THE NOVEMBER FEASTS

Dear friends in Christ,
As I write this on Friday, it is All Hallows Eve otherwise known as Halloween. Halloween has its origins as the eve of the Solemnity of All Saints, this important day when we remember all the countless men and women who have reached our ultimate homeland of Heaven. This year we will celebrate All Saints Day only on Saturday Morning. There will be two Masses, 9 AM at Holy Innocents in Duvall and 9 AM at St. Jude in Redmond. While this year there is no obligation to attend the Holy Day Masses, it is none the less an important feast to celebrate and I hope you will plan to come and celebrate the victory of All the Saints and ask their intercession on Saturday.

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Pope Benedict beautifully explained the importance of this feast in just a few words:

This, then, is the meaning of today's Solemnity: looking at the shining example of the Saints to reawaken within us the great longing to be like them; happy to live near God, in his light, in the great family of God's friends. Being a Saint means living close to God, to live in his family.Consequently, the more we imitate Jesus and remain united to him the more we enter into the mystery of his divine holiness. We discover that he loves us infinitely, and this prompts us in turn to love our brethren. POPE BENEDICT

NOVEMBER 2, THE FEAST OF ALL SOULS, THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED.

This year, All Souls Day falls on a Sunday and in the Saturday Vigil Mass and the Sunday Masses we will offer up prayers all our deceased loved ones. Our prayers matter and really do aid them. All Souls is the day for the rest of us, all those who though dying in a state of grace, need a little clean-up in purgatory before entering the heavenly banquet. Scripture tells us "It is a good and praiseworthy thing to pray for the dead." As Catholics, we have a 2000 year tradition of offering prayers for our deceased, that they might quickly enter into the joys of heaven. So let us remember all of our beloved dead, in the hope and promise of the resurrection.

Finally, I want to encourage you to visit our cemeteries during this month. Let us remember and pray for our loved ones. Here are some prayers which can be offered at the grave:

A PRAYER FOR VISITING A CEMETERY

Eternal God, have mercy on all who are buried here. (In particular, we pray for N. and N.) Bring them into your kingdom of light and peace and let them share joy with you and with all your saints. We ask this through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labors for their good deeds go with them.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord!

R. And let perpetual light shine upon them! May they rest in peace! R. Amen

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. R. Amen.

SOME IMPORTANT UPCOMING EVENTS:

At St. Anthony, Saturday Night, November 1 after Mass
All Souls Day Italian Dinner in commemoration of our loved ones.

At St. Jude, Saturday Night, November 8, after Mass
Pasta Festa fundraiser to Benefit the Knights of Columbus College Scholarship Program. Buy your tickets on the St. Jude website.

Please join us for these great events!

THANK YOU!

Finally, a special thank you to all who came, brought food, worked so hard, and made the Feast of St. Jude and International Potluck such a success!

Blessings on you all and blessings on your week!

Fr. Johnson

FUNERAL RECEPTION MINISTRY

Our funeral reception ministry has been busy this fall and is in need of some new workers and cooks. Our mission is to help the grieving family by taking one item off their list of things that need to be done. This is a great ministry, especially if you do not like meetings! We ask for salads or desserts for the receptions and need about four people to help set up, serve, and clean up.

Thank you for considering this ministry.

Blessings,
Ann Case, Funeral Ministry Lead

If you can help by washing table cloths after funeral receptions, please contact Betty.
Thank you and God bless you!

2026 STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Giving in the Spirit of Gratitude

PARISH STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE.

WE ARE CALLED TO SHARE
OUR TREASURE WITH OTHERS.

Last week, we invited you to reflect on God's blessings and respond with a spirit of generosity. We are deeply grateful to all who have made a stewardship commitment—your support is a powerful witness to faith in action.

Because of your gifts, our parish continues to thrive. We're able to offer vibrant liturgies, faith formation for all ages, outreach to those in need, and a welcoming community where people can encounter Jesus Christ.

If you haven't yet made your commitment, there's still time. Every gift matters, and together, we make a lasting impact. Thank you for being part of this mission.

Please make your pledge today by scanning the QR code to the right, or completing the commitment card in the pew or going to our website www.stjude-redmond.org
Thank you.

WAYS TO FULFILL YOUR PLEDGE:

PARISH STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE.

PLEASE
PRAYERFULLY
CONSIDER
GOD'S GIFTS TO YOU AND MAKE YOUR PLEDGE TODAY.

Gratitude starts when we recognize that we have received a gift.

Everything we have is a gift from God, and we're called to share these gifts with others. This is stewardship.

Understanding this, embracing the joy of stewardship, is what creates in us a "need" to give. We give not because there is a need to give — but because our heart points us to give as a part of our faith journey. We give because we are grateful for what we have been given.

If you haven't already decided on your parish stewardship commitment, please prayerfully consider God's gifts to you and make your pledge today. Good things happen when you share. When we see everything before us as a gift, we joyfully accept the responsibility to grow and return our gifts to God.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

"God, what do you want me to do with my life for you?"

MARRIAGE | PRIESTHOOD | RELIGIOUS LIFE | DIACONATE

November 2-8, 2025
(and continues year-round!)

This annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the U.S. is dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

A vocation is a call from God to a life of committed love reflecting the love that God has for each of us. If you have not yet found your vocation, take time every day to ask God what he wants you to do with your life, and listen for his response in the stillness of your heart for peace and clarity.

If you are already living your vocation, be a good example of that vocation, share the challenges and the blessings of your vocation with others, and continue to pray for those still discerning God's will.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father,
You call each of us
to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

Inspire your people
with desire to know you,
the grace to understand your will,
and, with the strength of the Holy Spirit,
the courage to respond
with love and freedom.

Send workers into your great harvest
so that the Gospel is preached,
the poor are served with love,
the suffering are comforted,
and your people are strengthened
by the sacraments.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Ways to Give

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION

A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. A QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. QCDs don't require that you itemize, which due to recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

ONLINE GIVING: To donate, scan the QR Code or visit our website at www.stjude-redmond.org

IRA DISTRIBUTIONS (RMD)

By utilizing an IRA for charitable giving, you can satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) obligations starting at age 73, while also supporting a cause you care about. The donated amount is excluded from your taxable income, which can provide a tax advantage, especially if you do not itemize deductions.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS

A charitable investment account for the sole purpose of supporting charitable organizations.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To live with Christ, we must die with him. But what does this mean? What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian? We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses, so that we may carry them into the newness of life.
