Upstairs in the church will be the usual St Jude (Latin Rite) liturgies. Downstairs, our wonderful Syro Malabar Community will be having its own Holy Thursday and Good Friday Liturgies. We urge you to park in the upper lots and enter through the main doors for the St Jude liturgies. We are asking the Syro Malabar community to use the lower lots and Parish Hall doors.

I look forward to celebrating with you all in these Holy Days.

Blessings on your week!
Fr. Johnson

A few years ago, Pope Francis offered a marvelous reflection on St. Matthew's Passion which we will hear on Palm Sunday this year. I offer it to you below as a great way to reflect and prepare for Holy Week:

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Mt 27:46). This is the cry that today's liturgy has us repeat in the responsorial psalm (cf. Ps 22:2), the only cry that Jesus makes from the cross in the Gospel we have heard. Those words bring us to the very heart of Christ's passion, the culmination of the sufferings he endured for our salvation. "Why have you forsaken me?"

The sufferings of Jesus were many, and whenever we listen to the account of the Passion, they pierce our hearts. There were sufferings of the body: let us think of the slaps and beatings, the flogging and the crowning with thorns, and in the end, the cruelty of the crucifixion. There were also sufferings of the soul: the betrayal of Judas, the denials of Peter, the condemnation of the religious and civil authorities, the mockery of the guards, the jeering at the foot of the cross, the rejection of the crowd, utter failure and the flight of the disciples. Yet, amid all these sorrows, Jesus remained certain of one thing: the closeness of the Father. Now, however, the unthinkable has taken place. Before dying, he cries out: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" The forsakenness of Jesus.

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" In the Bible, the word "forsake" is powerful. We hear it at moments of extreme pain: love that fails, or is rejected or betrayed; children who are rejected and aborted; situations of repudiation, the lot of widows and orphans; broken marriages, forms of social exclusion, injustice and oppression; the solitude of sickness. In a word, in the drastic severing of the bonds that unite us to others. There, this word is spoken: "abandonment". Christ brought all of this to the cross; upon his shoulders, he bore the sins of the world. And at the supreme moment, Jesus, the only-begotten, beloved Son of the Father, experienced a situation utterly alien to his very being: abandonment, the distance of God.

Why did it have to come to this? He did it for us. There is no other answer. For us. Brothers and sisters, today this is not merely a show. Every one of us, hearing of Jesus' abandonment, can say: for me. This abandonment is the price he paid for me. He became one with each of us in order to be completely and definitively one with us to the very end. He experienced abandonment in order not to leave us prey to despair, in order to stay at our side forever. He did this for me, for you, because whenever you or I or anyone else seems pinned to the wall, lost in a blind alley, plunged into the abyss of abandonment, sucked into a whirlwind of so many "whys" without an answer, there can still be a hope: Jesus himself, for you, for me. It is not the end, because Jesus was there and even now, he is at your side. He endured the distance of abandonment in order to take up into his love every possible distance that we can feel. So that each of us might say: in my failings, and each of us has failed many times, in my desolation, whenever I feel betrayed or betrayed others, whenever I feel cast aside or have cast aside others, whenever I feel forsaken or have abandoned others, let us think of Jesus, who was abandoned, betrayed and cast aside. There, we find him. When I feel lost and confused, when I feel that I can't go on, he is beside me. Amid all my unanswered questions "why...?", he is there. POPE FRANCIS

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MINISTRY NEWS

Two Miracles

In February, our St. Vincent de Paul ministry witnessed two unprecedented situations that helped families remain housed, which we attribute to divine intervention.

The first miracle happened before I even realized it. Terry, a mother with two children, was just a week away from eviction. The amount of financial help needed exceeded what our conference could offer one family. Because her daughter was undergoing treatment at Children's Hospital, Terry couldn't work as much, leading to a smaller paycheck, although she kept her full-time job. She took on a second job to help cover their expenses. I found out about this situation shortly before joining an SVdP local retreat with other conference presidents.

At the retreat, I spoke with Mr. Smith, president of a Seattle conference about Terry's situation. He mentioned his conference had surplus donations and offered to assist. After sharing Terry's case details via email, their conference pledged funds less than 24 hours after we spoke. We learned about the pledge just before our meeting with Terry the next morning. We are certain that God put us in the right place at the right time when Terry was out of options. It was such a blessing.

The second miracle happened a few weeks later. We assisted a refugee family whose father, Mark, was hospitalized and unable to work. When we met him, his spouse and son, he was still very weak and recovering from his treatments. Without income, the family faced eviction, and his wife had to care for him and their son. No other agencies offered financial help, but the Vincentian on the case found resources to support them if they could remain housed.

We reached out to other SVdP conferences nearby, and three of them helped cover Mark's rent. We shared his story with a parishioner who also stepped up because we were still short on funds. We have not cobbled together rent resources for a family like this before, so we know He was guiding us. We shared the joyful news with a very grateful family.

We felt God's guidance on both of these calls. Miracles do happen, especially when we work together under His direction!

“Participants in the Charismatic Renewal are in love with the Lord Jesus Christ and His Church. They not only speak of Jesus as someone who lived over two thousand years ago, they speak of Jesus as someone who is alive today—because He is! They affirm that the same charisms, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, which empowered the early Church, are still available to every believer.”
