

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself, if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." Luke 23: 35-43

knightsofcolumbus@stjude-redmond.org

Dear friends in Christ,

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ, the universal King. We contemplate the one whose "dominion is an everlasting dominion," the one who is, "the Alpha and the Omega," "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty," the one who is the ruler of all the kings of the earth." May we acknowledge his reign in our hearts and in our lives so that we may have a place in his eternal kingdom.

As we end of the liturgical year this weekend with celebration of Christ the King, I want to express my profound gratitude to God for the graces of this past year and most of all for the grace and blessing of you: the parishioners of our parish family of St. Anthony, Holy Innocents and St. Jude. On Thursday, we will celebrate our national day of Thanksgiving and thank God for our material and familial blessings. Please join us for Thanksgiving Day Masses at 9 AM at St. Jude and Holy Innocents. What a wonderful way to begin this day, offering together our great prayer of thanksgiving to God, the Mass!

I am convinced that we hardly realize all the other not-so-tangible blessings God is working in us. I see this daily in so many unsung acts of sacrificial love!

So, thank you for your prayer.....

You can never imagine how many people you have helped by your prayers, but the fruit of your prayer is obvious in the testimonials I receive daily of prayers answered.

Thank you for your time....

So many of you go way above and beyond helping our churches operate. We couldn't survive as a parish without all your hard work. Your efforts help so many.

Thank you for your talents...

I feel so blessed as a pastor because I have parishioners who not only can do anything, but are willing to share those gifts and do it with excellence.

Thank you for your generosity...

Your faithful stewardship and willingness to share your resources with the Church and those in need continues to amaze me.

I keep coming back to the words of St. Paul, which I make my own in gratitude for you and God's grace working in you:

"I give thanks to my God at every remembrance of you, praying always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. It is right that I should think this way about all of you, because I hold you in my heart, you who are all partners with me in grace..."

Blessings and many thanks,

Fr. Jim Johnson

P. S. Soon we will enter the holy season of Advent, a time of preparation for the coming of the Lord and a time when we especially remember those in need. Please be sure to check out the Giving Trees and Giving Garlands at our parishes. They are wonderful ways to brighten the Christmas and holidays of those less fortunate. Please take a tag (or two or three!) and bring back the gift(s) by the due date. The needs are particularly great this year. You will bring joy to many people in this season.

I also want to encourage us to donate food and funds to the Holy Innocents Food Pantry. We are currently overwhelmed by the number of clients. The need for food is really great out there. We are also in need of volunteers to help. Thank you!

DITTY BAGS NEEDED!

Once again, we have been asked by the Catholic Seafarers Center (formerly known as the Catholic Seamen's Club) to include ditty bags with our gifts that we donate to them with our Christmas Giving Tree Project. The ditty bags can be constructed of almost any material (pattern or plain) that when hemmed are approximately 12"x14" in size with a drawstring close. They need to be completed by December 7. Any number of bags that you would be able to sew are appreciated. Please leave them at the Church office or under the Christmas Giving Trees that will be in the Narthex beginning November 15.

If you have any questions, please contact

Help display Nativity Sets

We will be putting up our annual Nativity Display on Sunday, December 7 after the 11AM Mass. If you can help out this year, we would really appreciate it. This is a wonderful annual tradition here at St. Jude that was started by former pastor, Father Dave Rogerson who had collected over 1,400 nativities from around the world. Upon his assignment to a new parish, he gifted our parish with around 700 sets and we display a different 1/3 of the set each year. This tradition continues through the support from Fr Johnson and parish staff. It is so enjoyable to open each box or unwrap each piece and be surprised with the uniqueness of each set. LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our king wears a crown of thorns, not a crown of gold. His glory is not in riches but in suffering. His law is written in his own blood, shed for the love of us. Do we understand the gift that it is, to be subject to such a king?

St. Jude Year-End Giving Reminder

"The starting point of stewardship is recognizing that everything we have, everything that we are is by God's initiative—by God's grace." Archbishop Etienne on the spirituality of stewardship

This is the time of year when most people give and receive. We thank you for your generosity and good stewardship to St Jude as we continue the mission of Jesus Christ. As you search for the perfect gift for loved ones, remember that a year-end charitable gift in their name is deeply appreciated.

Donate: Visit our website at www.stjude-redmond.org/giving or scan the QR Code.

Ways to Give Beyond Cash

Our sincerest THANKS to you — for your generosity, good stewardship and financial support of the parish throughout the year! And if God has especially blessed you financially in 2025, please consider a special year-end gift to our parish.

Blessings, Fr. Johnson

YOUR GIFT MAKES A DIFFERENCE:

- In our children's Faith Formation
- To the people we serve in our community (Safe Parkers, St. Vincent de Paul, etc)
- In our facilities
- In advancing the mission of the Church

Please Note:
to qualify as a 2025 contribution, donations to the parish must be received in the parish office or postmarked by or before December 31

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE

DISTRIBUTION (QCD)

A QCD is a direct transfer of funds from your IRA custodian, payable to a qualified charity. A QCD excludes the amount donated from taxable income, which is unlike regular withdrawals from an IRA. QCDs don't require that you itemize, which due to recent tax law changes, means you may decide to take advantage of the higher standard deduction but still use a QCD for charitable giving.

IRA

By utilizing an IRA for charitable giving, you can satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) obligations starting at age 73, while also supporting a cause you care about. The donated amount is excluded from your taxable income, which can provide a tax advantage, especially if you do not itemize deductions.

DONOR-ADVISED FUNDS (DAF)

A DAF is like a charitable investment account for the sole purpose of supporting charitable organizations. When you contribute cash, securities or other assets to a donor advised fund, you are generally eligible to take an immediate tax deduction. Funds are disbursed at your discretion.

Remember us in your will or trust.

Visit <https://archseattle.mylegacygift.org> for help with Planned Giving.

This flyer is designed to provide general information regarding end of year giving strategies. It is not intended to serve as legal, tax, or other financial advice related to individual situations. Because each individual's legal, tax, and financial situation is different, specific advice should be tailored to the particular circumstances. For this reason, you are advised to consult with your own attorney, CPA, and/or other advisor regarding your specific situation.

Be part of something special: the ASCEND Eucharistic Revival will be a day of joyful worship, featuring prominent Catholic Speakers, Eucharistic Adoration and Procession, Rosary, praise music, and Holy Mass with Archbishop Etienne.

We are seeking volunteers to help put on this very special event, and our next All-Hands meeting is right here at St. Jude, on December 1, 2025 at 6PM.
